Of the U. S. Bunting Cricket Club

Attended by 300

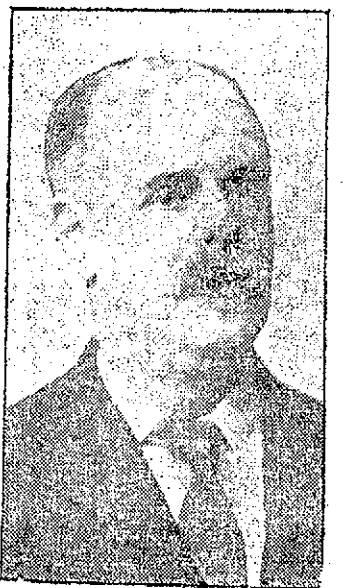

BUNTING CLUB HOUSE IN SOUTH LOWELL.

Interesting Address by Secretary Humphriss on Club's Growth and Standing—Prizes Awarded by His Honor Mayor Meehan

The 17th annual banquet of the United States Bunting club and Athletic association was held Saturday night at the club house in South Lowell. There was an unusually large attendance despite the unfavorable weather. The Buntings are noted for their hospitality, and Saturday night the members left nothing undone to make the occasion one of great pleasure to all who attended. The program which was carried out reflected much credit on the club. In the first place there was an excellent dinner served, there were good speeches and later a fine musical and literary program was carried out.

There were about 300 present, including many of Lowell's prominent citizens. Among those who were noticed were Mayor John P. Meehan, Hon. Fisher H. Pearson, John J. Rogers, well known. His address as toastmaster was the feature of the exercises. Toastmaster Humphriss spoke in part as follows: "Here's to the club, and it ever be the honest endeavor of each and every one of us to keep the club's name unblemished and untarnished as we received it from our predecessors."

Eczema All Over Baby's Body
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." ## A CYCLONE

Property Damaged and Many Were Killed in Havana

HAVANA, Oct. 17.—The cyclone that struck the island yesterday is increasing. Its velocity is appalling. Beyond doubt it is far more serious than the hurricane of 1906, which cost many lives and did damage to the amount of millions of dollars.

The custom house warehouses are flooded and the roof of the main building has been blown away.

The National observatory reports that the disturbance is only beginning and will last probably twenty hours.

Mr. Thompson contracted a cold recently and that together with a general decline of health resulted in the illness taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon. A physician was called and his condition at that time was so serious that it was decided that he needed constant attention.

Liquor Seizure Near Lakeview Yesterday

A roast pig dinner was held at the residence of Frank Loveague near Lakeview yesterday, but the affair did not prove to be the success that was anticipated. Of course there was plenty of wet goods on the premises and everything was going along nicely until Deputy Sheriff Eveleth and Police Officer William J. Cullinan, the latter of the Collinsville section, put in an appearance. After they had seized a quantity of liquor the party became disconsolate.

Levesque's place has been raided on several occasions and he has been convicted for the illegal keeping of liquor. The festivities were just beginning when the officers put in an appearance. After making a search of the premises they decided to take the beer and whiskey which they found. They also notified Mr. Levesque to come into court. Levesque was in court this morning, but before his case was called he made his escape and when his case was reached it was found that he had disappeared. The charge against him is illegally keeping liquor.

Austin Will Settle

Wm. Austin was charged with illegally removing baggage from the boarding house at Winthrop. Lester it seems that William boarded at the Lester house and one day while indebted to the woman left the house and took what belonged to him with him. He admitted that he owed the Lester woman money but informed the court that it was his intention to liquidate his indebtedness in the near future. The court placed Austin in the custody of Constable Livingston of Billerica after the latter said that he would see that Austin would pay the bill.

Drunken Offenders

There was a very large list of drunken offenders in court this morning. Some were old timers while others made their first appearance in the gilded cage.

James Mone, John Myers and Daniel McCarthy were sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater while Walter Durgin was given a suspended sentence in the same institution. John Fleming who is on parole, will be returned to the farm.

Matthew Moore was given a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory.

Andrew Carr appeared before the court recently and was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail but he failed to live up to the requirements of his probation and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Patrick Tierney was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail.

Catherine A. Hayes was sentenced to jail for two months and the sentence was suspended.

Hornissas Heroux, charged with drunkenness, was called but his condition warranted the continuance of the case for one week.

Michael J. Riley, Edward W. Collins, Leonard B. Morse, Timothy Donovan, Jeremiah Toomey, Edward J. Fanning and John J. Keliher were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.

The Sunday drunks were Napoleon, Basille and Joseph Masterson, each being fined $5.

There were several first offenders who were fined $2 each and 11 simple drunks, who were released.

Lawrence Cummins, a young man around town, was in court charged with larceny of $5. The case was continued.

BALL FANS GATHER

For the Game Between Philadelphia and Chicago Nationals

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Sunrise this morning revealed a long line of enthusiastic baseball fans before the gates of Shibe park waiting for the first game this afternoon between the Philadelphia Americans and the Chicago Nationals, for the championship of the baseball world.

The line began to form at sundown last night. The rooters brought campstools or chairs and also carried their breakfast and lunches. The line grew so rapidly that the police decided not to let the crowd congregate through the night and broke up the assemblage.

The more determined of the rooters went into the public park across the street from the ball grounds and waited. Before dawn newsmen arrived and stood at the bleacher gates and the park campers joined them. Thus the line again formed and rapidly grew.

At 8 a. m. the crowd started to jam about the gates and the police stepped in and brought about order. It was apparent that when the two teams met at 2 o'clock this afternoon the largest crowd that ever saw a baseball game in Philadelphia would be on hand.

Every reserved seat in the grand stand was sold a week ago and the comparatively few tickets that fell into the hands of the speculators brought $5000 persons. Standing room in the grand stands at $1.50 a head was sold to 2500 persons just before the game started. The only other tickets on sale were those for the bleachers and the temporary field seats in centre field. These tickets were about 20,000. The bleacher gates were opened at 11 a. m. and the entrances to the grand stand an hour later.

Almost perfect weather prevailed. There was little wind and the atmosphere was much warmer than could be expected for this time of the year. Manager Chance's men appeared about the courtyard of the Aldine hotel early and reported that they were "feeling fine."

Out at Shibe park Cornelius McGillicuddy, whose baseball noni de plume is Connie Mack, met Captain Davis and the other players.

"Ready for anything," said Right Fielder Murphy, when Manager McGillicuddy asked them how they felt.

Both Teams Confident

The opposing teams and their followers each professed confidence in the result of both the opening game and the series. While the National league club has the prestige of former victories in world's championship events and is the favorite at 10 to 8 in the little betting that prevails, most of the smaller bets are at even money.

It is declared that the teams are about the finest ever developed in the respective leagues. The Cubs are made up of practically the same players that won the two world's championships for Chicago from Detroit in 1907 and 1908. The Athletics, on the other hand, have only six players. Pitchers Bender and Plank, First Baseman Davis and Outfielders Murphy, Hartse and Lord of the team which was defeated by the N. Y. Nationals in the world's series of 1905. The other players are young men who joined the team since that time.

There was disappointment because each team was to go into the game minus its stars. John J. Evers, a most important part of Manager Chance's baseball machinery, who broke a leg in Cincinnati, was ruled by Zimmerman, a batsman of no mean ability. Who was to take Centrefielder Oldring's place on the Philadelphia team was still a secret this afternoon. Oldring, who is a 300 point clean-up batsman, a fleet fielder, and a star "inside" man on the base paths, twisted an ankle last week.

Manager Chance played and directed his team on the field. Manager McGillicuddy, as usual, occupies his secluded spot on the players' bench. The best guess as to the batteries was Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and Overall and Kilgus for Chicago. The batting order had not been announced during the morning.

YANKIES vs. GIANTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Giants and the Highlanders went out for morning practice for the fifth morning game of the post season series between the two local clubs of the National and American leagues. Hundreds planned to go to the American league park, where they could not only witness the local contest but follow the inning results of the world's championship game at Philadelphia.

The local series now stands: Giants, two games won, and one victory for the Highlanders. Manager Chase indicated that he would use his star boxman, Russell Ford, to even up the series. Either Crandall or Matthewson will pitch for the Giants.

MIDDLETOWN, R. I., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the famous authoress, died at 11 o'clock this morning.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT

BROOKLINE, Oct. 17.—The tall chestnut trees that border the Country club golf links looked down today on some of the best women players of three golfing countries in the special invitation tournament of the Woman's Golf association of Boston. Part of the brilliant field that played in the national championship on the Homewood course at Chicago came on for the Boston event and as few eastern women were to Chicago there was considerable interest in what is generally regarded as a supplementary championship event.

With players from the west, from New York and Philadelphia and from Ontario and England and a strong local field that includes several former title holders, there was plenty of sport on the program, even after today's qualifying round for the four flights of eight players each which will continue tomorrow at match play.

The first pair drove off across the broad polo field at 10 a. m. with the remainder of the field following at five minutes' intervals. The full championship course of 6083 yards was used and every woman stood on the same tees as those used by the men in the national amateur championship five weeks ago.

KILLED BY AUTOS

Four Persons Met Death in Accidents Yesterday

BROOKTON, Oct. 17.—Simon W. O'Brien, aged 32, of Randolph was instantly killed in an automobile accident on Battles street shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning. His skull was fractured by coming in contact with a tree at the side of the road. Four other occupants of the auto, George H. Littlefield of Ayon, Thomas Miller, Thomas Hoyle and 180 Hurley of Randolph, had narrow escapes from injury.

The auto, which was driven by Mr. Littlefield, who owns it, was wrecked. Littlefield was formerly a shoe manufacturer in Ayon.

The party was on the way from Randolph to Brookton, where it was planned to dine at a local restaurant. Miller and Hurley had been with Littlefield most of the evening. O'Brien and Hoyle were picked up at a restaurant in Randolph.

The trip to Battles street was without incident. The locality, two miles from the center of the city, was dark, and as Littlefield guided his machine around a curve in front of the farm of Fred F. Field he left the sandy road and took to a wide stretch of grassward. Although there is a slight incline at this point, the position of the automobile after the accident indicated that the machine must have been going at tremendous speed.

Forty feet from the point where the machine left the road stood a big tree, with roots protruding from the ground. One of the front wheels struck a root with such force as to toss the machine into the air to a height of 12 feet. As the auto changed its course and passed by the tree it is believed O'Brien, who was sitting on that side of the machine, lost his balance and his head swung out, coming in contact with the tree. His body was found 30 feet from the tree.

After coming in contact with the root the automobile hurdled the road and landed squarely at the side of some bushes, 35 feet distant from the tree.

All of the occupants except O'Brien retained their seats and escaped injury. They immediately began a search for O'Brien and found him in a pool of blood in some bushes five feet away from the automobile. He was dead, the back part of his head having been crushed in.

The Brookton police were notified and Medical Examiner Paine and Patrolman Lindholm went to the scene in a police automobile. All of the men except Littlefield are said to have left the scene, walking back to Randolph. The policeman guarded the body until the arrival of an undertaker from Brookton.

The automobile, which was left at the side of the road, was removed yesterday forenoon to Ayon. Simon O'Brien was one of the best-known young men in Randolph. He was a son of the late William P. O'Brien, who was a shoe manufacturer of Randolph. He was employed in the making room at the Richards & Brennan factory. He made his home with his three sisters. A brother, Frank O'Brien, is a police officer in Philadelphia.

AUTO SKIDDED
HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—Skidding along a slippery road into a ditch in West Holyoke early yesterday, an automobile owned and driven by James J. Reardon tipped over, killing Mr. Reardon, fracturing an arm of Miss McCarthy, one of the occupants and slightly injuring A. B. Cayer and Miss McDonald, both of Springfield.

Mr. Reardon was a widower, 41 years old, and the proprietor of a hotel in this city. Miss McCarthy is also a resident of this city.

The party was coming from Springfield to Holyoke when the accident occurred. The machine skidded in going around a curve and crashed into a fence post by the roadside, breaking the forward axle and tipping over into a ditch. Mr. Reardon was pinned beneath the seat and probably died instantly. The others were thrown from the car, Miss McCarthy being the only one hurt.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

No musical comedy of recent years has ever created the furore throughout New England that the famous "Isle of Spice" has. After one of the longest runs on record in Boston it went on tour through New England playing to enormous business at high prices. During the engagement this week at the Opera House of the Ladies and Phalanx Amusement company "The Isle of Spice" will be given its first presentation here at popular prices, with George Ovey, the funny comedian of the company, in the leading comedy role, assisted by a talented company of 40 people, consisting of singers, dancers and a few all-arounders.

"The Isle of Spice" contains many famous song hits, all of which have been retained, among which may be mentioned the famous "Goo Goo Man," "Peggy Brady," "How Can You Tell 'Till You Try," and "Uncle Sam's Marines." A feature of the production will be the scenery used especially for "The Isle of Spice." Special scenery and costumes are used for each musical comedy during the week, and it is safe to say that this will be the highest entertainment ever offered at popular prices.

Daily matinees will be the rule during the engagement of the company, and the prices will be: Box seats, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents; matinees, 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company opens its engagement here tonight, presenting "A Knight for a Day."

"THE JOLLY BACHELORS"
A company of more than a hundred is required to interpret the musical and dancing numbers in "The Jolly Bachelors," the biggest of all the big Law Fields shows, which is coming to the Opera House soon.

The principals include such widely known artists as Miss Stella Mayhew, one of the funniest women on the American stage; Miss Lucy Weston, the dainty English singer, who has recently been one of the biggest "headliners" in vaudeville; Al Leach, easily the foremost eccentric dancer on our stage; Roy Jewell, Billie Taylor, Harold, Chas. Norman, Thorpe, and Sawyer and Nat Fields. The big chorus has been rehearsed under the personal direction of Ned Wayburn.

Scenically the piece outshines anything of its sort ever presented in this country, five baggage cars being required to transport the scenery and properties. "The Jolly Bachelors" succeeded "The Midnight Sons" at the Broadway theatre early last winter and attained an equal measure of success with metropolitan theatregoers.

THEATRE VOYONS

There is seldom a more touching friendship than that which exists between the owner of horses and dogs and his dumb friends. In "The Friends," shown today at the Theatre Voyons, a poor old man's only friends are his horse and dog, and the story woven around this attachment is pathetic and at the same time natural and beautiful. Another picture that will attract a good deal of attention is "The Song That Reached His Heart," a story of the effect that that good old song "Annie Laurie" has on a down and out western miner. In his childhood this song was his mother's favorite and in several critical periods of his life his hearing the long forgotten song causes a change in his life. It is a well carried out picture with every detail brought out to its fullest extent and one that is acted in an unapproachable manner. In connection with this picture several novel musical effects will be introduced. "The Song That Reached His Heart" will show the funny side of a vacation in which several young people get into very embarrassing situations.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Tom Nawn, the most original and gratifying Irish comedian of the business, will appear at Hathaway's this week in his latest and best comedy sketch, "When Pat Was King," another chapter in the history of the whimsical and the ubiquitous Pat, whom Mr. Nawn has made famous. "Pat and the Gown" has made famous sketches brought out by Mr. Nawn have convulsed thousands of vaudeville-goers, but his newest offering goes them all one better. Another pretentious number which will conduce to the general happiness is Russell and Smith's "Minstrels," with Joe B. McGee, "The Music of the Kitchen." The production is the presentation of a complete old-time minstrel first part, with all the snap and sparkle attending the best performance of this kind ever given in vaudeville. Sweet singing, funny jesting by the end men, picturesque marching and lively dancing, and brilliant costumes and stage effects—absolutely nothing is lacking. Fred Russell, who heads the company, is one of the best known and most popular burnt-cork artists on the stage; and Joe B. McGee, as his stage title implies, is an infinitely successful laugh-maker. The company comprises six people, all of whom contribute respectively to the audience's enjoyment. Edith A. Montrose will present one of the latest novelties in vaudeville, "A Bundle of Art." In the course of her kaleidoscopic Protean act, Miss Montrose impersonates a society belle, an Italian girl, Irish girl, nun, old hag, and Dutch girl; and, interestingly blended in the act, not only is Miss Montrose clever in her makeup and dramatic work, but she has an original line of rapid-fire comedy conversation which keeps the audience in good humor while she is preparing for each character. Miss Montrose, a darling woman athlete, gives a thrilling and picturesque exhibition on the trapeze. Adams, a skilful acrobat, and his remarkable trick dog, give an interesting performance. Delicious singing and witty repartee are dispensed by Ingels and Reading, a man and woman. Ray W. Shaw, the monologist, should prove a good acquisition to the show. Motion pictures close the bill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Carter, Taylor & Co. are a vaudeville team which deals in just one thing, and that is laughter. They have a very generous package of the mirth provoking stuff in their sketch "In Camp Rest," which will be presented at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week.

Frank Livinball is an English comedian, just perfectly rippling, don't you know. He has some brand new songs to sing, songs fresh from English music halls, and jokes which though English, are American enough to carry the witty humor over demands of the best comedians.

There are three more acts. They are "The Scenic Stock Company," already a favorite with the patrons of the house, will present one of the damnest one act plays ever, in "Hearts and Flowers," with a real love story and lots of sentiment. It's a dandy little play, in very truth, another from the pen of Mr. Blaney.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC
Another great show is offered at the Academy today including the Stepping Trio, vaudeville singers and dancers, Harry Sauter, favorite character singing monologist and H. A. Hagenot & Co., four people presenting a screaming farce entitled "The Deceivers." New moving pictures will complete the bill. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

STAR THEATRE
From the time that burlesque and variety shows were in their infancy, Charlie Hamilton, the well known Irish comedian, can be pictured in a funny suit, surrounded by pretty girls and characters in the piece. This week the same Charlie Hamilton is at the Star with a show that is there with funny situations and good musical numbers.

Four big acts of vaudeville are presented in addition to the wildly gaily first part and the afterpiece, "The Lobster Man."

Having increased the seating capacity of the theatre by recent renovation, the management has decreased the price of admission afternoons, excepting Saturdays and holidays, to five and ten cents. The admission includes a seat, there being only a few reserved seats at ten cents.

HEAR MACMILLAN TONIGHT.
The program, full of interest to all classes of music lovers, that Francis MacMillan will play this evening in Lowell is sure to please. He is the third artist of first rank, heard in this city in a long time, the other two being Harold Bauer and Schumann-Heink.

MacMillan is at once musician, poet, impressionist and martyr. Do not miss this chance of hearing one of the world's greatest artists playing an instrument that is known the world over for its luscious tones—a genuine "Strad."

"HOLY CITY"

GAUL'S CANTATA SUNG AT KIRK STREET CHURCH

Gaul's sacred cantata, "The Holy City," was presented before a large congregation at the Kirk Street church last evening.

The cantata is one that can be given to advantage with a strong chorus. Lacking this, the church quartet undertook to interpret the music by the solos, duets and two quartets, giving a most sympathetic and pleasing singing of the words, which were made the more effective by being read by the pastor before each number. Mrs. William G. Spaulding was especially effective in her organ work, which had a worthy part in a quartet of an hour of favorite hymn singing that the congregation took part in before the singing of the cantata.

Rev. Mr. Craig in a brief address emphasized the value of church music and its mission in exalting the mind and heart. Unless it did this, it was a failure, he said, as sermon and prayer were a failure unless they lifted the heart to God.

MASCONI MAY DIE

Shooting Affray in "Little Italy" at Millinocket

MILLINOCKET, Me., Oct. 17.—The most of the Italian population of "Little Italy" as well as the local officers are scouring the town and the surrounding country looking for Lucio Ottoboro, who it is alleged shot Alphonso Mascone here last night.

Most of the Italians are armed and wildly excited and declare that they will kill Ottoboro on sight. Mascone has a wound in the head, which the physicians say will be fatal. He is a very popular member of the colony, hence the anxiety of his friends to find Ottoboro.

The shooting broke up a big social event, as most of the colony was gathered at the house of Francesco Benedetti at a christening of his grandchild, which was the occasion of a big feast, with plenty of Italian wine and beer. Ottoboro was one of the guests and was seen to get up and go out. A revolver shot was heard outside and the guests rushed out to find Mascone on the ground with blood pouring from a gaping wound in his head and Ottoboro missing.

No one appears to know the reason for the assault, and no one can be found who saw the actual shooting. Ottoboro is about 25 years old, rather light complexion for an Italian, stocky build, with black curly hair. He has been here about three months.

A general alarm has been sent out for his capture. Mascone has been here for some time, was one of the best known residents of Little Italy and known as an expert brick mason. He is 35 years old and unmarried.

Ottoboro was captured shortly before midnight, hiding in a shack on the outskirts of the town. He broke away and ran, followed by a fusillade of shots; but was chased for nearly half a mile, where he was finally bottled up in a culvert into which he had crawled. Only the presence of Deputy Sheriff Gates and other officers saved him from violence by the enraged Italians, and he is now guarded in the police station.

Further investigation indicates that the shot was fired into a group of several Italians who were in a light outside of the Benedetti house. Ottoboro has a badly mangled ear, as if it had been bitten. After he had fired the shot the crowd closed in upon him, but he managed to break away from them. The revolver with which the shooting was done was found—a .32 caliber high grade, with a pearl handle. It is generally thought that the shot was fired at random and that Ottoboro had no designs on Mascone in particular. Mascone is in a very critical condition, and his death is said to be a matter of a short time.

IN AN ACCIDENT

Aged Man Seriously Injured by Fall

John King, aged about 60 years, fell down a flight of stairs at his home, 59 Willis street, about 11.30 o'clock last night and sustained a bad scalp wound and possibly a fracture of the skull.

The ambulance was called and the man was rushed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious and serious condition. At the hospital it was said, after an examination, that the man was suffering from a severe scalp wound, but that no trace of a fracture had at that time been discovered, though there might be one.

Struck by a Car

Harry Agnew, a small boy residing in Alken street, was struck by an electric car in Central street about nine o'clock last night. The motorman of the car was unable to prevent the accident. The boy was playing tag in the street and without any warning whatsoever ran into the car. The car was in charge of Conductor Lavine and Motorman J. J. Sheehan. Both rushed to the assistance of the lad, who appeared to be more frightened than hurt. Investigation could disclose only an injured knee, and the boy was taken to Merrimack square, and from there transferred to his home.

MONSTER PARADE

Holy Name Society's Big Demonstration

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—Under the banners of the Holy Name society and to the music of a thousand masculine voices without a band, 30,000 men marched through the city's streets yesterday as a demonstration of the society's campaign against blasphemy. In front of the cathedral kneeling in prayer, it is estimated, of 50,000 men on the lawn and in the streets when, at the conclusion of the parade, Bishop Canavin assisted by several priests administered the sacrament in the open air.

LARGE GATHERING

At Meeting of M. T. I. Held Yesterday

The Mathew Temperance Institute held a largely attended meeting at its rooms yesterday morning with President James J. Gallagher in the chair. Three new members were admitted and three propositions were received. The treasurer's report showed that the affair of October 10th was a financial success.

James F. McGovern of Woburn, a deputy of the society, was introduced for remarks and gave a talk on total abstinence.

President Gallagher announced to the members that on next Sunday evening in Associate hall a mass meeting in the interest of the Mathew Temperance Institute would be held commencing at 8 o'clock. He urged the members to be present and also to invite their friends, as the meeting will be an interesting one and is open to the general public. Many speakers will be present, including President John T. Shea of the C. T. A. Union of Boston.

A musical program has been arranged for this occasion and several Lowell singers have volunteered their services. The object of this meeting has been outlined by a committee consisting of the board of trustees and the building fund with the following members: James J. Gallagher, president; Peter F. Brady, treasurer; Patrick McCann, John T. Ralls, John J. Guthrie, Thomas F. Rourke, John A. McKenna, and James F. Rourke, secretary.

A committee of three was appointed, consisting of Peter F. Brady, Hugh D. Molloy and James F. Rourke, to draft a set of resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Katherine McManus, mother of Rev. Thomas F. McManus, the first spiritual director of the Mathew Temperance Institute, whose death occurred recently in Brookline.

IRWIN IS NAMED

For Dist. Atty. at Second Convention

WALTHAM, Oct. 17.—After a session lasting four hours, the legality of which may be tested before the ballot law commission, the democrats of Middlesex county, in their second convention, Saturday, nominated James J. Irwin of Everett as district attorney. His name, unless the convention is ruled to be illegal, will go on the ballot in place of John J. Higgins of Somerville, who was named at the so-called "snap" convention at Lowell last week, but who later declined to accept.

Legality Questioned
The question of the legality of Saturday's convention rose of the admission to seats of delegates whose credentials were declared to be defective. The credential committee, in making its report just after the opening of the session, announced that 75 credentials had been received, but that 25 of these were not properly signed. After a long discussion the convention voted, however, to seat all who had presented credentials, regardless of whether they were defective or not. Immediately Thomas L. Keefe of Everett secured the floor and declared his intention of taking the matter to the state ballot law commission.

By the time the convention was ready to vote on the nomination the number of delegates had shrunk to 65. Of these 65 cast their ballots for Irwin and five for Higgins. An objection on the part of one of the Somerville delegates prevented the nomination being made unanimous.

Following the district attorney convention the county convention was called and the following nominations were made:

For county commissioner for three years, Dexter C. Whittemore of Carlisle.

For associate county commissioners, Winthrop H. Fairbanks of Sudbury, and Leander V. Cullahan of Stoneham.

For sheriff, Whitfield S. Fack of Winchester.

Charles T. Daly of Medford was chairman of the convention and John F. O'Connor of Everett secretary.

At the convention held in Lowell a week ago Friday, the following nominations were made:

For district attorney—John J. Higgins.

For high sheriff—John R. Fairbairn.

Dirigible Balloon Journeyed From Compeigne to London

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Another chapter was added to the history of aviation yesterday, when the French dirigible balloon Clement-Bayard made the voyage from Compeigne to London in the remarkable time of six hours, a journey requiring seven hours by the fastest trains and boats. Compeigne is 135 miles northeast of Paris and about 135 miles by air route to London.

This is also the first occasion on which the dirigible balloon has crossed the English channel. The over-water route occupied 45 minutes.

The Clement-Bayard left Compeigne at 7.15 o'clock yesterday morning and reached London without a stop at about 1.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The dirigible carried M. Clement, of the Clement-Bayard firm, in command; Baudry and LaPrince, steersmen; Schatler, engineer and designer; two mechanicians and Arthur Philip Davies, member of the British parliamentary aerial defence committee.

The course was by way of Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne and the balloon was steered steadily by aid of the compass. Occasional wind gusts caused some slight rocking of the balloon, but otherwise the trip was steady. The French government provided three torpedo boat destroyers, which proved of great assistance in crossing the channel. The Clement-Bayard reached Boulogne at 10.20 and Folkestone at 11.20. Over the channel there was little wind, but it heavy haze.

The whirling of the engines and propeller attracted the attention of crowds of sightseers in Folkestone and other towns, and the balloon arrived over London just as the streets were filled with the great Sunday crowds leaving the churches. The appearance of the monster over the homeports caused the people to wonder, and hundreds of thousands gathered to watch the aeronauts, who now experienced some trouble with the varying air currents and eddies. On this account they circled St. Paul's and the Tower bridge twice, dipping several times and flew closely over the tops of buildings. They passed over the houses of parliament and along to Hyde Park, where there was a wild scramble by spectators. The dirigible landed safely in Wormwood Scrubs, after describing large descending circles, aided by a detachment of soldiers. M. Clement said that he was exceedingly well pleased with the behavior of the airship.

AFTER $35,000 PRIZE

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Henry Wynnemlen, the Dutch aviator, holder of the world's altitude record, and M. Legagneux, the French aviator, each with a new, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made a remarkable trip in biplanes yesterday from Paris to Brussels in an attempt to win prizes aggregating $35,000 offered for a successful flight with passenger from this city to Brussels and return.

Wynnemlen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely last evening in St. Quentin. Legagneux decided to stop over for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early today.

The distance between the two points is about 170 miles as the crow flies, and the distance between Brussels and St. Quentin approximates 80 miles. The daring Hollanders, therefore, covered about 250 miles with passenger.

Wynnemlen covered the distance to Brussels in five hours and 33 minutes. Legagneux with one stop, made it in five hours.

STATIONARY ENGINEERS

Lowell Association, No. 17, National Association of Stationary Engineers, held a well attended smoke talk Saturday night at its quarters. There was a large attendance of members, including a number of out of town people. James E. Donnelly and Frank McCarrin gave songs, while Arthur McHugh accompanied on the piano. Past National President Hogan of Boston gave a very interesting address on the work of the N. A. S. E. National Vice President Kearney also was present and made some interesting remarks on the welfare of the order. Refreshments were served.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering chronic coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

SENATOR DOLLIVER

The Famous Senator From Iowa is Dead

PORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Senator Dolliver died Saturday night, while Dr. E. M. Van Patten was examining his heart with a stethoscope. An acute attack of stomach trouble had affected the heart dilation of which was the direct cause of death.

Senator Dolliver had so far recovered from illness as to be able to walk about his lawn. He had been up all day and Saturday night entered his sitting-room for a consultation with his physicians. He informed Dr. Van Patten that he was feeling much improved, and that he believed he had about recovered his normal strength. Dr. Van Patten cautioned him about becoming too anxious to again resume his work.

The senator was sitting in a Morris chair when the physician began the examination of his heart.

"I really feel better than at any time since my recent sickness," he said, "but I suppose the wolves will be set howling about my successor." And the senator laughed.

The physician continued his work with the stethoscope, counting the beats of the senator's heart out loud. He was frequently interrupted by Senator Dolliver with the declaration that he was able to hear his own heart. When Dr. Van Patten had counted 14 beats he informed the senator. "That's good," replied Mr. Dolliver. "The most I have been able to count is seven."

The physician continued the examination and suddenly noticed that the heart beats had ceased entirely. The senator died without struggle or pain.

Mrs. Dolliver was on the point of entering the room when her husband died. It was the belief of the physicians

50 Persons Injured When an Electric Car Tipped Over

Car Jumped the Rails at Cambridge and Charles Streets in Boston—Policemen and Firemen Dragged Passengers From the Car

The dead:
ARTHUR W. RICE, blind, 28 years old, lived at 181 Windsor street, Cambridge. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

JOHN JOSEPH WALSH, motorman, 79 Summer street, Watertown. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

DENNIS MAHAR, 30 yrs. old, killed instantly, lived at 146 Cypress street, Watertown. Body at North Grove street morgue.

THOMAS F. CANAVAN, U. S. soldier, probably stationed at Watertown arsenal.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Four persons are dead and about 50 injured, some of them seriously, as a result of an electric car accident which occurred at 7.30 Saturday evening on Cambridge street near Charles, West End. A 13-ton Watertown inbound car left the rails as it came off the new West Boston bridge, turned end for end and then crashed over onto its side, hurling about 60 passengers into a writhing, screaming mass, some dead and others terribly injured.

The car was a few minutes late leaving Watertown. Most of the passengers agreed that when it came off the incline of the bridge it seemed to be running away from the motorman. A few feet west of Charles street there is an electric switch and the motorman attempted to throw this switch so that his car would proceed up Cambridge street into Bowdoin square. But just before he reached the switch the front end of the car seemed to jump in the air, the forward trucks left the tracks and started off to the south side of the street, while the rear trucks left the rails and raced ahead and turned the car around so that the forward end was facing Cambridge, when of a sudden the car turned over on its side toward the north.

Instantly the lights went out and the imprisoned passengers, numbering about 60, began to scream and battle for a chance to escape.

The rear trucks, to which is hung a motor, were turned completely over.

Taken Out of Windows
Men rushed out of the saloons, stores, houses and the park and went to the aid of the injured passengers. They caught a hold of the car and struggled with it in an endeavor to lift it up and turn it but they were unable to do this.

Somebody ran to box 26 and sent in an alarm of fire at 7.32. The firemen came, but in the meantime Patrolman Thomas Foley and Thomas Hanson of Hancock place, who was standing with the policeman at the corner and who witnessed the accident, rushed to the car and began breaking in the windows. Then they pulled men and women out and escorted them to stores and shops nearby, where they were attended.

Eleven persons were taken to the eye and ear dispensary on Charles street and given temporary treatment and then sent in carriages to hospitals and their homes.

A large number were temporarily treated in the store on the corner of Charles and Cambridge streets and then removed to the hospitals.

After the firemen arrived short work was made of the rescuing of the imprisoned passengers.

THE FUNERAL

OF SENATOR DOLLIVER WILL TAKE PLACE THURSDAY

PORT DODGE, Ia., Oct. 17.—Funeral services for Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver will be held on Thursday at two o'clock. It was announced yesterday. The suddenness of Mr. Dolliver's death Saturday from heart disease while a physician was listening to the irregular beats of the organ with a stethoscope, took everyone so much by surprise that some of the funeral arrangements are only tentative.

According to present plans the obsequies will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Spence, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Port Dodge. Bishop Luther B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, Dr. Frank G. Gunsalus of Chicago, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of New York city, and Gov. B. F. Carroll of Iowa have been invited to make funeral orations for the senator.

If the weather is good on Thursday, the services will be held on the lawn of the Dolliver home. If this is not feasible, the orations will be delivered in the First Methodist church.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery, Port Dodge, by the side of Senator Dolliver's parents.

Senator A. E. Cummins arrived yesterday to assist the family in their bereavement and to aid in carrying out the arrangements for the funeral. Everybody in Port Dodge is in mourning for the loss of the town's most noted citizen. The suddenness of the senator's death caused a shock from which the people have not yet recovered. Saturday evening a little more than an hour before death came, Senator Dolliver chatted cheerfully with Mayor S. J. Bennett, a life long friend. Only an hour before his demise, Mr. Dolliver spoke hopefully of his recovery to District Judge R. M. Wright, who called to ask after the senator's health.

During the afternoon Senator Dolliver took a walk in his garden which had been one of his pleasures. He seemed well and talked to several callers in the shade of a large tree, where he rehearsed many of the speeches which made him famous. The senator spoke to his visitors optimistically and incidentally mentioned some plans for the future.

Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy poured in on Mrs. Dolliver yesterday from all parts of the country. Nearly every member of both houses of congress sent condolences. Messages also came from most of the governors and from the president, cabinet officers and other public men.

Legagneux, who slept overnight in Brussels, got away at 6.10 a. m. Legagneux had 170 miles before him, while his Holland rival had only 30 miles to make. Wynant arrived at 12.13 o'clock, having completed the round trip in 27 hours, 50 minutes and 27 seconds from the time of his departure.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The factional spirit works as much mischief in the democratic party as insurgency in the republicans.

The credit of the Quincy police is saved by the discovery of the body of Restelli, the insane murderer, in a quarry hole. He drowned himself soon after the murder and in a way that left no trace of him.

Can it be that another swindling concern has been doing business in Boston under the very eyes of the police and with a name quite as catchy as that which Morse applied to his bogus companies.

The "Gentleman From Mississippi" is a political play that bears a wholesome lesson in clean politics. It shows what one honest man can do to overcome a whole host of corruptionists. At one point the hero of the play dilates upon the force of public opinion and his estimate is not overdrawn, for in spite of exceptional cases it is public opinion that rules the world today.

MAP OF THE SUBWAYS

The Boston Elevated Railway company should issue a plain map showing strangers how to make their way through the labyrinthine underground system of transit in the city of Boston. The East Boston tunnel, the Washington street tunnel and other branches of the system recently added have rendered it more complicated and more perplexing to strangers. A map showing the connections between the great centres of travel such as the depots and boat landings would be very useful.

WELLMAN'S GREAT PROJECT

That any of the aviators should even consider the project of flying across the Atlantic is in itself astonishing; but more marvelous still is the fact that any of them should be equipped to make the trip. Walter Wellman with his great dirigible balloon, his three engines, his life boat and four men showed his confidence in what he can do, on Saturday when he started out upon the ocean in a fog from Atlantic City. He has been preparing to make a flight to Europe, and although he may fail in the first, second or third attempt it is almost a certainty that he or somebody else will eventually succeed in making the voyage in the air. The flights from Albany to New York, from Chicago to St. Louis, and even from the Atlantic to the Pacific are but the elementary steps in aviation. The feat of crossing the Atlantic will be the next great performance by the aviators.

BETTER AS A LABOR PARTY

The American Federation of Labor refused to be drawn into the snare of allowing the organization to be disrupted and destroyed by embarking on the seething sea of politics.

No level-headed labor leader would favor such a course.

The American Federation of Labor has been steered clear of such dangerous shoals as this in the past and it will do well to pursue the same course in the future. What would it amount to as a political party? Instead of becoming stronger in politics it would soon lose the influence it wields at the present time.

As a labor party the American Federation of Labor can advocate the rights of labor, it can fight for the enactment of better labor laws, and as a labor party it is immeasurably more potent than it would be as a political party.

Gompers and Mitchell have always avoided identification with any political party and in this they brought strength to the great labor organizations of which they were the recognized heads.

It will be well for other leaders to imitate their course in this respect. The A. F. of L. in this state has adopted the only logical course for a labor organization to pursue and its good judgment is widely recognized in resisting the temptation to adopt a course that could result only in ruin and disaster.

TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES

In view of the enormous losses in life and property resulting from forest fires in this country, it is very plain that more strict regulations must be adopted in order to prevent such losses in the future.

In this part of the country the forests are left practically unprotected. Tramps can roam therein at will; they can light fires, smoke and do anything they please once they enter the woods. The result is disastrous forest fires that sometimes wipe out large forests worth many thousands of dollars and even threaten whole towns and villages.

Even children are in the habit of going to the woods to start brush fires for the fun of the thing. The local firemen realize the extent of this danger, for they are called in scores of cases every year to extinguish brush fires started by children who flee as soon as they see the fire become dangerous. Thus children are trained to setting fires in the woods and as they grow older they are likely to keep up this habit.

All this should be stopped and severe penalties should be imposed by law for anybody who sets a fire in woods where it is liable to spread. Whether the forest is valuable or not is not considered by those whose only aim in starting a fire is mere amusement.

The losses annually in the west resulting from forest fires is enormous. In our own vicinity we have had several bad forest fires recently and all as a result of a blaze started here or there by boys or tramps with the utmost disregard as to results.

The law should resemble that by which the forests in some European countries are protected. In these countries it is forbidden to smoke except under certain specified conditions which ensure safety. If we adopted like precautions against forest fires our annual losses from that cause would soon be greatly reduced.

SEEN AND HEARD

If a girl wants to captivate a young man she ought never to go with him on a wedding party unless she is dead sure that she won't be senkiss.

Occasionally a man may take up the profession of medicine because of a deep-seated interest in the welfare of the human race, but the dentist must always choose his job for the money that is in it.

A boy seldom turns out well if his father gives him all the money he wants.

The only advantage about hearing the man who tells shattering stories is that it takes him longer, so that he can't tell so many in a given time.

Never bet unless you can get odds of at least nine to five. As you can almost never get such odds, following this rule may save you a great deal of money.

It must be very trying to wait on a hotel table. It is bad enough to wait at one.

HOPING FOR THE BEST

Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best. They will tie the knots in his trousers and sew up his coat and vest. They will huzz him in a frazzle. They will throw him in a well. And they'll proudly ostracize him if he ever dares to tell.

They will teach him lots of habits we have warned him he should shun; They will press him into football and they'll break his bones for fun; They'll convince him that his studies are of no account at all. And despite him if he doesn't mix in every silly brawl.

He will have to learn that proxy is unworthy of respect. And become a noisy ruffian to be one of the elect; They'll endeavor to persuade him that the course is all a loss. Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best.

Yes, Samuel, you have the idea: A man's avocation is what he likes to do. His vocation is what he has to do.

Errors which sometimes creep into the daily papers cause considerable misgiving. Nearly every one has read of the reporter who described a shooting affair as follows: The man was shot once in the left breast and twice in the barber shop. Also the brief story that "The Chinaman fell, and broke his leg just below the opium joint."

One of the most famous mistakes that ever got into a metropolitan paper was in Chicago in connection with a fire, when a number of persons were rescued.

The fire occurred late at night. The night city editor who "handled" the story marked the copy when it went to the printer with directions to send him proofs so that he could make certain there were no errors. Here is the way the story appeared in the paper:

"The young woman appeared at the window, flames bursting about her head, her hair disheveled and with wild eyes shrieked: "RUSH PROOFS TO MEY!"

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Alfred Tennyson Dickens, the eldest surviving son of Charles Dickens, has arrived in England after a forty-five years' absence in Australia. Mr. Dickens will begin soon a long tour of the United Kingdom with his lecture entertainment, "My Father's Life and Works."

On the days of my boyhood I was constantly with my father. Mr. Dickens said recently, "I have many interesting reminiscences of him, which I shall hope to relate to a London audience in the course of my tour. The entertainment consists mainly of anecdotes interspersed with recitations from my father's works."

My first ten years in Australia were spent in the bush, until I married and settled in Melbourne. For the last twenty years I have lectured in Australia, where my father's novels are immensely popular and the name of Dickens is one to conjure with."

Mr. Dickens, a grandson of Tennyson, was born in 1847.

There will shortly be on sale throughout the Kingdom the Dickens centenary stamp, which has been chosen as the most effective way of celebrating the centenary of the novelist's birth. It is an original form of memorial which is expected to touch the sympathies of the great community who read the works of Dickens and esteem his memory. There are twenty-four million copies of the stamp being issued, and the proposal is that the proceeds of them shall purchase a penny stamp to affix to each volume.

From London has come the announcement of the engagement of the actress, Robert Lorraine, and Marie Lorraine, the actress. Mr. Lorraine and Miss Lorraine have joined in the same company for two years. Miss Lorraine, who is twenty and attractive, is regarded as one of the cleverest sentimental personages on the English stage.

In appreciation of his interest in the French people and in French institutions, the decoration of "Officer of the Legion of Honor" has been conferred on President Judson of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Annette M. Mills, who started the first and as yet the only school for the deaf in China, has started on her return trip to Chee Foo, having succeeded in persuading the foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church to take the school, for which she has heretofore carried all the responsibility, under its patronage. At the farewell service held for Mrs. Mills at the board's headquarters in New York, Dr. Arthur J. Brown said a large amount of money had been contributed toward the endowment fund, especially by inmates of the 185 homes for the deaf in this country. There are several fellow-deaf scholars in this country. "There are four hundred thousand deaf mutes in China," Mrs. Mills said, "and their tale is most pitiful. The community despises them, and they are frequently sold into slavery."

The Boston Symphony orchestra has been experiencing this fall the difficulty of obtaining passages to America from Europe at certain seasons. During the last summer it engaged a number of musicians in Europe, including a double bass player, a viola player, a bassoonist and a trombonist, and a new trombone. Some of these men will not be able to get here until the early part of November, owing to the absolute impossibility of getting passage for them earlier.

EXPORT FIGURES

SHOW AMERICANS ARE GOING AFTER FOREIGN TRADE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Americans are going after the foreign trade harder than ever before and they are getting it. This is shown by the export figures of the United States for September. During that month there was a distinct upward movement, the total value of exports being larger than in any previous September in the history of the export trade. This marked advance was largely due to heavy exports of cotton at unusually high prices, the cotton exports for the month amounting to $29,600,000 pounds, valued at $58,000, an average of 13.7 cents per pound.

Exports valued at $108,528,000 were shipped during September. This exceeded the total of any month of the current year, and also the total of September, 1909, by almost $15,000,000. For the nine months ending with September, the total exports amounted to $1,121,911,208, an increase of almost $2,000,000 over the same period last year.

The quantity of cotton exported during September was larger than in any September since 1904, the value greater than any September in the history of the export trade and the export price per pound also more than in any September since 1871.

During September the value of goods shipped out of the country exceeded the imports by $31,587,979, this excess being larger than in any preceding September except 1897 and 1909. For the nine months ending with September there was an excess of exports over imports of $50,535,298.

INJURIES FATAL

BOY WAS HIT BY AN ELECTRIC CAR

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 17.—A boy, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Katz of 43 Abbey street, Chicopee, was struck by a south-bound Holyoke trolley car at the corner of Riverdale and Ashley streets at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and fatally injured.

Young Katz, with companions, Kaufman Myers and Edward Harney, both of Chicopee, were chattering. Young Katz, without noticing the approaching trolley, crossed the tracks, and upon seeing his companions were not following, started back and was caught by the trolley.

The car was going at a high rate of speed and the boy was thrown considerable distance, landing on his head. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and removed to the Springfield hospital, where an examination disclosed a crushed skull and internal injuries from which he died at 5 o'clock.

KING MANUEL

LEFT GIBRALTAR FOR ENGLAND SUNDAY

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 17.—The members of the Portuguese royal family left Gibraltar yesterday. King Manuel, Queen Mother Amalia, and the Duke of Sparta embarked for Portsmouth on the British royal yacht Victoria and Albert, while the queen dowager, Maria Pia, went aboard the Italian warship Regina Elena, bound for Spezia.

The departure of the royal exiles was marked by the thunder of salutes and the playing of the Portuguese national anthem. The British authorities showed the king and his party all the honors due their rank.

BOY WAS KILLED

While Trying to Help Light Inspector

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Rushing to the assistance of A. C. Bralley, light inspector for the Edison Electric and Illuminating company, who was making repairs on an arc light at the corner of Alton street and Robinson court last evening, Eddie Donohue, aged 14, of 65 Maple avenue, son of Mrs. Catherine Donohue, took hold of the shade of the light and was almost instantly killed by the shock.

This light is one a 3500-volt current and 2200 volts are believed to have passed through the youth's body.

Young Donohue, accompanied by Leo Kennedy, aged 12, of 22 Southworth court, was on his way to Perkins park. Inspector Bralley was at work on the light, standing it by means of a rope. Without any warning young Donohue took hold of the shade, apparently intending to hold it or bray. He instantly dropped to the ground. He was carried into the automobile garage of W. H. Marble, nearby, by Bralley and Young Kennedy and Medical Examiner A. Elliott Paine summoned. The boy was dead before he was lifted from the ground.

Mrs. Donohue was notified of the death of her son. She ran from her house to the garage, crying loudly and calling for her son. Before she reached the garage she was assisted to an automobile and taken home again, as it was apparent she was in no condition to see the body. Young Donohue was the oldest child of Mrs. Donohue, who is a widow. He was an office boy at the shoe factory of the George H. Snow company.

A CYCLONE

Property Damaged and Many Were Killed in Havana

HAVANA, Oct. 17.—The cyclone that struck the island yesterday is increasing. Its velocity is appalling. Beyond doubt it is far more serious than the hurricane of 1906, which cost many lives and did damage to the amount of millions of dollars.

The custom house warehouses are flooded and the roof of the main building has been blown away.

The National observatory reports that the disturbance is only beginning and will last probably twenty hours.

The town of Batubano, in this province, is said to be under water to a depth of many feet. A large number of lives have been lost there, according to reports.

A report from Regla, across the harbor, says that many persons have been killed there.

It is rumored that a great number of sailors and longshoremen have been drowned in the harbor.

It is probable that the most fatalities and the greatest monetary damage have occurred in Pinar del Rio. The sugar cane crop is thought to have suffered severely.

The gale came today from the south southwest with a violence not experienced in a long time before. Rain fell in torrents throughout the night but let up somewhat at daybreak, though the wind held as strong as ever.

All traffic in this city and in the harbor was suspended today. Scores of lighters and other small craft had been swamped or wrecked against the bulkheads.

The Word line steamer Saratoga, which was due to sail on Saturday, remained storm-bound.

The sea before noon had swept the custom house sheds for a distance of a half mile and was carrying off merchandise valued at many hundreds of thousands of dollars. The gale uprooted the main customs warehouse and the contents were drenched. The building contains the most valuable goods in the harbor. The hoists of the Havana Coal Co. at Casa Blanca, across the harbor, a mile from Morro castle, have been wrecked. Casa Blanca is flooded and the residents are taking refuge in the hills behind the town.

It is impossible to know definitely what is occurring in the harbor owing to the high waves and flying spume.

Taken With Serious Illness Yesterday

Postmaster Albert G. Thompson was taken seriously ill yesterday afternoon and his condition became so alarming during the night that for a time his life was despaired of. He is feeling much better this morning, however, and the attending physician is of the opinion that the danger point has been passed. Mr. Thompson contracted a cold recently and that together with a general decline of health resulted in his being taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon. A physician was called and his condition at that time was so serious that it was decided that he needed constant attention.

BODY OF CHILD FOUND

The body of a prematurely born child was found in the Merrimack river near the residence of Howard Foster in Tewksbury yesterday morning by Joseph Droulet of Kenwood. About 25 feet from the embankment was a basket and a large stone which indicated that it was the purpose of some person to place the child in the basket, but later changed his or her mind.

Mr. Droulet notified the Tewksbury officials and Chief Frank Farmer took charge of the body which was buried in the town cemetery.

CHILD SET FIRE
LITTLE ONE WAS PLAYING WITH MATCHES

An alarm from box 132 at about 2:10 o'clock this afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a slight blaze in the house of Jonathan Wood at 78 Hampshire street. The fire was caused by a child who was playing with matches.

While the mother was busily engaged in work about the house the child secured some matches and set fire to a Morris chair. Luckily the blaze was discovered before it had gained much headway and shortly after the arrival of the department it was extinguished.

ATHLETICS LEAD

In the First Game in the World's Series Played Today

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Sunrise this morning revealed a long line of enthusiastic baseball fans before the gates of Shibe park waiting for the first game this afternoon between the Philadelphia Americans and the Chicago Nationals, for the championship of the baseball world. The line began to form at sundown last night.

The rosters brought campstools or chairs and also carried their breakfast and lunches. The line grew so rapidly that the police decided not to let the crowd congregate through the night and broke up the assemblage. The more determined of the rosters went into the public park across the street from the ball grounds and waited. Before dawn newcomers arrived and stood at the bleacher gates and the park campers joined them. Thus the line again formed and rapidly grew.

At 8 a. m. the crowd started to jam about the gates and the police stepped in and brought about order. It was apparent that when the two teams met at 2 o'clock this afternoon the largest crowd that ever saw a baseball game in Philadelphia would be on hand. Every reserved seat in the grand stand was sold a week ago and the comparatively few tickets that fell into the hands of the speculators brought fancy prices. The two pavilions of the grand stand of Shibe park seat about 3500 persons. Standing room in the grand stands at $1.50 a head was sold to 2500 persons just before the game started. The only other tickets on sale were those for the bleachers and the temporary field seats in center-field. Of these there were about 20,000. The bleacher seats were opened at 11 a. m. and the entrances to the grand stand an hour later.

Almost perfect weather prevailed. There was little wind and the atmosphere was much warmer than could be expected for this time of the year. Manager Chance's men appeared about the corridors of the Aldine hotel early and reported that they were "feeling fine."

Out at Shibe park Cornelius McGillicuddy, whose baseball nom de plume is Connie Mack, met Captain Davis and the other players.

"Ready for anything," said Right Fielder Murphy, when Manager McGillicuddy asked them how they felt.

Both Teams Confident
The opposing teams and their followers each professed confidence in the result of both the opening game and the series. While the National league club has the prestige of former victories in world's championship events and is the favorite at 10 to 8 in the little betting that prevails, most of the smaller bets are at even money.

It is declared that the teams are about the finest ever developed in the respective leagues. The Cubs are made up of practically the same players that won the two world's championships for Chicago from Detroit in 1907 and 1908. The Athletics on the other hand, have only six players, Pitchers Bender and Plunk, First Baseman Davis and Outfielders Murphy, Hartzel and Lord of the team which was defeated by the N. Y. Nationals in the world's series of 1906. The other players are young men who joined the team since that time.

There was disappointment because each team was to go into the game minus its stars. John J. Evers, a most important part of Manager Chance's baseball machinery, who broke a leg in Cincinnati, was replaced by Zimmerman, a batsman of no mean ability. Who was to take Centrefielder Oldring, who is a 200 point clean-up batsman, a fleet fielder, and a star "inside" man on the base paths, twisted an ankle last week.

Manager Chance played and directed his team on the field. Manager McGillicuddy, as usual, occupies his secluded spot on the players' bench. The best guess as to the batteries was Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and O'Day and Collins for Chicago. The batting order had not been announced during the morning.

Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and O'Day and Collins for Chicago are the batteries.

The umpires appeared at 1:55 amid tremendous cheering. After being photographed they took the field. Connolly is umpiring balls and strikes with O'Day on the bases.

Shibe park went to left field and Right field to right.

The crowd was so dense that ground rules were made allowing a two base hit into the crowd.

First Inning
Sheppard was first man up for Chicago.

With two strikes and one ball called O'Day called a policeman to put one of the moving picture men from behind the home plate. Sheppard struck out. Schulte played a beautiful single in left field and was out stealing a foul. Thomas to Collins. Hoffman went out on a grounder. Collins to Davis and on the crowd yelled his approval. No runs.

Philadelphia—Strunk, the Athletics' centrefielder, was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Lord lifted a high one to Hoffman and retired. Collins was given a reception when he came to the plate. Collins drove a single to left. Collins was out on an attempted steal. Kling to Zimmerman. No runs.

Second Inning
Chicago—Chance was given a warm hand when he stepped to the plate. He drove a hot grounder to Barry and was out at first. Zimmerman, who took Johnny Evers' place at second, lifted a high foul to Baker and set down. Steinfeldt gave Baker a chance and was an easy out to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Parker drove a twobase hit into the left field crowd and was sacrificed to third by Davis. The batter going out, Chance, to Zimmerman. Baker scored a moment later on Murphy's beautiful single to left. The crowd almost went wild.

Murphy stole second. Barry was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Murphy going to third. Thomas was given his base on balls and Chief Bender came to the plate. Bender drove a hit between first and second base. Murphy scoring. Strunk was the third out, a fly to Sheppard.

Third Inning
Chicago—Tinker was retired on a beautiful stop and throw. Collins to Davis. The Cubs' star-catcher, Kling, was the next man to face Bender. With three balls and two strikes on him Kling lifted a high fly, which was taken by Bender. Overall, with two strikes called on him, drove a hot grounder to Barry and was retired at first.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a two-base hit into right center crowd and Chance and Overall held a conference. Collins sacrificed. Chance to Zimmerman, placing Lord on third and Lord scored a moment later on Baker's second hit of the game. Davis struck out on four pitched balls. Baker was an easy out on an attempted steal. Kling to Tinker. One run.

Fourth Inning
Chicago—Sheppard was an easy out.

Barry to Davis. Schulte was sent to first on four pitched balls, the chief not being able to locate the plate. Hoffman, one of the Cubs' reliable hitters, struck out and Captain Chance came to the plate. He did not have an opportunity to hit the ball as Schulte was out stealing. Thomas to Collins. No runs.

At this juncture Captain Chance brought McIntyre to the slab and sent Overall to the bench.

Philadelphia—Murphy, the first man up, was thrown out. Tinker to Chance. Barry drove a grounder to Steinfeldt and went out at first. Thomas fanned. No runs.

YANKEES vs. GIANTS
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Giants and the Highlanders went out for stiff morning practice for the fifth morning game of the post season series between the two local clubs of the National and American leagues. Hundreds planned to go to the American league park, where they could not only witness the local contest but follow the inning results of the world's championship game at Philadelphia.

The local series now stands: Giants, two games won, and one victory for the Highlanders. Manager Chase indicated today that he would use his star batsman, Russell Ford, to even up the series. Either Randall or Matthews will pitch for the Giants.

WEST BARRINGTON, Oct. 17.—The chemical plant of the Frost Finishing Co. was destroyed by fire here early today, entailing a loss estimated at $22,000. The plant consisted of four small buildings containing highly explosive mixtures used in the process of manufacturing material for book covers. Several explosions were heard this morning and shortly afterwards the chemical plant was in flames. For a time it was feared that the main building, about 120 feet distant from the chemical plant, would catch fire, but the firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the outbuildings. The origin of the fire is unknown.

6 O'CLOCK EVENING SCHOOLS

The Attendance For the First Week Up to Average

Big Dropping Off in Attendance of French Pupils While the Number of Greeks, Poles and Portuguese Shows a Big Increase

The close of the first week's sessions of the evening schools shows an average attendance equal to that of former years, though the complexion of the attendance, as it were, shows a decided change.

The results of immigration to this country are shown no more interestingly than through the medium of the evening schools. As is well known, minors cannot obtain employment in the mills and factories unless they can produce a school certificate to the effect that they are literate.

Hence the majority of the evening school pupils are foreign-born and it is interesting to observe how the nationalities change as the years go by. Some years ago the Edison and the Colburn schools presented only ordinary attendances while the Bartlett and Cheever street schools were filled.

Some 10 years ago the Bartlett school had eight rooms filled to the limit with French girls. This year it has been necessary to drop about half the attendance while the majority of the pupils at the Bartlett this year are Greek girls instead of French. Ten years ago the Greek girls attending evening school could be counted on one's fingers; today it is necessary to assign them to a special school and three evening schools, the Green, Main and Bartlett are devoted practically exclusively to Greeks, the boys and men in the two first and the girls in the Bartlett. It is noticeable that a number of Greek adults attend the evening schools showing a commendable desire to become familiar with the language. During the incumbency of George Couzoules as president of the Greek community a school was started in the basement of the Greek church for Greek adults who were averse to attending the regular evening schools.

According to Superintendent Whitcomb, the French pupils in the evening school have steadily decreased in number owing to a great measure to a decrease in the number of literates who have immigrated here, while those already here have become literate through environment and private study. Hence, where once the evening schools were crowded with French pupils it has become necessary within the past few years to reduce the number of teachers in the schools once devoted exclusively to French speaking pupils.

This season the Edison and Colburn schools show the crowds and their pupils are practically all Poles and Portuguese, showing the great increase in their owing to a great measure to a decrease in the number of literates who have immigrated here, while those already here have become literate through environment and private study. ## DECISION AFFIRMED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The decision of the New York federal court, declining to release Frank N. Hoar, the Pittsburg millionaire, from custody of removal from New York to Pennsylvania to answer to an indictment for conspiracy to bribe the city council of Pittsburgh, was affirmed today by the supreme court of the United States.

Mr. Walter H. Hickey, the popular star of the B. & N. R. Co. in Muriel's square, returned to his post this morning after a three weeks' visit to New York city, Newark, N. J., Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

THE BOSTON HERALD CASE

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The receivers of the Boston Herald Co., John Norris of New York and C. F. Weed of Boston, applied today to Judge Colt in the United States circuit court for authority to sell the property. This petition is the initial step in a proposed reorganization by the bondholders who have adopted a plan for raising forty cents on the dollar to the unsecured creditors and for supplying new working capital to the re-organized company.

The receivers filed a report showing the financial condition of the re-organized company. The operating expenses have been reduced 24 per cent, or at the rate of $350,000 per year, as compared with last year and this, notwithstanding the fact that the publication is carrying more news than before; that approximately as many papers are being sold as heretofore; that an evening edition is being published this year while none was published during the corresponding period last year.

The receiver say that for the first time in six years the circulation of the morning paper has increased without artificial stimulation. The outstanding indebtedness is $1,435,000 in bonds and liquidated claims amount to $250,244.74. The receivers submitted lists of claims for allowance by the court.

PRESIDENT TAFT BOTH DROWNED A BIG RECEPTION GUTTED BY FIRE

Bade Good Bye to Girl Beverly Today

BEVERLY, Oct. 17.—President Taft bade good bye to Beverly today and, with the cheers of 3000 school children ringing in his ears, motored into Boston to take the train at 1 p. m. for New York, where he will stay two days on his way back to Washington.

The question of where the summer capital will be located next year had not been definitely settled when the president left Beverly today. There is a chance that he will come back here, as his choice seems to lie between a cottage on Cornhill street in this city and another ten miles further up the North Shore. Up to within the last two or three days there was every reason to believe that a change from Beverly would be made but now the chances seem to favor the cottage here.

The school children of the city were lined up on Lathorn street, along which the president and Mrs. Taft had to pass on their way into Boston. Each child held a tiny American flag and waved it enthusiastically. The president's machine was slowed down to a crawl as it passed through the line of children and both the president and Mrs. Taft bowed and waved to the children.

After remaining in New York two days the president will proceed to Washington, arriving there Thursday morning.

EAST BOSTON BOY PROBABLY FATALLY INJURED

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Amelio Dattorand, six years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dattorand of 107 Orleans street, East Boston, while at play yesterday afternoon on the roof of the building in which he lives, fell through an air shaft to the basement, a distance of 45 feet, suffering injuries which will probably prove fatal. The boy's skull was fractured and he was internally injured.

With Scouting Dattorand's father, the Dattorand boy was playing tag on the roof of the three story building. The covering of the air shaft had been removed and when the Dattorand boy was running away from young Dattorand's father, he fell into the shaft. He was taken to the East Boston relief station.

SEVERAL FIGHTS

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The inhabitants of Boston's "little Portugal," who man the "blue fleet" of motor fishing boats, have but little interest in the strenuous duties in the fishery, their attention being too much occupied with feuds of their own.

Yesterday morning the war between the hand liners and the netters of the fleet that berths at the head of T wharf broke out again, and the warring factions clashed in a test of arms on the decks of their vessels.

For weeks the feeling had been very bitter, and the scuffling of six boats a week ago had not tended to smooth matters over. Yesterday, when the boat owned by Pasquale Gomes bumped into that of Manuel Vittoretto while making a berth at the head of the slip, the pot of ill-feeling boiled over, and a battle was on in a minute.

Vittoretto jumped for his rival's craft with an aim, intending to teach Gomes a lesson in marine etiquette, but a well directed fish, thrown by Gomes' mate, struck Vittoretto in the face and ended his rush in the bottom of his own boat. The pot of ill-feeling boiled over, and a battle was on in a minute.

A crowd numbering fully 200 collected along the head of the pier and followed excited encouragement to their respective champions, and for a time it looked as if the riot would spread to shore. Then a blue uniform and brass buttons was sighted coming down Atlantic avenue, and the word was passed that required temporary peace for the affair between the factions is a matter of honor, not to be settled in a police court.

MAN ARRESTED

HE WAS TRAPPED BY LETTER SENT TO GIRL

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Caught by the police as the result of an appointment he tried to make by letter with a young woman in Worcester, Otto Schroeder of Meriden, Conn., was placed under arrest in the waiting room of the North station yesterday afternoon.

At the hour the young woman was due to appear, Special Officer Mitchell of police headquarters showed up instead and informed Schroeder he was wanted in Worcester on a number of charges, including beating a hotel there, the larceny of a watch and $130 in money, for carrying a blackjack and in connection with some checks found on his person.

Schroeder used to be in the German navy but has been in this country for a number of years, claiming yesterday to be a machinist.

At police headquarters, when Inspector O'Day of Worcester came to take his prisoner back, he would say but little concerning the case.

HE CITES BIBLE

TO PROVE WHAT HE THINKS ARE HIS RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—With the books of Leviticus, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, and Esther as his leading authorities on justice, J. Alexander Childs, a negro, who was compelled to ride in a "Jim Crow" car part of the way from Washington to Lexington, Ky., has appealed to the supreme court of the United States for what he believes are his rights. He argues that his rights as an interstate passenger were infringed.

Last term the court decided against Childs. This fall he has come into court asking for a rehearing despite the rule that a million for rehearing cannot be entertained in any term except that in which the case was decided.

Childs is conducting his own case. He referred the justices, in a brief, to Leviticus, xxiv. 22, to convince them that they should have one "manner of law, as well for the stranger as for one of your own country," and to Deuteronomy, L. 17, to accentuate his point that "ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as the great."

Tendered Vice-Presi- dent E. H. Kearney

One of the most enjoyable gatherings ever conducted by the Lowell Association, No. 17, National Association of Stationary Engineers was held in their hall in the Coburn building, in Market street, Saturday evening. The affair took the form of a reception to Mr. Edward H. Kearney, who was recently elected national vice president of the association.

Fast national president, P. H. Hogan, was the master of ceremonies, and remarks along the line of educational and fraternal features of the order which are the predominant principles of the organization were delivered by Messrs. W. H. Sumner, of Cambridge, T. H. Burke, of Pawtucket, W. W. McLean, of Boston, Riley Daniels, of Providence and past national president T. N. Keiser. A fine entertainment program was arranged by Michael J. Donohue, the hustling chairman of the committee on arrangements.

There were songs by Frank McCarthy, McElroy, J. P. Fahey and Albert Merritt. Mr. Arthur McHugh was the accompanist. Prominent members in the engineers' profession were present from Boston, Providence, Pawtucket, Waltham, Pittsfield, Lawrence, Haverhill, Ayer and Pepperell. National Vice President Kearney holds a very responsible position as engineer in Boston. He is a native of Billerica and the Lowell association took this means of showing their esteem for one whom they all regard as a Lowell man.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—After a Sunday of special services and sermons by many of the visiting clergymen the Congregationalists resumed their convention labors today with half a dozen interesting meetings on the schedule.

ARMORED CRUISERS

HAVE ARRIVED HOME FROM SOUTH AMERICA

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The armored cruisers California, Pennsylvania and Colorado which represented the United States at the Chilean centennial celebration, arrived here yesterday from South America. They will remain here until Nov. 1, when Ellis Harber will be succeeded by Admiral Edwin B. Parry.

On board the California and Pennsylvania were ten Argentine naval officers who will spend six months on the warships for educational purposes.

According to her officers, the California proved herself to be the most economical vessel in the navy. She burned 30 per cent less coal than was expected on the 3000 mile run from Chile.

Coming up the California coast, the three cruisers participated in a full power draft trial. The California made the best speed, making 20.4 knots for six consecutive hours.

Fourteen hundred bluejackets were given shore liberty yesterday.

GENERAL HEALTH

Of United States Army is Improved

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—According to the annual report of the surgeon-general the general health of the United States army has shown a steady improvement for several years. The non-effective rate which is regarded as the true measure of the loss in efficiency from sickness and injury was 14.48 per one thousand during the past fiscal year, as compared with 12.98 for 1908, 13.17 for 1907, and 10.79 for 1906. The total number of deaths from all causes during the past year was 370,238, which were due to disease and 142 from external cause.

Surgeon-General Toney reports that the health of the American troops in the Philippines continues to improve year by year, but that the records show that insanity is more prevalent among troops serving there than those serving in the United States. Asiatic cholera has been especially prevalent throughout the archipelago during the past year and still prevails.

Considerable progress has been made each year in the campaign inaugurated for the protection of the army against typhoid fever by means of vaccination. Among the 11,358 persons in the army who have been vaccinated there have developed to date three cases of typhoid with no deaths. The protective value of typhoid vaccination, General Toney says, has been perfectly demonstrated as any fact in medicine and he advocates its adoption as a routine procedure throughout the army. It is entirely voluntary with the individuals and should be made compulsory.

The surgeon-general pays a high tribute to the faithfulness and efficiency of the clerical force in his office and he favors increases in their salaries.

THE LATEST FAD

SOCIETY WOMEN ARE TO CARRY DOLLS

In Paris for women have been carrying large bisque dolls. The first importations of these dolls arrived here a few days ago. They were brought over by three fashionable Fifth avenue establishments, whose heads believed they could start the style in this country.

One antique bisque baby is sold at from $85 to $125 each. They are 18 inches high and are dressed in the latest Parisian clothes of the finest materials.

The witness stand Mrs. Green said that her husband drank to excess, once tried to cut her throat with a razor and beat her when he was drunk.

Judge Reed granted the divorce, but said Green might tell his story next Friday if he desired a hearing. His wife said that she did not wish to ask for alimony.

INCENDIARY FIRE

CAUSED A LOSS OF $1200 IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Fire destroyed the storehouse at 3 Ellsworth street, Dorchester, occupied by William Pitonof, a second hand furniture dealer, at 10.30 last evening. Firemen rescued one horse and saved a large express wagon.

It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss will be about $800 to Mr. Pitonof and about $700 to Whitthorn Robbins, who owned the building.

The fire illuminated Fields Corner brilliantly for 15 minutes. This was the second fire within a year in the building and an investigation is being held to determine the cause. The storehouse was in a tenement district and a lumber mill and chemical and leather factories are nearby on Freeport street.

JULIA WARD HOWE

One of the World's Famous Women Passed Away

MIDDLETOWN, R. I., Oct. 17.—One of the world's famous women, the venerable Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, poet and patriot, and staunch advocate of human liberty everywhere, passed peacefully away at her summer home, "Oak Glen," in Middletown, at 11.30 o'clock this forenoon. Mrs. Howe had been ill since Wednesday last when she had a severe chill. Death was due to old age, which with a cold weakened her heart.

The celebrated reformer was born in New York city May 27, 1819, three days after the birth of Queen Victoria. Her husband was Rev. Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, an eminent philanthropist, who died in 1876. She was the mother-in-law of John Elliott, the artist, and of the late Michael Anagnos, head of Perkins Institute of the Blind.

The aged philanthropist and author, who has been one of America's most famous women for more than a generation, passed away peacefully at her summer home, "Oak Glen," surrounded by her three daughters, who were visiting her. Mrs. Howe had been unusually active here this summer. Last Wednesday she inhaled a chill through the marked change in the weather and since then had been confined to her bed. She was making good progress toward recovery until this morning, when she suffered a change for the worse and lapsed into unconsciousness. Her son, Prof. Henry Marion Howe, and Mrs. Howe, are on their way here from New York.

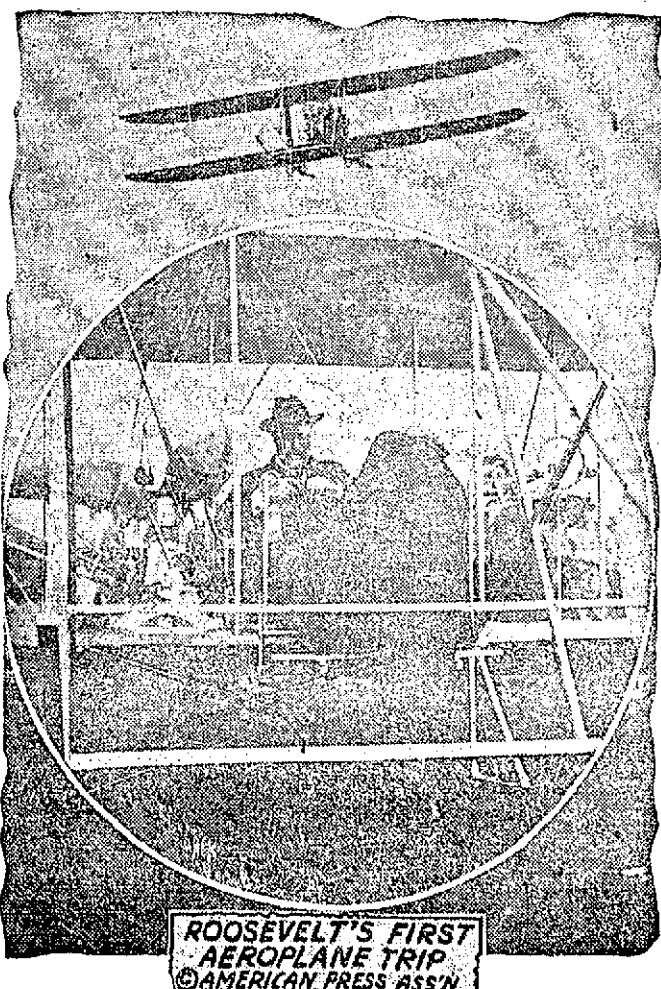

During the summer the venerable author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" spoke at several places and also attended two meetings of the Women's Civic League of Newport. Last month she made a visit to the naval training station at Newport where the sailors were put through drills for her inspection.

Mrs. Howe's home was on Beacon street, Boston, and she had planned to return there next month. Her body will be taken to Boston, where the funeral will be held.

Interesting Address by Secretary Humphriss on Club's Growth and Standing—Prizes Awarded by His Honor Mayor Meehan

The 17th annual banquet of the United States Bunting club and Athletic association was held Saturday night at the club house in South Lowell. There was an unusually large attendance despite the unfavorable weather. The Buntings are noted for their hospitality, and Saturday night the members left nothing undone to make the occasion one of great pleasure to all who attended. The program which was carried out reflected much credit on the club. In the first place there was an excellent dinner served, there were good speeches and later a fine musical and literary program was carried out.

There were about 300 present, including many of Lowell's prominent citizens. Among those who were noor you have conferred upon me this evening by selecting me as your toastmaster at your seventeenth annual banquet. You will pardon me if, at this time, I briefly review the work which has been accomplished during the year that will close on the 18th of this month. Since the inception of the club in 1894, when a few men met and handed themselves together into an association known as the United States Bunting Cricket club and Athletic association the society has shown a steady growth in its membership and the grand work which it has accomplished in promoting the game of cricket and other athletic sports; encouraging social intercourse and improving the physical and moral qualities of its members, has won recognition

Toastmaster Humphriss spoke in part as follows: "Here's to the club, may it ever be the honest endeavor of each and every one of us to keep the club's name unblemished and untarnished as we received it from our predecessors."

"Mr. President, fellow members of the Bunting Cricket club and friends, I desire to express my sincere thanks for the hon-

IN POLICE COURT

Liquor Seizure Near Lakeview Yesterday

A roast pig dinner was held at the residence of Frank Levesque near Lakeview yesterday, but this affair did not prove to be the success that was anticipated. Of course there was plenty of wet goods on the premises and everything was going along nicely until Deputy Sheriff Evrelth and Police Officer William J. Cullinan, the latter of the Collinsville section, put in an appearance. After they had seized a quantity of liquor the party became discomfited.

Levesque's place has been raided on several occasions and he has been convicted for the illegal keeping of liquor. The festivities were just beginning when the officers put in an appearance. After making a search of the premises they decided to take the beer and whiskey which they found. They also notified Mr. Levesque to come into court. Levesque was in court this morning, but before his case was called he made his escape and when his case was reached it was found that he had disappeared. The charge against him is illegally keeping liquor.

Austin Will Settle
Wm. Austin was charged with illegally removing baggage from the boarding house of Wintred Lester. It seems that William boarded at the Lester house and one day while indebted to the woman left the house and took what belonged to him with him. He admitted that he owed the Lester woman money but informed the court that it was his intention to liquidate his indebtedness in the near future. The court placed Austin in the custody of Constable Livingston of Billerica after the latter said that he would see that Austin would pay the bill.

Drunken Offenders
There was a very large list of drunken offenders in court this morning. Some were old timers while others made their first appearance in the glided cage.

James Mone, John Myers and Daniel McCarthy were sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater while Walter Durkin was given a suspended sentence to the same institution. John Fleming who is on parole, will be returned to the farm.

Matthew Moore was given a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory.

Andrew Carr appeared before the court recently and was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail but he failed to live up to the requirements of his probation and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Patrick Tierney was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail.

Catherine A. Hayes was sentenced to jail for two months and the sentence was suspended.

Hormidas Licour, charged with drunkenness, was called but his condition warranted the continuance of the case for one week.

Michael J. Riley, Edward W. Collins, Leonard E. Moore, Timothy Donovan, Jeremiah Toumey, Edward J. Fanning and John J. Keilner were each ordered to pay a fine of $6.

The Sunday drunks were Napoleon, Bustle and Joseph Masterson, each being fined $6.

There were several first offenders who were fined $2 each and 11 simple drunks, who were released.

Lawrence Cummings, a young man around town, was in court charged with larceny of $5. The case was continued.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT

BROOKLINE, Oct. 17.—The tall chestnut trees that border the Country club golf links looked down today on some of the best women players of three golfing countries in the special invitation tournament of the Woman's Golf association of Boston. Part of the brilliant field that played in the national championship on the Homewood course at Chicago, came on for the Boston event and as few eastern women went to Chicago there was considerable interest in what is generally regarded as a supplementary championship event.

With players from the west from New York and Philadelphia and from Ontario and England and a strong local field that includes several former title holders, there was plenty of sport on the program even after today's qualifying round for the four flights of eight players each which will continue tomorrow at match play.

The first pair drove off across the broad polo field at 10 a.m. with the remainder of the field following at five minutes' intervals. The full championship course of 6683 yards was used and every woman stood on the same tees as those used by the men in the national amateur championship five weeks ago.

The Georgia, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Virginia will go first to Brest and from there to Gravesend. The new itinerary was arranged by Rear Admiral Schroeder, in command of the fleet, following the abandonment of the Mediterranean cruise owing to the prevalence of cholera at several ports in southern Europe.

SANDY FERGUSON

Lost His Bout With Jim Barry

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 17.—At the end of the 14th round of what was scheduled to be a 20 round bout between Sandy Ferguson of Chelsea, Mass., and Jim Barry of Chicago at the West Side Athletic club in McDonoughville, just across the river from New Orleans, yesterday, Ferguson's seconds threw up the sponge.

The contest was announced as the first of a series of elimination bouts with a view to the possible selection of a man to meet Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion. Neither Barry nor Ferguson in the prevailing opinion, showed championship form. Just after the men had advanced to the center of the stage to receive instructions from the referee, Barry extended his hand toward Ferguson, who responded with what appeared to be a left to the face and for a time the combined efforts of several policemen to quell the disturbance. Referee Tommy Walsh instructed the men, who then seconds held them in opposite corners "to fight from the ring of the ring."

The first three rounds were about even, Barry showing more science and better foot-work than his opponent and doing most of the leading. In the fourth a straight to the nose drew blood from Ferguson's nose, whose most favorable blows were short jobs to the wind and face.

Ferguson was a shade the better in the sixth and seventh rounds and in the 10th he looked to be the winner, landing several blows to the wind and face and bringing blood from Barry's eyes.

After this the fight was all Barry's, who rallied strongly in the 11th. Landing almost at will, he had Ferguson apparently dazed up to the finish. In the 13th Barry floored Ferguson with a straight jab to the side of the head.

In the 14th Barry rushed his man and at the bell Ferguson was a beaten man and his seconds gave up the contest.

A large crowd is expected in Philadelphia today to witness the opening of the world's baseball series, and two of the promoters will stage bouts, figuring on a big attendance. One is between Jimmy Gardner and Leo Houck. The bout will show whether Gardner has regained his old form and furnish a line, too, on Houck's chance of becoming a champion. If Gardner goes into the ring right, Houck is in for a troublesome time.

The other bout in Philadelphia will be between Frank Klaus and Billy Burke. Barry has never done anything in the ring to indicate that he has a chance against Klaus.

Several new faces will be seen in the bouts at the Armory A. A. tomorrow night. K. O. Brown, who has been quite a sensation in New York, is to tackle Kid Goodman in one of the 10-round contests, while O. Schmitt will clash with Joe Thomas in the other 10-round affair. Both New York boxers are classed as rugged workers. Goodman and Thomas are in fine shape, however, and each is confident of winning.

In one of the six-round bouts, Jack Carter of Pawtucket, who is reported to be a boxer capable of bringing about quick finishes, will meet Dick Howell of Nova Scotia. Howell was seen by the local fans a couple of weeks ago, and his work was impressive in his bout with Rector, the navy champion. James Milley of Roxbury, who won the 156-pound New England amateur championship this year, but who was buried under an assumed name, will box Billy Nish of the navy in the other six-round contest. Milley showed ability when he boxed in the amateur division. Roxbury sports figure him as a coming champion. He will find Nish a tough customer, however.

It is understood that if Gardner shows up well he will meet Frank Klaus at the Armory club one week from tomorrow night.

HURTZ IS CAUGHT

Slayer of Ketchel Was Captured By Four Men

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 17.—Walter A. Hurtz, who shot and killed Stanley Ketchel, world's middleweight champion yesterday, was captured yesterday at the home of Thomas Haggard, one mile from Nangua, Mo. Hurtz was taken to the Webster county jail at Marshall, where he is being closely guarded. After being placed in his cell, the prisoner made a statement in which he said he shot Ketchel in self defense. He says he ordered the prize fighter to throw up his hands, and fired when he did not obey him.

Late Saturday night, overcome with hunger and fatigue, from fleeing through the rough Ozark country, Hurtz reached the home of Thomas Haggard, where he applied for a place to sleep and something to eat. He was given food and a bed. At that time Haggard had not heard of the shooting, but a short time later he learned of the affair. He also received a description of the slayer and for several hours, while Hurtz was sleeping, he stood guard with a shotgun.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning, Haggard got the services of three neighbors and they awakened Hurtz at the point of a gun. They forced him to roll up his sleeves, and, finding a tattoo mark there, accused him of having killed Ketchel. The man then admitted the shooting. He was then turned over to the officers and taken to Marshall.

Hurtz, in describing the killing, asserts that Ketchel made insulting remarks to Goldie Smith, a cook employed at the farm. He says words passed between Ketchel and him and he ordered the prize fighter to throw up his hands. When the champion refused to do this, he said he was so frightened, knowing that Ketchel carried a revolver, that he fired and without hardly realizing what he had done, fled.

Goldie Smith, the woman in the case, has been taken to the Webster county jail and will be held pending an inquest which will be held today.

Funeral services over the body of the fighter were held at the Elks club here yesterday and today the corpse will be taken to Grand Rapids, Mich., the home of Ketchel's parents. The body will be accompanied by R. P. Dickerson, with whom Ketchel was visiting at the time he decided to buy a ranch in this country.

FOOTBALL NOTES

The real attractiveness of football as a spectacle does not come ordinarily before the latter part of the season, but the Andover team in its game at Cambridge last Wednesday showed a never approach to finish than college teams have reached as yet. The businesslike attitude of the strong prep school teams is a matter of comment, and here was a team that conducted itself like a young strong college team, so to speak. In its ranks were several players—Rogers, the center; Randall and Forsyth, the tackles; Webster, right end, and Mahan, the punter, who promise to be valuable college players.

Mahan came nearer to first class punting than has been seen on any Eastern college field this year, except that he punted too far for his ends. The Andover lads tackled sharply and threw their men back and followed the ball closely. They evidently had been well coached.

A couple of odd wrinkles were pulled off—to use a baseball barbarism which occasionally creeps into football—by Andover. In one the center turned his back squarely to his opponents when he put the ball in play and passed it, facing his own backs. The object of the move was not apparent, unless it allowed the center to get into the interference. The maneuver was not a distance getter. In another play the quarterback called for a "tandem formation." Three backs took the tandem alignment, but at the extreme end of the line, just back of one of the ends, making with the line and L shaped formation.

This play was to assist in a forward pass, but not the cut and dried forward pass. The receiver went way out to the end of his line and the pass was almost straight across the field instead of forward. The idea was that the receiver might have a clear field ahead of him. If stopped at the instant of the catch he gained nothing, but if the opposition were fooled he had a fine pathway for a long run. Both wrinkles were at least different from the general run of plays.

FOOTBALL GAME

Lowell High Lost to English High

The Boston English High school eleven defeated Lowell High Saturday at Washington park by a score of 11 to 5. During the preliminary practice it was the consensus of opinion that the Lowell team would not have a ghost of a show, owing to the "heat" of the visitors, but after a few minutes of play the local boys demonstrated the fact that science rather than weight counts for a great deal.

It looked as though the game was to end in a tie score, but just before the close of the fourth period, Janvrin, the left halfback of the visiting aggregation, made a wide detour of the end and carried the ball over the line. In fact it might be stated that Janvrin's plays were the features of the game.

The Lowell team made various changes in an attempt to defeat the visitors, but their team play was not up to the high standard of English High.

The Famous Senator From Iowa is Dead

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Senator Dolliver died Saturday night, while Dr. E. M. Van Patten was examining his heart with a stethoscope. An acute attack of stomach trouble had affected the heart dilation of which was the direct cause of death.

Senator Dolliver had so far recovered from illness as to be able to walk about his lawn. He had been up all day and Saturday night entered his sitting-room for a consultation with his physicians. He informed Dr. Van Patten that he was feeling much improved, and that he believed he had about recovered his normal strength. Dr. Van Patten cautioned him about becoming too anxious to again resume his work.

The senator was sitting in a Morris chair when the physician began the examination of his heart. "I really feel better than at any time since my recent sickness," he said, "but I suppose the wolves will be set howling about my successor." And the senator laughed.

The physician continued his work with the stethoscope, counting the beats of the senator's heart out loud. He was frequently interrupted by Senator Dolliver with the declaration that he was able to hear his own heart.

When Dr. Van Patten had counted 14 beats he informed the senator. "That's good," replied Mr. Dolliver. "The most I have been able to count is seven."

The physician continued the examination and suddenly noticed that the heart beats had ceased entirely. The senator died without struggle or pain.

Mrs. Dolliver was on the point of entering the room when her husband died. It was the belief of the physicians that his arduous work in congress had broken him down. Mrs. Dolliver said that while the senator was in Washington he had studied tariff

SEN. JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER.

FOUR LIVES LOST

50 Persons Injured When an Electric Car Tipped Over

Car Jumped the Rails at Cambridge and Charles Streets in Boston—Policemen and Firemen Dragged Passengers From the Car

The dead:
ARTHUR W. RICE, blind, 28 years old, lived at 181 Windsor street, Cambridge. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

JOHN JOSEPH WALSH, motorman, 79 Summer street, Watertown. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

DENNIS MAHAR, 30 yrs. old, killed instantly, lived at 146 Cypress street, Watertown. Body at North Grove street morgue.

THOMAS F. CANAVAN, U. S. soldier, probably stationed at Watertown arsenal.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Four persons are dead and about 50 injured, some of them seriously, as a result of an electric car accident which occurred at 7:30 Saturday evening on Cambridge street near Charles, West end. A 13-ton Watertown Inland car left the rails as it came off the new West Boston bridge, turned end for end and then crashed over onto its side, hurling about 60 passengers into a writhing, screaming mass, some dead and others terribly injured.

The car was a few minutes late leaving Watertown. Most of the passengers agreed that when it came off the incline of the bridge it seemed to be running away from the motorman.

A few feet west of Charles street there is an electric switch and the motorman attempted to throw this switch so that his car would proceed up Cambridge street into Bowdoin square. But just before he reached the switch the front end of the car seemed to jump in the air, the forward trucks left the tracks and started off to the south side of the street, while the rear trucks left the rails and raced ahead and turned the car around so that the forward end was facing Cambridge, when of a sudden the car turned over on its side toward the north.

Instantly the lights went out and the imprisoned passengers, numbering about 60, began to scream and battle for a chance to escape.

Taken Out of Windows

Men rushed out of the saloons, stores, houses and the park and went to the aid of the injured passengers. They caught a hold of the car and struggled with it in an endeavor to lift it up and turn it but they were unable to do this.

Somebody ran to box 26 and sent in an alarm of fire at 7:32. The firemen came, but in the meantime Patrolman Thomas Foley and Thomas Hannan of Hancock place, who was standing with the policeman at the corner and who witnessed the accident, rushed to the car and began breaking in the windows. Then they pulled men and women out and escorted them to stores and shops nearby, where they were attended.

Eleven persons were taken to the eye and ear dispensary on Charles street and given temporary treatment, and then sent in carriages to hospitals and their homes.

A large number were temporarily treated in the store on the corner of Charles and Cambridge streets and then removed to the hospitals.

After the firemen arrived short work was made of the rescuing of the imprisoned passengers.

THE FUNERAL OF SENATOR DOLLIVER WILL TAKE PLACE THURSDAY

FORT DODGE, Ia., Oct. 17.—Funeral services for Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver will be held on Thursday at two o'clock, it was announced yesterday. The suddenness of Mr. Dolliver's death Saturday from heart disease, while a physician was listening to the irregular beats of the organ with a stethoscope, took everyone so much by surprise that some of the funeral arrangements are only tentative.

According to present plans the obsequies will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Spence, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Fort Dodge.

Bishop Luther B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, Dr. Frank G. Gammon of Chicago, Dr. Newell Dwight Illiis of New York city, and Gov. B. F. Carroll of Iowa have been invited to make funeral orations for the senior senator of Iowa.

If the weather is good on Thursday, the services will be held on the lawn of the Dolliver home. If this is not feasible, the orations will be delivered in the First Methodist church.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery. Senator A. B. Cummins arrived yesterday to assist the family in its bereavement and to aid in carrying out the arrangements for the funeral.

Everybody in Fort Dodge is in mourning for the loss of the town's most noted citizen. The suddenness of the senator's death caused a shock from which the people have not yet recovered.

Saturday evening a little more than an hour before death came, Senator Dolliver chatted cheerfully with Mayor S. J. Bennett, a life long friend. Only an hour before his demise, Mr. Dolliver spoke hopefully of his recovery to District Judge R. M. Wright, who called to ask after the senator's health.

During the afternoon Senator Dolliver took a walk in his garden which had been one of his pleasures. He seemed well and talked to several callers in the shade of a large tree, where he rehearsed many of the speeches which made him famous. The senator spoke to his visitors optimistically and incidentally mentioned some plans for the future.

Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy poured in on Mrs. Dolliver yesterday from all parts of the country. Nearly every member of both houses of congress sent condolences. Messages also came from most of the governors and from the president, cabinet officers and other public men.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Vice-President Sherman has designated the following members to act as a committee from the United States senate to attend the funeral of the late Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa, at Fort Dodge, on Thursday: Senators Cummins, Bailey, Elkins, Pavy, Nelson, Burrows, Keam, Clapp, Beveridge, Shively, Burkett and Money.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The factional spirit works as much mischief in the democratic party as insurgency in the republican.

The credit of the Quincy police is saved by the discovery of the body of Restelli, the insane murderer, in a quarry hole. He drowned himself soon after the murder and in a way that left no trace of him.

Can it be that another swindling concern has been doing business in Boston under the very eyes of the police and with a name quite as catchy as that which Morse applied to his bogus companies.

The "Gentleman From Mississippi" is a political play that bears a wholesome lesson in clean politics. It shows what one honest man can do to overcome a whole host of corruptionists. At one point the hero of the play dilates upon the force of public opinion and his estimate is not overdrawn, in spite of exceptional cases it is public opinion that rules the world today.

MAP OF THE SUBWAYS

The Boston Elevated Railway company should issue a plain map showing strangers how to make their way through the labyrinthine underground system of transit in the city of Boston. The East Boston tunnel, the Washington street tunnel and other branches of the system recently added have rendered it more complicated and more perplexing to strangers. A map showing the connections between the great centres of travel such as the depots and boat landings would be very useful.

WELLMAN'S GREAT PROJECT

That any of the aviators should even consider the project of flying across the Atlantic is in itself astonishing; but more marvelous still is the fact that any of them should be equipped to make the trip. Walter Wellman with his great dirigible balloon, his three engines, his life boat and four men showed his confidence in what he can do, on Saturday when he started out upon the ocean in a fog from Atlantic City. He has been preparing to make a flight to Europe, and although he may fail in the first, second or third attempt it is almost a certainty that he or somebody else will eventually succeed in making the voyage in the air. The flights from Albany to New York, from Chicago to St. Louis, and even from the Atlantic to the Pacific are but the elementary steps in aviation. The feat of crossing the Atlantic will be the next great performance by the aviators.

BETTER AS A LABOR PARTY

The American Federation of Labor refused to be drawn into the snare of allowing the organization to be disrupted and destroyed by embarking on the seething sea of politics.

No level-headed labor leader would favor such a course.

The American Federation of Labor has been steered clear of such dangerous shoals as this in the past and it will do well to pursue the same course in the future. What would it amount to as a political party? Instead of becoming stronger in politics it would soon lose the influence it wields at the present time.

As a labor party the American Federation of Labor can advocate the rights of labor, it can fight for the enactment of better labor laws, and as a labor party it is immeasurably more potent than it would be as a political party.

Gompers and Mitchell have always avoided identification with any political party and in this they brought strength to the great labor organizations of which they were the recognized heads.

It will be well for other leaders to imitate their course in this respect. The A. F. of L. in this state has adopted the only logical course for a labor organization to pursue and its good judgment is widely recognized in resisting the temptation to adopt a course that could result only in ruin and disaster.

TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES

In view of the enormous losses in life and property resulting from forest fires in this country, it is very plain that more strict regulations must be adopted in order to prevent such losses in the future.

In this part of the country the forests are left practically unprotected. Tramps can roam therein at will; they can light fires, smoke and do anything they please once they enter the woods. The result is disastrous forest fires that sometimes wipe out large forests worth many thousands of dollars and even threaten whole towns and villages.

Even children are in the habit of going to the woods to start brush fires for the fun of the thing. The local firemen realize the extent of this danger, for they are called in scores of cases every year to extinguish brush fires started by children who flee as soon as they see the fire become dangerous. Thus children are trained to setting fires in the woods and as they grow older they are likely to keep up this habit.

All this should be stopped and severe penalties should be imposed by law for anybody who sets a fire in woods where it is liable to spread. Whether the forest is valuable or not is not considered by those whose only aim in starting a fire is mere amusement.

The losses annually in the west resulting from forest fires is enormous. In our own vicinity we have had several bad forest fires recently and all as a result of a blaze started here or there by boys or tramps with the utmost disregard as to results.

The law should resemble that by which the forests in some European countries are protected. In those countries it is forbidden to smoke except under certain specified conditions which ensure safety. If we adopted like precautions against forest fires our annual losses from that cause would soon be greatly reduced.

SEEN AND HEARD

If a girl wants to captivate a young man she ought never to go with him on a fishing party unless she is dead sure that she won't be seabird.

Occasionally a man may take up the profession of medicine because of a deep-seated interest in the welfare of the human race, but the dentist must always choose his job for the money that is in it.

A boy seldom turns out well if his father gives him all the money he wants.

The only advantage about hearing the man who tells stultifying stories is that it takes him longer, so that he can't tell so many in a given time.

Never bet unless you can get odds of at least nine to five. As you can almost never get such odds, following this rule may save you a great deal of money.

It must be very trying to wait on a hotel table. It is bad enough to wait at one.

HOPING FOR THE BEST

Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best; They will tie knots in his trousers and sew up his coat and vest; They will throw him in a frazzle, they will throw him in a well; And they'll proudly ostracize him if he ever dares to tell.

They will teach him lots of habits we have warned him he should shun; They will press him into football and they'll break his bones for fun; They'll convince him that his studies are of no account at all; And despite him if he doesn't mix in every silly brawl.

He will have to learn that prexy is unworthy of respect; And become a noisy ruffian to be one of the elect; They'll endeavor to persuade him that the course is all a test; Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best.

Yes, Samuel, you have the idea: A man's avocation is what he likes to do. His vocation is what he has to do.

Errors which sometimes creep into the daily papers cause considerable merriment. Nearly every one has read of the reporter who described a shooting affair as follows: "The man was shot once in the left breast and twice in the barber shop." Also the brief story that "The Chinaman fell, and broke his leg just below the opium joint."

One of the most famous mistakes that ever got into a metropolitan paper was in Chicago in connection with a fire when a number of persons were reached.

The fire occurred late at night. The night city editor who "handled" the story marked the copy when it went to the printer with directions to send him proofs so that he could make certain there were no errors. Here is the way the story appeared in the paper:

"The young woman appeared at the window, flames bursting about her head, her hair disheveled and with wild eyes shrieked:

"RUSH PROOFS TO NEV!"

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Alfred Tenneyson Dickens, the eldest surviving son of Charles Dickens, has arrived in England after a forty-five years' absence in Australia. Mr. Dickens will begin soon a long tour of the United Kingdom with his lecture, entertainment "My Father's Life and Works."

"In the days of my boyhood I was constantly with my father," Mr. Dickens said recently. "And I have many interesting reminiscences of him, which I shall hope to relate to a London audience in the course of my tour. The entertainment consists mainly of anecdotes interspersed with recitations from my father's works."

"My first ten years in Australia were spent in the bush, until I married and settled in Melbourne. For the last twenty years I have lectured in Australia, where my father's novels are immensely popular, and the name of Dickens is one to conjure with."

Mr. Dickens, a grandson of Tenneyson, was born in 1815.

There will shortly be on sale throughout the kingdom the Dickens festival stamp, which has been chosen as the most effective way of celebrating the centenary of the novelist's birth. It is an original form of memorial, which is expected to touch the sympathies of the great community who read the works of Dickens and esteem his memory. There are twenty-four million copies of the stamp extant, and the proposal is that the possessors of them shall purchase a penny stamp to affix to each volume.

From London has come the announcement of the engagement of the actor-aviator, Robert Loraine, and Marie Lohr, the actress. Mr. Loraine and Miss Lohr have acted in the same company for two years. Miss Lohr, who is pretty and attractive, is regarded as one of the cleverest sentimental heroines on the English stage.

In appreciation of his interest in the French people and in French institutions, the decoration of "Officer of the Legion of Honor" has been conferred on President Judson of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Annette M. Mills, who started the first and as yet the only school for the deaf in China, has started on her return trip to Cheoo Foo, having succeeded in persuading the foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church to take the school, for which she has heretofore carried all the responsibility, under its patronage. At the farwell service held for Mrs. Mills at the board's headquarters in New York, Dr. Arthur J. Brown said a large amount of money had been contributed toward the endowment fund, especially by inmates of the 135 homes for the deaf in this country. There are several fellowships too, supported by children in deaf schools of this country. "There are four hundred thousand deaf mutes

BOY WAS KILLED

While Trying to Help Light Inspector

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Rushing to the assistance of A. C. Bralley, light inspector for the Edison Electric and Illuminating company, who was making repairs on an arc light at the corner of Alton street and Robinson court last evening, Eddie Donohue, aged 14, of 55 Maple avenue, son of Mrs. Catherine Donohue, took hold of the shade of the light and was almost instantly killed by the shock.

This light is on a 3500-volt circuit and 2200 volts are believed to have passed through the youth's body. Young Donohue, accompanied by Leo Kennedy, aged 12, of 22 Southworth court, was on his way to Perkins park. Inspector Bralley was at work on the light, steadying it by means of a rope. Without any warning young Donohue took hold of the shade, apparently intending to hold it or Bralley. He instantly dropped to the ground. He was carried into the automobile garage of W. H. Marble, nearby, by Bralley and Young Kennedy and Medical Examiner A. Elliott Paine summoned. The boy was dead before he was lifted from the ground.

Mrs. Donohue was notified of the death of her son. She ran from her house to the garage, crying loudly and calling for her son. Before she reached the garage she was assisted to an automobile and taken home again, as it was apparent she was in no condition to see the body. Young Donohue was the oldest child of Mrs. Donohue, who is a widow. He was an office boy at the shoe factory of the George H. Snow company.

Young Katz, with companions, Kauffe Myers and Edward Huffy, both of Chicopee, were chestnutting. Young Katz, without noticing the approaching trolley, crossed the tracks, and upon seeing his companions were not following, started back and was caught by the trolley. The car was going at a high rate of speed and the boy was thrown considerable distance, landing on his head. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and removed to the Springfield hospital, where an examination disclosed a crushed skull and internal injuries from which he died at 8 o'clock.

Four Persons Met Death in Accidents Yesterday

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Simon W. O'Brien, aged 32, of Randolph was instantly killed in an automobile accident on Battles street shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning. His skull was fractured by coming in contact with a tree at the side of the road. Four other occupants of the auto, George H. Littlefield of Avon, Thomas Mullen, Thomas Boyle and Len Hurley of Randolph, had narrow escapes from injury.

The auto, which was driven by Mr. Littlefield, who owns it, was wrecked. Littlefield was formerly a shoe manufacturer in Avon.

The party was on the way from Randolph to Brockton, where it was planned to dine at a local restaurant. Mullen and Hurley had been with Littlefield most of the evening; O'Brien and Boyle were picked up at a restaurant in Randolph.

The trip to Battles street was without incident. The locality, two miles from the center of the city, was dark and as Littlefield guided his machine around a curve in front of the farm of Fred M. Field he left the sandy road and took to a wide stretch of grassward. Although there is a slight incline at this point, the position of the automobile after the accident indicated that the machine must have been going at tremendous speed.

Forty feet from the point where the machine left the road stood a big tree, with roots protruding from the ground. One of the front wheels struck a root with such force as to toss the machine into the air to a height of 12 feet. As the auto changed its course and passed by the tree it is believed O'Brien, who was sitting on that side of the machine, lost his balance and his head swung out, coming in contact with the tree. His body was found 30 feet from the tree.

After coming in contact with the root the automobile hurdled the road and landed squarely at the side of some bushes, 30 feet distant from the tree.

All of the occupants except O'Brien retained their seats and escaped injury. They immediately began a search for O'Brien and found him in a pool of blood in some bushes five feet away from the automobile. He was dead, the back part of his head having been crushed in.

The Brockton police were notified and Medical Examiner Paine and Patrolman Lindborn went to the scene in a police automobile. All of the men except Littlefield are said to have left the scene, walking back to Randolph. The policeman guarding the body until the arrival of an undertaker from Brockton.

The automobile, which was left at the side of the road, was removed yesterday forenoon to Avon.

Simon O'Brien was one of the best-known young men in Randolph. He was a son of the late William P. O'Brien, who was a shoe manufacturer of Randolph. He was employed in the making room at the Richards & Brennan factory. He made his home with his three sisters. A brother, Frank O'Brien, is a police officer in Philadelphia.

AUTO SKIDDED
HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—Skidding along a slippery road into a ditch in West Holyoke early yesterday, an automobile driven by James J. Reardon tipped over, killing Mr. Reardon, fracturing an arm of Miss McCarthy, one of the occupants, and slightly injuring A. E. Cayer and Miss McDonald, both of Springfield.

Mr. Reardon was a widower, 41 years old, and the proprietor of a hotel in this city. Miss McCarthy is also a resident of this city.

The party was coming from Springfield to Holyoke when the accident occurred. The machine skidded in going around a curve and crashed into a fence post by the roadside, breaking the forward axle and tipping over into a ditch. Mr. Reardon was pinned beneath the seat and probably died instantly. The others were thrown from the car, Miss McCarthy being the only one hurt badly enough to need a physician's attention. She was able to go to her home.

JUMPED OFF WAGON
PROVIDENCE, Oct. 17.—Jumping from the rear step of a milk wagon, upon which he had been stealing a ride in North Providence yesterday, Edward Waterhouse, 10 years old, was knocked down by an automobile operated by R. H. Croninger of Providence and received injuries which resulted in his death shortly afterward.

Croninger, who was driving at a moderate rate of speed, is not held responsible for the accident by the authorities.

The boy was the son of Seth Waterhouse of Centerville.

BOY MAY DIE
WORCESTER, Oct. 17.—John B. Kilstrom, 6 years old, whose home is at 11 Suffolk street, was run down yesterday by the automobile of Park Commissioner Peter Baker and may die of his injuries. The chauffeur, Jay Snell, was arrested charged with assault and battery and Mr. Baker gave $500 bonds for his appearance in court today.

The Kilstrom boy's injury consists of a probable fracture at the base of the skull, causing hemorrhages from the mouth, nose and ears. He is at St. Vincent's hospital.

Mr. Baker said he was going down Vernon street in his auto and the boy dodged out from behind a trolley car which was standing at a switch opposite Suffolk street, and ran directly in front of the auto and was knocked down by the mud guard.

SMITH FOR MAYOR
HE WAS NAMED BY REPUBLICANS OF MANCHESTER
MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 17.—Polling the unprecedented vote of 4680, the republican majority caucuses cast 2045 votes for City Clerk Edward C. Smith, 1700 for ex-State Senator John B. Cavanaugh and 2 scattering.

For overseer of the poor there were five candidates, among whom the vote was divided as follows: Joseph L. Boudreau 1885, Henry L. Haselton 1208, Charles C. Finkham 813, Thomas H. Stewart 595, Office 375.

There were 162 defective ballots.

The nominations of Smith for mayor and Boudreau for overseer of the poor were made unanimous. The count of the ballots was not completed until yesterday morning.

FOREIGN WHEAT CROPS
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Reviewing the condition of the foreign wheat crop the United States department of agriculture in its monthly Crop Reporter announces the promise of good yields in the southern hemisphere. Although a deficiency of about 55,000,000 bushels is reported for Europe, in comparison with the highest record, still the crop promises to be the second largest the continent has produced.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
The first recital of the season at the Lowell Conservatory of Music was held Saturday afternoon, and an excellent program was carried out, those who took part were as follows: The Misses Bernice Knight, Violet Broad, Elizabeth Crossley, Ellen Christian, Vera Pitt, Mary Walsh, Marguerite McGinnis, Elsie Bayard, Ruth Blackie and Marion Blodgett and Raymond Blackie, assisted by Miss S. Isabella Willey and Miss Ruth Barney.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC
Another great show is offered at the Academy today, including the Stopping Trio, vivacious singers and dancers, Harry Sauber, juvenile character singing monologist and H. A. Tugnot & Co., four people presenting a screaming farce entitled "The Deceivers." New moving pictures will complete the bill. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

STAR THEATRE
From the time that burlesque and variety shows were in their infancy, Charlie Hamilton, the well known Irish comedian, can be pictured in a funny skit, surrounded by pretty girls and characters in the piece. This week the same Charlie Hamilton is at the Star with a show that is there with funny situations and good musical numbers.

Four big acts of vaudeville are presented, in addition to the whirling girl first part and the afterpiece, "The Lobster Man."

Having increased the seating capacity of the theatre by recent renovation, the management has decreased the price of admission afternoons, excepting Saturdays and holidays, to five and ten cents. The admission includes a seat, there being only a few reserved seats at ten cents.

HEAR MACMILLAN TONIGHT
The program, full of interest to all classes of music lovers, that Francis MacMillan will play this evening in Lowell is sure to please. He is the third artist of first rank, heard in this city in a long time, the other two being Hurold Bauer and Schumann-Heink.

MacMillan is at once musically, poetic, impassioned and manly. Do not miss this chance of hearing one of the world's greatest artists playing an instrument that is known the world over for its luscious tones—a genuine "Strad."

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
No musical comedy of recent years has ever created the furore throughout New England that the famous "Isle of Spice" has. After one of the longest runs on record in Boston it went on tour through New England playing to enormous business. Such prices during the engagement this week at the Opera House of the Katses and Phelan Amusement company "The Isle of Spice" will be given its first presentation here at popular prices, with George Ovey, the funny comedian of the company, in the leading comedy role, assisted by a talented company of 40 people, consisting of singers, dancers and above all, pretty girls.

"The Isle of Spice" contains many famous song hits, all of which have been retained, among which may be mentioned the famous "Goo Goo Man," "Peggy Brady," "How Can You Tell 'Till You Try," and "Uncle Sam's Marches." A feature of the production will be the scenery used especially for "The Isle of Spice." Special scenery and costumes are used for each musical comedy during the week, and it is safe to say that this will be the biggest entertainment ever offered at popular prices.

Daily matinees will be the rule during the engagement of the company, and the prices will be: Evenings 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents; matinees 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company opens its engagement here tonight, presenting "A Knight for a Day."

"THE JOLLY BACHELORS"
A company of more than a hundred is required to interpret the musical and dancing numbers in "The Jolly Bachelors," the biggest of all the big Lew Fields shows, which is coming to the Opera House soon.

The principals include such widely known artists as Miss Stella Mayhew, one of the funniest women on the American stage; Miss Lucy Weston, the dainty English singer, who has recently been one of the biggest "head-liners" in vaudeville; Al Leach, easily the foremost eccentric dancer on our stage; Roy Atwell, Eddie Taylor, Harold Crane, Norman Thorpe, Miss Betty Sawyer and Nat Fields. The big chorus has been rehearsed under the personal direction of Ned Wayburn.

Scientifically the piece outranks anything of its sort ever presented in this country, five baggage cars being required to transport the scenery and properties. "The Jolly Bachelors" succeeded "The Midnight Sons" at the Broadway theatre early last winter and attained an equal measure of success with metropolitan theatregoers.

There is seldom a more touching friendship than that which exists between the owner of horses and dogs and his dumb friends. In "The Friends," shown today at the Theatre Voyons, a poor old man's only friends are his horse and dog, and the story woven around this attachment is pathetic and at the same time natural and beautiful. Another picture that will attract a good deal of attention is "The Song That Reached His Heart," a story of the effect that that good old song "Annie Laurie" has on a down and out western miner. In his childhood this song was his mother's favorite and in several critical periods of his life his hearing the long forgotten song causes a change in his life. It is a well carried out picture with every detail brought out to its fullest extent and one that is acted in an unapproachable manner. In connection with this picture several novel musical effects will be introduced. "A Summer Flirtation" will show the funny side of a vacation in which several young people get into very embarrassing situations.

HATHAWAY THEATRE
Tom Nawn, the most original and ingratiating Irish comedian in the business, will appear at Hathaway's this week in his latest and best comedy sketch, "When Pat Was King," another chapter in the history of the adventures of the ubiquitous Pat, whom Mr. Nawn has made famous. "Pat and the Genie" and the other sketches brought out by Mr. Nawn have convulsed thousands of vaudeville-goers, but his newest offering goes them all one better. Another feature in the general happiness is Russell and Smith's Minstrels, with Joe B. McGee, "The Mark Twain Kid." The production is the presentation of a complete old-time minstrel first part, with all the snap and sparkle attending the best performance of this kind ever given in vaudeville. Sweet singing, funny jesting by the end men, picturesque marches and lively dances, and brilliant costuming and stage effects—absolutely nothing is lacking. Fred Russell, who heads the company, is one of the best known and most popular burnt-cork artists on the stage; and Joe B. McGee, as his stage title implies, is an imitator of successful laugh-makers. The company comprises six people, all of whom contribute prominently to the audience's enjoyment. Edith A. Montrose will present one of the latest novelties in vaudeville, "A Bundle of Art." In the course of her kaleidoscopic Protean act, Miss Montrose impersonates a society old hag, an Italian girl, Irish girl, nutty old hag, and Dutch girl, and pathos, mirth and popular songs are interestingly blended in the act. Not only is Miss Montrose clever in her makeup and dramatic work, but she has an original line of rapid-fire comedy conversation which keeps the audience in good humor while she is preparing for each character. Mlle. Martine, a daring woman athlete, gives a pretty and picturesque exhibition on the trapeze. Adonis, a skilful acrobat, and his remarkable trick dog, give an interesting performance. Melodious singing and witty repartee are dispensed by Ingels and Reading, a man and woman. Ray W. Snow, the monologist, should prove a good acquisition to the show. Motion pictures close the bill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Carter, Taylor & Co. are a vaudeville team which deals in just one thing, and that is laughter. They have a very generous package of the mirth provoking stuff in their sketch "In Camp Rest," which will be presented at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week.

Fred Rivenhall is an English comedian, just perfectly rippling, too, don't you know. He has some brand new songs to sing, songs fresh from English music halls, and jokes which though English, are American enough to carry the witty and one demands of the best comedians.

Then there are Hansone & Co. They are musicians, and of a new order. The Seaside Stock company, already a favorite with the patrons of the theatre, will present one of the daintiest one act plays ever, in "Hearts and Flowers," with a real love story and lots of sentiment. Its dandy little play, in very truth, another from the pen of Mr. Mackay.

"HOLY CITY"

GAUL'S CANTATA SUNG AT KIRK STREET CHURCH

Gaul's sacred cantata, "The Holy City," was presented before a large congregation at the Kirk Street church last evening.

The cantata is one that can be given to advantage with a strong chorus. Lacking this, the church quartet undertook to interpret the music by the solos, duets and two quartets, giving a most sympathetic and pleasing singing of the words, which were made the more effective by being read by the pastor before each number. Mrs. William G. Spence and Miss May L. Everett in their solos and duets, and Edward R. Worth and Charles H. Howard in their solo and quartet work never lost sight of the dramatic strength of this well known and always satisfying work.

Arthur C. Spaulding was especially effective in his organ work, which was reinforced by Bordie orchestra, which had a worthy part in a quarter of an hour of favorite hymn singing that the congregation took part in before the singing of the cantata.

Rev. Mr. Craig in a brief address emphasized the value of church music and its mission in exalting the mind and heart. Unless it did this, it was a failure, he said, as sermon and prayers were a failure unless they lifted the heart to God.

AWFUL WITH RASH

Ran Over Bodies, Too. Dry and Very Crusty—Used Cuticura and Did No More Scratching. Eczema Disappeared in 6 Weeks.

Now More Than Two Years Ago and No Sign of Trouble Has Returned.

"My two children suffered from an affection of the face and hands. It started first with little red spots which afterwards got bigger until they were the size of five-cent pieces. The outside became dry and very crusty. The rash on their faces and hands and afterwards it ran over the body, too.

"I had a doctor for them but he could not help. Then I read of the Cuticura Remedies. As I am a chemist, having served my apprenticeship in Germany, I did not have much confidence in them. Yet I was soon taught something better, for after I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Remedies the first time the children felt very well and did no more scratching. Then the eczema became dry and entirely disappeared after about six weeks' treatment. This is now more than two years ago and no sign of the trouble has returned, therefore I can recommend the Cuticura Remedies without reserve to all people who are suffering with eczema. William Grodek, 74 Douglas St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Mar. 10, 1910."

MASCOONE MAY DIE

Shooting Affray in "Little Italy" at Millinocket

MILLINOCKET, Me., Oct. 17.—The most of the Italian population of "Little Italy" as well as the local officers are scouring the town and the surrounding country looking for Luca Ottoboro, who it is alleged shot Alphonso Mascone here last night.

Most of the Italians are armed and excited and declare that they will kill Ottoboro on sight. Mascone has a wound in the head, which the physicians say will be fatal. He is a very popular member of the colony, hence the anxiety of his friends to find Ottoboro.

The shooting broke up a big social event, as most of the colony was gathered at the house of Francesco Benedetti at a christening of his grandchild, which was the occasion of a big feast, with plenty of Italian wine and beer. Ottoboro was one of the guests and was seen to get up and go out. A revolver shot was heard outside and the guests rushed out to find Mascone on the ground with blood pouring from a gaping wound in his head and Ottoboro missing.

No one appears to know the reason for the assault, and no one can be found who saw the actual shooting. Ottoboro is about 25 years old, rather light complexion for an Italian, stocky build, with black curly hair. He has been here about three months.

the lawn and in the streets when, at the conclusion of the parade, Bishop Canavin assisted by several priests administered the sacrament in the open air.

LARGE GATHERING

At Meeting of M. T. I. Held Yesterday

The Mathew Temperance Institute held a largely attended meeting at its rooms yesterday morning with President James J. Gallagher in the chair.

Three new members were admitted and three propositions were received. The treasurer's report showed that the affair of October 10th was a financial success.

James F. McGovern of Woburn, a deputy of the society, was introduced for remarks and gave a talk on total abstinence.

President Gallagher announced to the members that on next Sunday evening in Associate hall a mass meeting in the interest of the Mathew Temperance Institute would be held commencing at 8 o'clock. He urged the members to be present and also to invite their friends, as the meeting will be an interesting one and is open to the general public. Many speakers will be present, including President John T. Shea of the C. T. A. Union of Boston.

A musical program has been arranged for this occasion and several Lowell singers have volunteered their services.

The object of this meeting has been outlined by a committee consisting of the board of trustees and the building fund with the following members: James J. Gallagher, president; Peter F. Brady, treasurer; Patrick McGowan, John T. Ralle, John J. Guthrie, Thomas Tague, John A. McKenna, and James F. Rourke, secretary.

A committee of three was appointed, consisting of Peter F. Brady, Hugh J. Molloy and James F. Rourke, to draft a set of resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Katherine McManus, mother of Rev. Thomas P. McManus, the first spiritual director of the Mathew Temperance Institute, whose death occurred recently in Brookline.

IRWIN IS NAMED

For Dist. Atty. at Second Convention

WALTHAM, Oct. 17.—After a session lasting four hours, the legality of which may be tested before the ballot law commission, the democrats of Middlesex county, in their second convention, Saturday, nominated James J. Irwin of Everett for district attorney. His name, unless the convention is ruled to be illegal, will go on the ballot in place of John J. Higgins of Somerville, who was named at the so-called "snap" convention at Lowell last week, but who later declined to accept.

Legality Questioned

The question of the legality of Saturday's convention rose at the admission to seats of delegates whose credentials were declared to be defective. The credential committee, in making its report just after the opening of the session, announced that 75 credentials had been received, but that 25 of these were not properly signed. After a long discussion the convention voted, however, to seat all who had presented credentials, regardless of whether they were defective or not. Immediately Thomas L. Keefe of Everett secured the floor and declared his intention of taking the matter to the state ballot law commission.

By the time the convention was ready to vote on the nomination the number of delegates had shrunk to 65. Of these 60 cast their ballots for Irwin and five for Higgins. An objection on the part of one of the Somerville delegates prevented the nomination being made unanimous.

Following the district attorney convention the county convention was called and the following nominations were made:

For county commissioner for three years, Dexter C. Whittemore of Carlisle.

For county commissioner, unexpired term of two years, Joseph L. Marlin of Lowell.

For sheriff, Whitfield S. Tuck of Winchester.

Charles T. Daly of Medford was chosen clerk of the convention and John E. O'Connor of Everett secretary.

At the convention held in Lowell a week ago Friday, the following nominations were made:

For district attorney—John J. Higgins.

For county sheriff—John R. Fairbairn.

Dirigible Balloon Journeyed From Compeigne to London

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Another chapter was added to the history of aviation yesterday, when the French dirigible balloon Clement-Bayard made the voyage from Compeigne to London in the remarkable time of six hours, a journey requiring seven hours by the fastest trains and boats. Compeigne is 45 miles northeast of Paris, and about 135 miles by air route to London.

This is also the first occasion on which the dirigible balloon has crossed the English channel. The over-water route occupied 45 minutes.

The Clement-Bayard left Compeigne at 7.15 o'clock yesterday morning and reached London without a stop at about 1.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The dirigible carried M. Clement, of the Clement-Bayard firm, in command; Baudry and LaPringne, steersmen; Seabour, engineer and designer; two mechanics and Arthur Philip Ducros, member of the British parliamentary aerial defense committee.

The course was by way of Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne and the balloon was steered steadily by aid of the compass.

Occasional wind gusts caused some slight rocking of the balloon, but otherwise she proved steady. The French government provided three torpedo boat destroyers, which proved of great assistance in crossing the channel. The Clement-Bayard reached Boulogne at 10.20 and Folkestone at 11.20. Over the channel there was little wind, but a heavy haze.

The whirling of the engines and propeller attracted the attention of crowds of sightseers in Folkestone and other towns, and the balloon arrived over London just as the streets were filled with the great Sunday crowds leaving the churches. The appearance of the monster over the housetops caused the people to wonder, and hundreds of thousands gathered to watch the aeronauts, who now experienced some trouble with the varying air currents neux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made a remarkable trip in biplanes yesterday from Paris to Brussels in an attempt to win prizes aggregating $35,000 offered for a successful flight with passenger from this city to Brussels and return.

Wynmalen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely last evening in St. Quentin. Legagneux decided to stop over for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early today.

The distance between the two points is about 170 miles as the crow flies, and the distance between Brussels and St. Quentin approximates 80 miles. The daring Hollanders, therefore, covered about 250 miles with passenger.

Wynmalen covered the distance to Brussels in five hours and 38 minutes. Legagneux with one stop, made it in five hours.

STATIONARY ENGINEERS

Lowell association, No. 17, National Association of Stationary Engineers, held a well attended smoke talk Saturday night at its quarters. There was a large attendance of members, including a number of out of town people. James E. Donnelly and Frank McCartin gave songs, while Arthur McHugh accompanied on the piano. Past National President Hogan of Boston gave a very interesting address on the work of the N. A. S. E. National Vice President Kearney also was present and made some interesting remarks on the welfare of the order. Refreshments were served.

AFTER $35,000 PRIZE

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Henry Wynmalen, the Dutch aviator, holder of the world's altitude record, and M. Legagneux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made a remarkable trip in biplanes yesterday from Paris to Brussels in an attempt to win prizes aggregating $35,000 offered for a successful flight with passenger from this city to Brussels and return.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

WORLD'S SERIES

THE MANAGERS OF THE CONTESTING TEAMS IN TODAY'S GAME

Connie Mack's Men Won the First Game

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—In the first game of the series for the world's championship between the Chicago Cubs and the local Athletics the latter were the easy winners by the score of 4 to 1.

Bender who did the twirling for the home team, was never in better form until the ninth inning, when the visitors scored one run on two hits, they had only made one single, that in the first inning by Schulte.

The "chief" also struck out eight of the Chicago batsmen. Overall, who started in to pitch for the Cubs, was taken out of the game at the end of the third inning after the Athletics had made six hits and scored three of their four runs. McIntyre, who succeeded him, held the locals safe until the eighth inning, when a base on balls, a wild throw by McIntyre and Baker's double into the right field wall scored another run.

The Athletics' fielding was flawless until the final inning, when Thomas dropped Tinker's little foul pop and Strunk later fumbled the same player's grounder to center. The Chicago team also fended well but were powerless before Bender's superb pitching.

STORY OF THE GAME

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Smiles this morning revealed a long line of enthusiastic baseball fans before the gates of Shibe park waiting for the first game this afternoon between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago Cubs and the local Americans the latter were the easy winners by the score of 4 to 1.

The line began to form at sundown last night.

The rooters brought campstools or chairs and also carried their breakfast and lunches. The line grew so rapidly that the police decided not to let the crowd congregating through the night and broke up the assemblage.

The more determined of the rooters went into the public park across the street from the ball grounds and waited. Before dawn newcomers arrived and stood at the bleacher gates and the park campers joined them. Thus the line again formed and rapidly grew.

At 8 a. m. the crowd started to jam about the gates and the police stepped in and brought about order. It was apparent that when the two teams met at 2 o'clock this afternoon the largest crowd that ever saw a baseball game in Philadelphia would be on hand.

Every reserved seat in the grand stand was sold a week ago and the comparatively few tickets that fell into the hands of the speculators brought fancy prices. The two pavilions of the grand stand of Shibe park seat about 5,000 persons. Standing room in the grand stands at $1.50 a head was sold to 2,500 persons just before the game started. The only other tickets on sale were those for the bleachers and the temporary field seats in center-field. Of these there were about 20,000. The bleacher gates were opened at 11 a. m. and the entrances to the grand stand an hour later.

Almost perfect weather prevailed. There was little wind and the atmosphere was much warmer than could be expected for this time of the year. Manager Chance's men appeared about the corridors of the Aldine hotel early and reported that they were "feeling fine."

Out at Shibe park Cornelius McGillicuddy, whose baseball nom de plume is Connie Mack, met Captain Davis and the other players.

Both Teams Confident

The opposing teams and their followers each professed confidence in the result of both the opening game and the series. While the National league club has the prestige of former victories in world's championship events and is the favorite at 10 to 8 in the little betting that prevails, most of the smaller bets are at even money.

It is declared that the teams are about the finest ever developed in the respective leagues. The Cubs are made up of practically the same players that won the two world's championships for Chicago from Detroit in 1907 and 1908.

The Athletics, on the other hand, have only six players, Pitchers Bender and Plank, First Baseman Davis and Outfielders Murphy, Hartsel and Lord of the team which was defeated by the N. Y. Nationals in the world's series of 1905. The other players are young men who joined the team since that time.

There was disappointment because each team was to go into the game minus its stars. John J. Evers, a most important part of Manager Chance's baseball machinery, who broke a leg in Cincinnati, was replaced by Zimmerman, a batsman of no mean ability. Who was to take Centerfielder Oldring's place on the Philadelphia team was still a secret this afternoon. Oldring, who is a 300 point clean-up batsman, a fleet fielder, and a star "inside" man on the base paths, twisted an ankle last week.

Manager Chance played and directed his team on the field. Manager McGillicuddy, as usual, occupies his secluded spot on the players' bench. The best guess as to the batteries was Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and Overall and Kling for Chicago. The batting order had not been announced during the morning.

Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and Overall and Kling for Chicago are the batteries. The umpires appeared at 1:35 amid tremendous cheering. After being photographed they took the field. Connelly is umpiring balls and strikes with O'Day on the bases. Sheridan went to left field and Rigg-

The crowd was so dense that ground rules were made allowing a two base hit into the crowd.

First Inning

Sheppard was first man up for Chicago.

With two strikes and one ball called O'Day called a policeman to put one of the moving picture men from behind the home plate. Sheppard struck out. Schulte placed a beautiful single in left field and was out stealing second. Thomas to Collins. Hoffman went out on a grounder. Collins to Davis and the crowd yelled its approval. No runs.

Philadelphia—Strunk, the Athletics' centerfielder, was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Lord lifted a high one to Hoffman and retired. Collins was given a reception when he came to the plate. Collins drove a single to left. Collins was out on an attempted steal. Kling to Zimmerman. No runs.

Second Inning

Chicago—Chance was given a warm hand when he stepped to the plate. He drove a hot grounder to Barry and was out at first. Zimmerman, who took Johnny Evers' place at second, lifted a high foul to Baker and sat down. Steinfeldt gave Baker a chance and was an easy out to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker drove a two-base hit into the left field crowd and was sacrificed to third by Davis, the latter going out. Chance to Zimmerman. Baker scored a moment later on Murphy's beautiful single to left. The crowd almost went wild.

Murphy stole second. Barry was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Murphy going to third. Thomas was given his base on balls and Chief Bender came to the plate. Bender drove a hit between first and second base. Murphy scoring. Strunk was the third out, a fly to Sheppard.

Third Inning

Chicago—Tinker was retired on a beautiful stop and throw. Collins to Davis. The Cubs' star catcher, Kling, was the next man to face Bender. With three balls and two strikes on him Kling lifted a high fly, which was taken by Bender. Overall, with two strikes called on him, drove a hot grounder to Barry and was retired at first.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a two-base hit into right center crowd and Chance and Overall held a conference. Collins sacrificed. Chance to Zimmerman, placing Lord on third and Lord scored a moment later on Baker's second hit of the game. Davis struck out on our pitched balls. Baker was an easy out on an attempted steal. Kling to Tinker. One run.

Fourth Inning

Chicago—Sheppard was an easy out. Barry to Davis. Schulte was sent to first on four pitched balls, the chief not being able to locate the plate. Hoffman, one of the Cubs' reliable hitters, struck out and Captain Chance came to the plate. He did not have an opportunity to hit the ball as Schulte was out stealing. Thomas to Collins. No runs.

At this juncture Captain Chance brought McIntyre to the slab and sent Overall to the bench.

Philadelphia—Murphy, the first man up, was thrown out. Tinker to Chance. Barry drove a grounder to Steinfeldt and went out at first. Thomas fanned. No runs.

Fifth Inning

Chicago—Chance was an easy out to Davis. Collins assisting. Zimmerman, who did such phenomenal hitting in a recent game at Cincinnati, was struck out. Steinfeldt also fanned. No runs.

Philadelphia—Bender was given a warm reception when he came to the plate. Bender was unable to connect with McIntyre's curves and went to the bench. Strunk was sent to first on four pitched balls and was an easy out on an attempted steal. Kling to Tinker. Lord was third out, retiring on three pitched balls. No runs.

Sixth Inning

Chicago—Tinker lifted a high fly to center and was an easy out by Strunk. Kling sent a high fly to Murphy and

EXTRA NO MESSAGE YET

The early hours of the day brought no word by wireless or otherwise of the Wellman afloat America, which is hanging over the Atlantic ocean somewhere off the coast of Nova Scotia.

The last message received was at 12:45 p. m. yesterday when the faint good-bye came as the airship passed beyond Nantucket island.

The steamer Kribprinz, Wilhelm, 700 miles seaward and on the regular steaming lane reported by wireless today that it had no tidings of the airship. The steamer Barbarossa, 800 miles out, similarly reported without news of the airship. At the same rate of progress as on Saturday and Sunday and on the same course, the airship would be 130 miles south of Sable island at 8 a. m. today and would pass that way point of Nova Scotia about 8 p. m. tonight. The next and final land point, Capt. Race, on the easternmost point of New Foundland, is 350 miles beyond Sable island and at the same progress would be passed to-morrow night. After that is the stretch of 2000 miles of open ocean.

Such a course, however, is dependent on wind, weather and the mechanical equipment of the airship. Today's weather forecast showed the wind moderate and variable and the prevailing direction northerly, which would give a retarding hindrance rather than the favorable westerly winds which prevailed at the outset.

WALTER WELLMAN REPORTS

THAT ALL ARE WELL
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Swept away by a sturdy westerly breeze, Walter Wellman's great dirigible balloon America, first of air craft to hazard trans-Atlantic passage, was following the steamship lanes up the Atlantic coast at midnight last night, out of wireless range from shore points, but presumably continuing her unbroken course with all well on board. The giant craft passed Nantucket island early in the afternoon with propellers idle and had held brief wireless communication with the Marconi station at Siasconset. In all the messages there was no hint of the airship's location, but a signalled "good bye," indicated that Wellman, on passing Nantucket, turned the nose of his craft in a more easterly direction with the British isles as his goal.

A wireless message amplifying on those of the day was relayed to Siasconset last night, thence to Sagaponack, Long Island. It was faint and hard to decipher, but as patched together it was as follows:
"All well. Machinery working well. Have turned more northerly to reach trans-Atlantic steamship track. Exact position not sure; somewhere between 300 and 500 miles off shore."

None of the messages received spoke despairingly, although one communication received by the New-York Times referred to the outlook "as not favorable" in the same message. However, ever was a cheerful "we are keeping up the fight."

In Atlantic City, where the America left her moorings Saturday morning, Mrs. Wellman and Mrs. Vanman, the latter the wife of Melvin Vanman, the airship's chief engineer, received word of the safety of their husbands, but sent no messages in reply. Several trans-Atlantic liners were supposed to be near enough to communicate with the America by wireless last night and additional word from the airship was momentarily expected.

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM DARING NAVIGATOR

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Wireless stations along the coast so far as heard from at 3:30 a. m. today had nothing to report as to the progress of Walter Wellman's great dirigible balloon America in its attempted flight across the Atlantic. Shortly after noon yesterday the America passed out of wireless touch with the Marconi station at Siasconset and since then no word has come from the daring air navigator, who, in the absence of other information is assumed to be continuing his northward flight along the Atlantic steamer lane with the British isles as his destination.

was an easy out. McIntyre struck out, making the fifth for Bender this far. Philadelphia—Collins was tossed out by Zimmerman to Chance. Tinker made a pretty stop and throw to Baker's grounder, retiring him at first. Davis went on the same route. No runs.

Seventh Inning

Chicago—Barry jumped into the air and pulled down Sheppard's high bouncer, getting the latter at first. Schulte was retired on strikes. Baker made a remarkable stop of Hoffman's wicked grounder and got the runner at first. No runs.

Philadelphia—Sheppard took Murphy's long drive off the ropes in left center. Barry was retired at first by Chance, unassisted. Thomas was given his base on balls. Bender was out at first by Chance, unassisted. No runs.

Eighth Inning

Chicago—Collins made a pretty stop of Chance's grounder and got the latter at first. Zimmerman again struck out. Steinfeldt popped a weak fly to Baker. No runs.

Philadelphia Strunk was tossed out. Zimmerman to Chance. Lord sent a fly to Hoffman. Collins was given his base on balls and went to third on McIntyre's wild throw in an attempt to catch the Athletics' second baseman off the bag. Baker drove the ball against right field wall for two bases, scoring Collins. It was Baker's third hit of the game. Davis was tossed out by McIntyre.

Ninth Inning

Chicago—Tinker reached second on his single and Strunk's fumble. Tinker scored on Kling's single to center. Kane took his position on first base to run Tinker. Beament, batting for McIntyre, was out. Collins to Davis. Kane reached second on the play. Sheppard struck out. Schulte was given his base on balls, with two on bases.

Hoffman came to bat, but his hit to Baker forced Kane at third, Baker getting the out. One run. Final score, Philadelphia 4, Chicago 1.

YANKEES vs. GIANTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Giants and the Highlanders went out for stiff morning practice for the fifth morning game of the post season series between the local clubs of the National and American leagues. Thursday planned to go to the American league park, where they could not only witness the local contest but follow the lining results of the world's championship game at Philadelphia.

The local series now stands: Giants,

Big Dropping Off in Attendance of French Pupils While the Number of Greeks, Poles and Portuguese Shows a Big Increase

The close of the first week's sessions of the evening schools shows an average attendance equal to that of former years though the complexion of the attendance, as it were, shows a decided change.

The results of immigration to this country are shown no more interestingly than through the medium of the evening schools. As is well known, many cannot obtain employment in the mills and factories unless they can produce a school certificate to the effect that they are literate.

Hence the majority of the evening school pupils are foreign-born and it is interesting to observe how the nationalities change as the years go by. Some years ago the Greek, Italian and Colburn schools presented only ordinary attendances while the Bartlett and Cheever street schools were filled.

Some 10 years ago, the Bartlett school had eight rooms filled to the limit with French girls. This year it has been necessary to drop about half a dozen teachers as the result of poor attendances while the majority of the pupils at the Bartlett this year are Greek girls instead of French. Ten years ago the Greek girls attending evening school could be counted on one's fingers; today it is necessary to assign them to a special school and three evening schools, the Green, Main and Bartlett are devoted practically exclusively to Greeks, the boys and men in the two first and the girls in the Bartlett. It is noticeable that a number of Greek adults attend the evening schools showing a commendable desire to become familiar with the language. During the incumbency of George Conzou as president of the Greek community a school was started in the basement of the Greek church for Greek adults who were averse to attending the regular evening schools.

According to Superintendent Whitcomb, the French pupils in the evening school have actually decreased in number owing to a great measure to a decrease in the number of illiterates who have immigrated here, while those already here have become literate through environment and private study. Hence, where once the evening schools were crowded with French pupils it has become necessary within the past few years to reduce the number of teachers in the schools once devoted exclusively to French speaking pupils.

This season the Edison and Colburn schools show the crowds and their pupils are practically all Italian and Portuguese, showing the great increase in immigration among the residents of these countries. In both cases the pupils are desirable, showing an honest intention of becoming familiar with the English language.

Evening school teachers are authorized for the statement that the disturbances that sometimes occur at the schools and the rowdianism sometimes reported, do not emanate from the foreign born pupils, but from young natives who are not compelled to attend by law, but who go there because their parents desire it or for the principal purpose of raising—well, ructions.

PRESIDENT TAFT BOTH

Beverly Today

BEVERLY, Oct. 17.—President Taft bade good bye to Beverly today and, with the cheers of 3000 school children ringing in his ears, motored into Boston to take the train at 1 p. m. for New York, where he will stay two days on his way back to Washington.

The question of where the summer capital will be located next year had not been definitely settled when the president left Beverly today. There is a chance that he will come back here, as his choice seems to lie between a cottage on Cornhill street in this city and another ten miles farther up the North Shore. Up to within the last two or three days there was every reason to believe that a change from Beverly would be made but now the chances seem to favor the cottages here.

The school children of the city were lined up on a thorough street along which the president and Mrs. Taft had to pass on their way into Boston. Each child held a tiny American flag and waved it enthusiastically. The president's machine was slowed down to a crawl as it passed through the lane of children and both the president and Mrs. Taft bowed and waved to the children.

After remaining in New York two days the president will proceed to Washington, arriving there Thursday morning.

GENERAL HEALTH

Of United States Army is Improved

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—According to the annual report of the surgeon-general the general health of the United States army has shown a steady improvement for several years. The non-effective rate which is regarded as the true measure of the loss in efficiency from sickness and injury was 41.48 per one thousand during the past fiscal year as compared with 42.98 for 1909, 47.47 for 1907, and 49.79 for 1906. The number of deaths from all causes during the past year was 270,228, which were due to disease and 142 from external cause.

Surgeon-General Torney reports that the health of the American troops in the Philippines continues to improve year by year and that the records show that insanity is now more prevalent among troops serving there than those serving in the United States. Asiatic cholera has been especially prevalent throughout the archipelago during the past year and still prevails.

Considerable progress has been made each year in the campaign inaugurated for the protection of the army against typhoid fever by means of vaccination. Among the 11,358 persons in the army who have been vaccinated there have developed to date three cases of typhoid with no deaths. The protective value of typhoid vaccination, General Torney says, has been amply demonstrated as any fact in medicine and he advocates its adoption as a routine procedure throughout the army. It is entirely voluntary with the individuals and should be made compulsory.

The surgeon-general pays a high tribute to the faithfulness and efficiency of the clerical force in his office and its favors increases in their salaries.

THE LATEST FAD

SOCIETY WOMEN ARE TO CARRY
DOLLS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The latest fad of the women of fashion is a doll, and, of course, the idea comes from Paris. The doll is to be taken out riding in motor cars, carried at social functions and when walking on a promenade.

In Paris for a month women have been carrying large bisque dolls. The first importations of these dolls arrived here a few days ago. They were brought over by three fashionable Fifth avenue establishments, whose salesmen believed they could start the style in this country.

The dolls—all girl babies—are sold at from $65 to $125 each. They are 18 inches high and are dressed in the latest Parisian clothes of the finest materials.

GETS A DIVORCE

Woman is Mother of 27
Children

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17.—Roseanna Green, who said she was the mother of 27 children Saturday received a divorce in the superior court. She said that she could take care of the children but that she had grown tired of trying to support her husband, George Green.

On the witness stand Mrs. Green said that her husband drank to excess, once tried to cut her throat with a razor and beat her when he was drunk.

Judge Reed granted the divorce, but said Green might tell his story next Friday if he desired a hearing. His wife said that she did not wish to ask for alimony.

INCENDIARY FIRE

BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Fire destroyed the storehouse at 3 Ellsworth street, Dorchester, occupied by William Pittman, a second hand furniture dealer, at 10.30 last evening. Firemen rescued one horse and saved a large express wagon.

It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss will be about $600 to Mr. Pittman and about $700 to Winthrop Robbins, who owned the building.

The fire illuminated Fields Corner brilliantly for 15 minutes. This was the second fire within a year in the building and an investigation, it is thought, will be made. The storehouse was in a tenement district and a lumber mill and chemical and leather factories are nearby on Freeport street.

JULIA WARD HOWE

One of the World's Famous Women Passed Away

MIDDLETOWN, R. I., Oct. 17.—One of the world's famous women, the venerable Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, poet and patriot, and staunch advocate of human liberty everywhere, passed peacefully away at her summer home, "Oak Glen," in Middletown, at 11.30 o'clock this forenoon. Mrs. Howe had been ill since Wednesday last when she had a severe chill. Death was due to old age, which with a cold weakened her heart.

The celebrated reformer was born in New York city May 27, 1819, three days after the birth of Queen Victoria. Her husband was Rev. Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, an eminent philanthropist, who died in 1876. She was the mother-in-law of John Elliott, the artist, and of the late Michael Anagnos, head of Perkins Institute of the Blind.

The aged philanthropist and author, who has been one of America's most famous women for more than a generation, passed away peacefully at her summer home, "Oak Glen," surrounded by her three daughters, who were visiting her. Mrs. Howe had been unusually active here this summer. Last Wednesday she incurred a chill through the marked change in the weather and since then had been confined to her bed. She was making good progress toward recovery until this morning, when she suffered a change for the worse and lapsed into unconsciousness. Her son, Prof. Henry Marion Howe, and Mrs. Howe, are on their way here from New York.

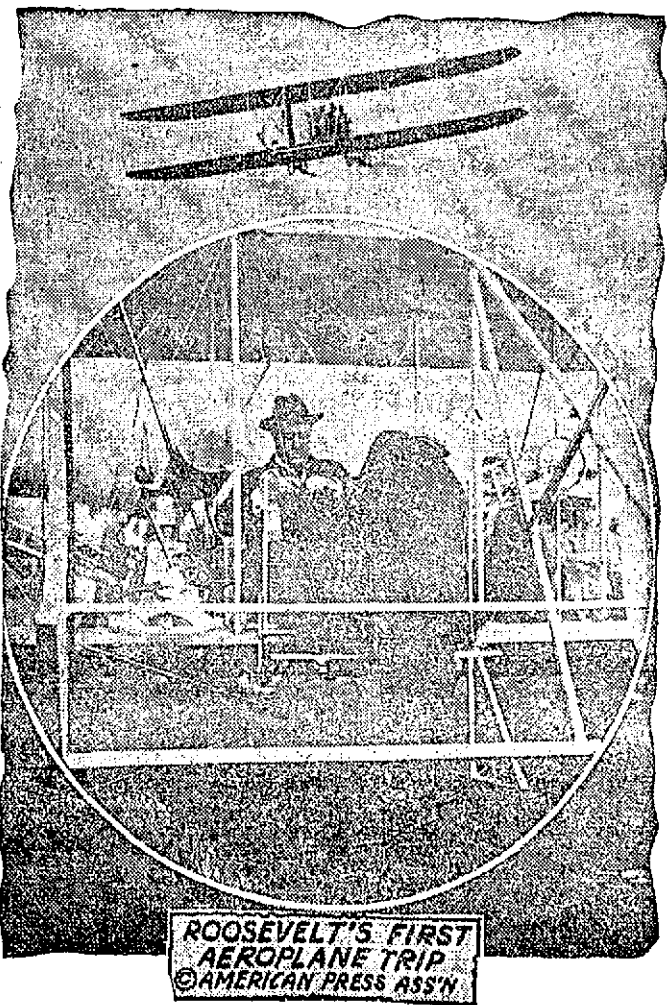

During the summer the venerable author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" spoke at several places and also attended two meetings of the Women's Civic League of Newport. Last month she made a visit to the naval training station at Newport where the sailors were put through drills for her inspection.

Mrs. Howe's home was on Beacon street, Boston, and she had planned to return there next month. Her body will be taken to Boston, where the funeral will be held.

THE AEROPLANE MAY DO WHAT THE LIONS COULD NOT

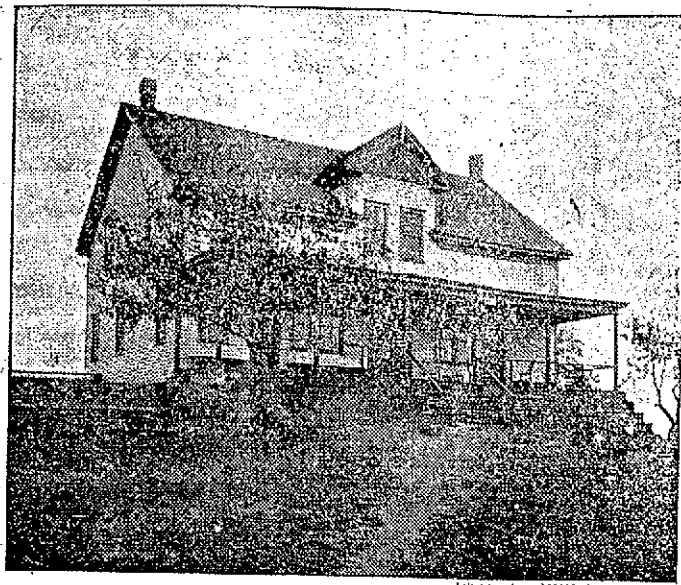

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Having been once in the air, Colonel Roosevelt wants to go again. The aeroplane has dug deep into the ex-president, and he won't be satisfied until he has flown around New York. Political friends of the ex-president want him to keep on the ground until after election, while some politicians of different faith have been accused of offering up strenuous hopes that he may go up again. The lions refused to do the bidding of the colonel's rivals. But now the airship has smitten him, and there's hope in the hearts of certain well known men in the United States. Howbeit, since his flight in St. Louis Col. Roosevelt has declared flying the greatest sport he has ever tried, and he is making it his business to get acquainted with the famous fliers in this country, and he is said to have declared he will go again if reporters and photographers be kept in ignorance of the day he starts.

The 17th annual banquet of the United States Bunting club and Athletic association was held Saturday night at the club house in South Lowell. There was an unusually large attendance despite the unfavorable weather. The Buntings are noted for their hospitality, and Saturday night the members left nothing undone to make the occasion one of great pleasure to all who attended. The program which was carried out reflected much credit on the club. In the first place there was an excellent dinner served, there were good speeches and later a fine musical and literary program was carried out.

There were about 300 present, including many of Lowell's prominent citizens. Among those who were noor you have conferred upon me this evening by selecting me as your toastmaster at your seventeenth annual banquet. You will pardon me if, at this time, I briefly review the work which has been accomplished during the year that will close on the 15th of this month. Since the inception of the club in 1894, when a few men met and banded themselves together into an association known as the United States Bunting Cricket club and Athletic association the society has shown a steady growth in its membership and the grand work which it has accomplished in promoting the game of cricket and other athletic sports; encouraging social intercourse and improving the physical and moral qualities of its members, has won recogni-

After the inner man had been satisfied, President Sam Dean called to order and introduced Mr. Frederick G. Humphriss as the toastmaster of the evening. Mr. Humphriss is the secretary of the club and his activities are well known. His address as toastmaster was the feature of the exercises.

Toastmaster Humphriss spoke in part as follows: "Here's to the club, may it ever be the honest endeavor of each and every one of us to keep the club's name unblemished and untarnished as we received it from our predecessors."

"Mr. President, fellow members of the Bunting Cricket club and friends, I desire to express my sincere thanks for the hon-

tion and high regard for the Bunting club from the best people in our city. "It is then fitting that the members should celebrate each year by a gathering of this kind: the birth of their club in a manner in keeping with the events of its past history. ### MANAGER GRAY

Manager James J. Gray of the Lowell baseball team left Boston at 8 o'clock last night for Philadelphia to take in the world series between the Philadelphia Americans and the Chicago Nationals. He will go with the teams to Chicago when the two games in Philadelphia have been played and intends to witness every game. Manager Gray thinks that the Philadelphia team will win the series because he figures it out that they have the strongest pitching staff, and the pitchers are going to count in this series.

Eczema All Over Baby's Body

"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." ## IN POLICE COURT

Liquor Seizure Near Lakeview Yesterday

A roast pig dinner was held at the residence of Frank Levesque near Lakeview yesterday, but the affair did not prove to be the success that was anticipated. Of course there was plenty of wet goods on the premises and everything was going along nicely until Deputy Sheriff Eveleth and Police Officer William J. Cullinan, the latter of the Collinsville section, put in an appearance. After they had seized a quantity of liquor, the party became disconsolate.

Levesque's place has been raided on several occasions and he has been convicted for the illegal keeping of liquor. The festivities were just beginning when the officers put in an appearance. After making a search of the premises they decided to take the beer and whiskey which they found. They also notified Mr. Levesque to come into court. Levesque was in court this morning, but before his case was called he made his escape and when his case was reached it was found that he had disappeared. The charge against him is illegally keeping liquor.

Austin Will Sattle
Wm. Austin was charged with illegally removing baggage from the boarding house of Winfred Lester. It seems that William boarded at the Lester house and one day while indebted to the woman left the house and took what belonged to him with him. He admitted that he owed the Lester woman money but informed the court that it was his intention to liquidate his indebtedness in the near future. The court placed Austin in the custody of Constable Livingston of Billerica after the latter said that he would see that Austin would pay the bill.

Drunken Offenders
There was a very large list of drunken offenders in court this morning. Some were old timers while others made their first appearance in the jail of cage.

James Mone, John Myers and Daniel McCarthy were sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater while Walter Durkin was given a suspended sentence to the same institution. John Fleming who is on parole, will be returned to the farm.

Matthew Moore was given a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory.

Andrew Carr appeared before the court recently and was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail but he failed to live up to the requirements of his probation and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Patrick Tierney was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail.

Catherine A. Hayes was sentenced to jail for two months and the sentence was suspended.
Thomasine Heroux, charged with drunkenness, was collared but his condition warranted the continuance of the case for one week.

Michael J. Riley, Edward W. Collins, Leonard B. Morse, Timothy Donovan, Jeremiah Toomey, Edward J. Fanning and John J. Keilher were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.

The Sunday drunks were Napoleon, Bastille and Joseph Alasterson, each being fined $5.

There were several first offenders who were fined $2 each and 11 simple drunks, who were released.

Lawrence Cummings, a young man around town, was in court charged with larceny of $5. The case was continued.

EX-JUDGE NOYES DEAD

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—Former Judge Charles Noyes of Boston died here last night from the effects of injuries sustained in an elevator accident three weeks ago. He was 69 years old.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT

BROOKLINE, Oct. 17.—The tall chestnut trees that border the Country club golf links looked down today on some of the best women players of three golfing countries in the special invitation tournament of the Woman's Golf association of Boston. Part of the brilliant field that played in the national championship on the Homewood course at Chicago came on for the Boston event and as few eastern women went to Chicago there was considerable interest in what is generally regarded as a supplementary championship event.

With players from the west, from New York and Philadelphia and from Ontario and England and a strong local field that includes several former title holders, there was plenty of sport on the program even after today's qualifying round for the four flights of eight players each, which will continue tomorrow at match play. The first pair drove off across the broad polo field at 10 a. m. with the remainder of the field following at five minutes intervals. The full championship course of 6083 yards was used and every woman stood on the same tees as those used by the men in the national amateur championship five weeks ago.

The Famous Senator From Iowa is Dead

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Senator Dolliver died Saturday night, while Dr. E. M. Van Patten was examining his heart with a stethoscope. An acute attack of stomach trouble had affected the heart dilation of which was the direct cause of death.

Senator Dolliver had so far recovered from illness as to be able to walk about his lawn. He had been up all day and Saturday night entered his sitting-room for a consultation with his physicians. He informed Dr. Van Patten that he was feeling much improved, and that he believed he had about recovered his normal strength. Dr. Van Patten cautioned him about becoming too anxious to again resume his work.

The senator was sitting in a Morris chair when the physician began the examination of his heart. "I really feel better than at any time since my recent sickness," he said, "but I suppose the wolves will be set howling about my successor." And the senator laughed.

The physician continued his work with the stethoscope, counting the beats of the senator's heart out loud. He was frequently interrupted by Senator Dolliver with the declaration that he was able to hear his own heart. When Dr. Van Patten had counted 14 beats he informed the senator. "That's good," replied Mr. Dolliver. "The most I have been able to count is seven."

The physician continued the examination and suddenly noticed that the heart beats had ceased entirely. The senator died without struggle or pain.

Mrs. Dolliver was on the point of entering the room when her husband died. It was the belief of the physicians that his arduous work in congress had broken him down. Mrs. Dolliver said that while the senator was in Washington he had studied tariff

SEN. JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER.

FOUR LIVES LOST

Car Jumped the Rails at Cambridge and Charles Streets in Boston—Policemen and Firemen Dragged Passengers From the Car

The dead:
ARTHUR W. RICE, blind, 28 years old, lived at 181 Windsor street, Cambridge. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

JOHN JOSEPH WALSH, motorman, 79 Summer street, Watertown. Died at Massachusetts General hospital.

DENNIS MAHAR, 30 yrs. old, killed instantly, lived at 148 Cypress street, Watertown. Body at North Grove street morgue.

THOMAS F. CANAVAN, U. S. soldier, probably stationed at Watertown arsenal.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Four persons are dead and about 50 injured, some of them seriously, as a result of an electric car accident which occurred at 7:30 Saturday evening on Cambridge street near Charles, West End. A 13-ton Watertown inbound car left the rails as it came off the new West Boston bridge, turned end for end and then crashed over onto its side, hurling about 60 passengers into a writhing, screaming mass, some dead and others terribly injured.

The car was a few minutes late leaving Watertown. Most of the passengers argued that when it came to the incline of the bridge it seemed to be running away from the motorman.

A few feet west of Charles street there is an electric switch and the motorman attempted to throw this switch so that his car would proceed up Cambridge street into Bowdoin square. But just before he reached the switch the front end of the car seemed to jump in the air, the forward trucks left the tracks and started off to the south side of the street, while the rear trucks left the rails and raced ahead and turned the car around so that the forward end was facing Cambridge, when of a sudden the car turned over on its side toward the north.

Instantly the lights went out and the imprisoned passengers, numbering about 60, began to scream and battle for a chance to escape.

The rear trucks, to which is hung a motor, were turned completely over. Taken Out of Windows
Men rushed out of the saloons, stores, houses and the park and went to the aid of the injured passengers. They caught a hold of the car and struggled with it in an endeavor to lift it up and turn it but they were unable to do this.

A body ran to box 26 and sent in an alarm of fire at 7:32. The firemen came, but in the meantime Patrolman Thomas Foley and Thomas Hannon of Hancock place, who was standing with the policeman at the corner and who witnessed the accident, rushed to the car and began breaking in the windows. Then they pulled men and women out and escorted them to stores and shops nearby, where they were attended.

Eleven persons were taken to the eye and ear dispensary on Charles street and given temporary treatment and then sent in carriages to hospitals and their homes.

A large number were temporarily treated in the store on the corner of Charles and Cambridge streets and then removed to the hospitals.

After the firemen arrived short work was made of the rescuing of the imprisoned passengers.

According to present plans the obsequies will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Spencer, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Fort Dodge. Bishop Luther B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, Dr. Frank G. Gunsalus of Chicago, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of New York city, and Gov. B. F. Carroll of Iowa have been invited to make funeral orations for the senior senator of Iowa.

If the weather is good on Thursday, the services will be held on the lawn of the Dolliver home. If this is not feasible, the orations will be delivered in the First Methodist church.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery, Fort Dodge, by the side of Senator Dolliver's parents.

Senator A. B. Cummins arrived yesterday to assist the family in its bereavement and to aid in carrying out the arrangements for the funeral. Everybody in Fort Dodge is in mourning for the loss of the town's most noted citizen. The suddenness of the senator's death caused a shock from which the people have not yet recovered. Saturday evening a little more than an hour before death came, Senator Dolliver chatted cheerfully with Mayor S. J. Bennett, a life long friend. Only an hour before his demise, Mr. Dolliver spoke hopefully of his recovery to District Judge R. M. Wright, who called to ask after the senator's health.

During the afternoon Senator Dolliver took a walk in his garden which had been one of his pleasures. He seemed well and talked to several callers in the shade of a large tree, where he rehearsed many of the speeches which made him famous. The senator spoke to his visitors optimistically and incidentally mentioned some plans for the future.

Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy poured in on Mrs. Dolliver yesterday from all parts of the country. Nearly every member of both houses of congress sent condolences. Messages also came from most of the governors and from the president, cabinet officers and other public men.

The "Gentleman From Mississippi" is a political play that bears a wholesome lesson in clean politics. It shows what one honest man can do to overcome a whole host of corruptionists. At one point the hero of the play dilates upon the force of public opinion and his estimate is not overdrawn, for in spite of exceptional cases it is public opinion that rules the world today.

MAP OF THE SUBWAYS

The Boston Elevated Railway company should issue a plain map showing strangers how to make their way through the labyrinthine underground system of transit in the city of Boston. The East Boston tunnel, the Washington street tunnel and other branches of the system recently added have rendered it more complicated and more perplexing to strangers. A map showing the connections between the great centres of travel such as the depots and boat landings would be very useful.

WELLMAN'S GREAT PROJECT

That any of the aviators should even consider the project of flying across the Atlantic is in itself astonishing; but more marvelous still is the fact that any of them should be equipped to make the trip. Walter Wellman with his great dirigible balloon, his three engines, his life boat and four men showed his confidence in what he can do, on Saturday when he started out upon the ocean in a fog from Atlantic City. He has been preparing to make a flight to Europe, and although he may fail in the first, second or third attempt it is almost a certainty that he or somebody else will eventually succeed in making the voyage in the air. The flights from Albany to New York, from Chicago to St. Louis, and even from the Atlantic to the Pacific are but the elementary steps in aviation. The feat of crossing the Atlantic will be the next great performance by the aviators.

BETTER AS A LABOR PARTY

The American Federation of Labor refused to be drawn into the snare of allowing the organization to be disrupted and destroyed by embarking on the seething sea of politics.

No level-headed labor leader would favor such a course. The American Federation of Labor has been steered clear of such dangerous shoals as this in the past and it will do well to pursue the same course in the future. What would it amount to as a political party? Instead of becoming stronger in politics it would soon lose the influence it wields at the present time.

As a labor party the American Federation of Labor can advocate the rights of labor; it can fight for the enactment of better labor laws, and as a labor party it is immeasurably more potent than it would be as a political party.

Gompers and Mitchell have always avoided identification with any political party and in this they brought strength to the great labor organizations of which they were the recognized heads.

It will be well for other leaders to imitate their course in this respect. The A. F. of L. in this state has adopted the only logical course for a labor organization to pursue and its good judgment is widely recognized in resisting the temptation to adopt a course that could result only in ruin and disaster.

TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES

In view of the enormous losses in life and property resulting from forest fires in this country, it is very plain that more strict regulations must be adopted in order to prevent such losses in the future.

In this part of the country the forests are left practically unprotected. Tramps can roam therein at will; they can light fires, smoke and do anything they please once they enter the woods. The result is disastrous forest fires that sometimes wipe out large forests worth many thousands of dollars and even threaten whole towns and villages.

Even children are in the habit of going to the woods to start brush fires for the fun of the thing. The local firemen realize the extent of this danger, for they are called in scores of cases every year to extinguish brush fires started by children who flee as soon as they see the fire become dangerous. Thus children are trained to setting fires in the woods and as they grow older they are likely to keep up this habit.

All this should be stopped and severe penalties should be imposed by law for anybody who sets a fire in woods where it is liable to spread. Whether the forest is valuable or not is not considered by those whose only aim in starting a fire is mere amusement.

The losses annually in the west resulting from forest fires is enormous. In our own vicinity we have had several bad forest fires recently and all as a result of a blaze started here or there by boys or tramps with the utmost disregard as to results.

The law should resemble that by which the forests in some European countries are protected. In these countries it is forbidden to smoke except under certain specified conditions which ensure safety. If we adopted like precautions against forest fires our annual losses from that cause would soon be greatly reduced.

SEEN AND HEARD

If a girl wants to captivate a young man she ought never to go with him on a yachting party unless she is dead sure that she won't be seasick.

Occasionally a man may take up the profession of medicine because of a deep-seated interest in the welfare of the human race, but the doctor must always choose his job for the money that is in it.

A boy seldom turns out well if his father gives him all the money he wants.

The only advantage about hearing the man who tells stultifying stories is that it takes him longer, so that he can't tell so many in a given time.

Never bet unless you can get odds of at least nine to five. As you can almost never get such odds, following this rule may save you a great deal of money.

It must be very trying to wait on a hotel table. It is bad enough to wait at one.

HOPING FOR THE BEST

Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best; They will tie knots in his trousers and sew up his coat and vest; They will have him in a frazzle, they will throw him in a well; And they'll proudly ostracize him; if he ever dares to tell.

They will teach him lots of habits 'we have warned him he should shun; They will press him into football and they'll break his bones for fun; They'll convince him the big studies are of no account at all; And despite him if he doesn't mix in every silly brawl.

He will have to learn that prexy is unworthy of respect.

And become a noisy ruffian to be one of the elect; They'll endeavor to persuade him that the course is all a jest—Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best.

Yes, Samuel, you have the idea: A man's vocation is what he likes to do. His vocation is what he has to do.

Errors which sometimes creep into the daily papers cause considerable mortification. Nearly every one has read of the reporter who described a shooting affair as follows: The man was shot once in the left breast and twice in the barber shop. Also the brief story that "The Chinaman fell, and broke his leg just below the opium joint."

One of the most famous mistakes that ever got into a metropolitan paper was in Chicago in connection with a fire, when a number of persons were rescued.

The fire occurred late at night. The night city editor who "handled" the story marked the copy when it went to the printer with directions to send him proofs so that he could make certain there were no errors. Here is the way the story appeared in the paper:

"The young woman appeared at the window, flames bursting about her head, her hair disheveled and with wild eyes shrieked: "RUSH! PROOF! TO NEVE!"

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Alfred Tennyson Dickens, the eldest surviving son of Charles Dickens, has arrived in England after forty-five years' absence in Australia. Mr. Dickens will begin soon a long tour of the United Kingdom with his lecture entertainment, "My Father's Life and Works."

"In the days of my boyhood I was constantly with my father," Mrs. Dickens said recently, "and I have many interesting reminiscences of him, which I shall hope to relate to a London audience in the course of my tour. The entertainment consists mainly of anecdotes interspersed with recitations from my father's works."

"My first ten years in Australia were spent in the bush, until I married and settled in Melbourne. For the last twenty years, I have lectured in Australia, where my father's novels are immensely popular, and the name of Dickens is one to conjure with."

Mr. Dickens, a grandson of Tennyson, was born in 1845.

There will shortly be on sale throughout the kingdom the Dickens testimonial stamp, which has been chosen as the most effective way of celebrating the centenary of the novelist's birth. It is an original form of memorial, which is expected to touch the sympathies of the great community who read the works of Dickens and esteem his memory. There are twenty-four million copies of the works extant, and the proposal is that the possessors of them shall purchase a penny stamp to affix to each volume.

From London has come the announcement of the engagement of the actor-aviator, Robert Leighton, and Maria Lohr, who acted in the musical comedy company for two years. Miss Lohr, who is pretty and attractive, is regarded as one of the cleverest sentimental heroines on the English stage.

In appreciation of his interest in the French people and in French institutions, the decoration of "Officer of the Legion of Honor" has been conferred on President Judson of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Annette M. Mills, who started the first and as yet the only school for the deaf in China, has started on her return trip to Chee Poo, having succeeded in persuading the foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church to take the school, for which she has heretofore carried all the responsibility, under its patronage. At the farewell service held for Mrs. Mills at the board's headquarters in New York, Dr. Arthur J. Brown said a large amount of money had been contributed toward the endowment fund, especially by inmates of the 125 homes for the deaf in this country. There are several fellowships too, supported by children in deaf schools of this country. "There are four hundred thousand deaf mutes in China," Mrs. Mills said, "and their fate is most pitiful. The community despises them, and they are frequently sold into slavery."

The Boston Symphony orchestra has been experiencing this fall the difficulty of obtaining passages to America from Europe at certain seasons. During the last summer it engaged a number of musicians in Europe, including a double bass player, a viola player, a bassoonist and a trumpeter and a new trombone. Some of these men will not be able to get here until the early part of November, owing to the absolute impossibility of getting passage for them earlier.

EXPORT FIGURES

SHOW AMERICANS ARE GOING AFTER FOREIGN TRADE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Americans are going after the foreign trade harder than ever before and they are getting it. This is shown by the export figures of the United States for September. During that month there was a distinct upward movement, the total value of exports being larger than in any previous September in the history of the export trade. This marked advance was largely due to heavy exports of cotton at unusually high prices. The cotton exports for the month amounted to 499,000,000 pounds, valued at $112,212,208, an increase of almost $22,000,000 over the same period last year.

Exports valued at $168,355,093 were shipped during September. This exceeded the total of any month of the current year, and also the total of September, 1909, by almost $15,000,000. For the nine months ending with September, the total exports amounted to $1,112,212,208, an increase of almost $22,000,000 over the same period last year.

The quantity of cotton exported during September was larger than in any September since 1904, the value greater than any September in the history of the export trade and the export price around nine more than any September since 1875.

During September the value of goods shipped out of the country exceeded the imports by $51,557,075, this excess being larger than in any preceding September except 1897 and 1900. For the nine months ending with September there was an excess of exports over imports of $50,535,298.

INJURIES FATAL

BOY WAS HIT BY AN ELECTRIC CAR

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 17.—Isador Katz, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Katz of 42 Abbey street, Chicopee, was struck by a south-bound Holyoke trolley car at the corner of Riverdale and Ashley streets at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and fatally injured.

Young Katz, with companions, Kaufman Myers and Edward Hanley, both of Chicopee, were chestnutting. Young Katz, without noticing the approaching trolley, crossed the tracks, and upon seeing his companions were not following, started back and was caught by the trolley.

The car was going at a high rate of speed and the boy was thrown considerable distance, landing on his head. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and removed to the Springfield hospital, where an examination disclosed a crushed skull and internal injuries from which he died at 8 o'clock.

BOY WAS KILLED

While Trying to Help Light Inspector

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Rushing to the assistance of A. C. Braley, light inspector for the Edison Electric and Illuminating company, who was making repairs on an arc light at the corner of Aiton street and Robinson court last evening, Eddie Donohue, aged 14, of 55 Maple avenue, son of Mrs. Catherine Donohue, took hold of the shade of the light and was almost instantly killed by the shock.

This light is on a 3500-volt circuit and 2200 volts are believed to have passed through the youth's body. Young Donohue, accompanied by Leo Kennedy, aged 12, of 22 Southworth court, was on his way to Perkins park. Inspector Braley was at work on the light, standing it by means of a rope. Without any warning young Donohue took hold of the shade, apparently intending to hold it or Braley. He instantly dropped to the ground. He was carried into the automobile garage of W. H. Marble, nearby, by Braley and Young Kennedy and Medical Examiner A. Elliott Paine summoned. The boy was dead before he was lifted from the ground.

Mrs. Donohue was notified of the death of her son. She ran from her house to the garage, crying loudly and calling for her son. Before she reached the garage she was assisted to an automobile and taken home again, as it was apparent she was in no condition to see the body. Young Donohue was the oldest child of Mrs. Donohue, who is a widow. He was an office boy at the shoe factory of the George H. Snow company.

Four Persons Met Death in Accidents Yesterday

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Simon W. O'Brien, aged 32, of Randolph was instantly killed in an automobile accident on Battles street shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning. His skull was fractured by coming in contact with a tree at the side of the road. Four other occupants of the auto, George H. Littlefield of Avon, Thomas Mullen, Thomas Boyle and Leo Hurley of Randolph, had narrow escapes from injury.

The auto, which was driven by Mr. Littlefield, who owns it, was wrecked at this point, the position of the automobile after the accident indicated that the machine must have been going at tremendous speed.

Forty feet from the point where the machine left the road stood a big tree, with roots protruding from the ground. One of the front wheels struck a root with such force as to toss the machine into the air to a height of 12 feet. As the auto changed its course and passed by the tree it is believed O'Brien, who was sitting on that side of the machine, lost his balance and his head swung out, coming in contact with the tree. His body was found 30 feet from the tree.

After coming in contact with the root the automobile hurdled the road and landed squarely at the side of some bushes, 30 feet distant from the tree.

All of the occupants except O'Brien retained their seats and escaped injury. They immediately began a search for O'Brien and found him in a pool of blood in some bushes five feet away from the automobile. He was dead, the back part of his head having been crushed in.

The Brockton police were notified and Medical Examiner Paine and Patrolman Lindom went to the scene in a police automobile. All of the men except Littlefield are said to have left the scene, walking back to Randolph.

The policeman guarded the body until the arrival of an undertaker from Brockton.

The automobile, which was left at the side of the road, was removed yesterday forenoon to Avon.

Simon O'Brien was one of the best-known young men in Randolph. He was a son of the late William P. O'Brien, who was a shoe manufacturer of Randolph. He was employed in the making room at the Richards & Brennan factory. He made his home with his three sisters. A brother, Frank O'Brien, is a police officer in Philadelphia.

AUTO SKIDDED

HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—Skidding along a slippery road into a ditch in West Holyoke early yesterday, an automobile owned and driven by James J. Reardon tipped over, killing Mr. Reardon, fracturing an arm of Miss McCarthy, one of the occupants and slightly injuring A. F. Cayer and Miss McDonald, both of Springfield.

Mr. Reardon was a widower, 41 years old, and the proprietor of a hotel in this city. Miss McCarthy is also a resident of this city.

The party was coming from Springfield to Holyoke when the accident occurred. The machine skidded in going around a curve and crashed into a fence post by the roadside, breaking the forward axle and tipping over into a ditch. Mr. Reardon was pinned beneath the seat and probably died instantly. The others were thrown from the car, Miss McCarthy being the only one hurt badly enough to need a physician's attention. She was able to go to her home.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

No musical comedy of recent years has ever created the future throughout New England that the famous "Isle of Spice" has. After one of the longest runs on record in Boston it went on tour through New England playing to enormous business at high prices. During the engagement this week at the Opera House of the Kitzes and Phelan Amusement company "The Isle of Spice" will be given its first presentation here at popular prices, with George Ovey, the funny comedian of the company, in the leading comedy role, assisted by a talented company of 40 people, consisting of singers, dancers and, above all, pretty girls.

"The Isle of Spice" contains many famous song hits, all of which have been retained, among which may be mentioned the famous "Goo Goo Man," "Peggy Brady," "How Can You Tell 'Till You Try," and "Uncle Sam's Marines." A feature of the production will be the scenery used especially for "The Isle of Spice." Special scenery and costumes are used for each musical comedy during the week, and it is safe to say that this will be the biggest entertainment ever offered at popular prices.

Daily matinee will be the rule during the engagement of the company, and the prices will be: Evenings 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents; matinees 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company opens its engagement here tonight, presenting "A Knight for a Day."

"THE JOLLY BACHELORS"

A company of more than a hundred is required to interpret the musical and dancing numbers in "The Jolly Bachelors," the biggest of all the big "Lowell" shows, which is coming to the Opera House soon.

The principals include such widely known artists as Miss Stella Mayhew, one of the funniest women on the American stage; Miss Lucy Weston, the dainty English singer, who has recently been one of the biggest "head-liners" in vaudeville; Al Leach, easily the foremost scenic dancer on our stage; Roy Atwell, Billie Taylor, Harold Crane, Norman Thorpe, Miss Betty Sawyer and Nat Fields. The big chorus has been rehearsed under the personal direction of Ned Wayburn.

Spectacularly the piece outranks anything of the sort ever presented in this country. Five bachelors are being required to transport the scenery and properties. "The Jolly Bachelors" succeeded "The Midnight Song" at the Broadway theatre early last winter and attained an equal measure of success with metropolitan theatregoers.

THEATRE VOYONS

There is seldom a more touching friendship than that which exists between the owner of horses and dogs and his dumb friends. In "The Friends," shown today at the Theatre Voyons, a poor old man's only friends are his horse and dog, and the story woven around this attachment is pathetic and at the same time natural and beautiful. Another picture that will attract a good deal of attention is "The Song That Reached His Heart," a story of the effect that that good old song "Annie Laurie" has on a down and out western miner. In his childhood this song was his mother's favorite and in several critical periods of his life his hearing the long forgotten song causes a change in his life. It is a well carried out picture with every detail brought out to its fullest extent and one that is acted in an unapproachable manner in connection with this picture several novel musical effects will be introduced. "A Summer Pilgrimage" will show the funny side of a vacation in which several young people got into very embarrassing situations.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Tom Nawn, the most original and ingratiating Irish comedian in the business, will appear at Hathaway's this week in his latest and best comedy sketch, "When Pat Was King," another chapter in the history of the adventures of the ubiquitous Pat, whom Mr. Nawn has made famous. "Pat and the Genie" and the other sketches brought out by Mr. Nawn have convulsed thousands of vaudeville-goers, but his newest offering goes them all one better. Another patent number which will conduce to the general happiness is Russell and Smith's "Minstrel," with Joe B. McGee, "The Mark Twain Kid." The production is the presentation of a complete old-time minstrel first part, with all the snap and sparkle attending the best performance of this kind ever given in vaudeville. Sweet singing, funny jesting by the end men, picturesque marches and lively dances, and brilliant costumes and stage effects—absolutely nothing is lacking. Fred Russell, who heads the company, is one of the best known and most popular burlesque artists on the stage; and Joe B. McGee, as his stage title implies, is an imitator of successful impersonations. The company comprises six people, all of whom contribute prominently to the audience's enjoyment. Edith A. Montrose will present one of the latest novelties in vaudeville, "A Bundle of Art." In the course of her kaleidoscopic Protean act, Miss Montrose impersonates a society belle, an Italian girl, Irish girl, old hag, and Dutch girl; and pathos, mirth and popular songs are interestingly blended in the act. Not only is Miss Montrose clever in her makeup and dramatic work, but she has an original line of rapid-fire comedy conversation which keeps the audience in good humor while she is preparing for each character. Miss Montrose is a darling woman athlete, gives a pretty and picturesque exhibition on the trapeze, and a solo acrobatic, and his remarkable trick does give an interesting performance. Melodious singing and witty repartee are dispensed by Ingalls and Reading, a man and woman. Ray W. Snow, the monologist, should prove a good acquisition to the show. Motion pictures close the bill.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The first recital of the season at the Lowell Conservatory of Music was held Saturday afternoon, and an excellent program was carried out, those who took part were as follows: The Misses Bernice Knight, Violet Broad, Elizabeth Crossley, Ellen Christensen, Vera Pitt, Mary Walsh, Marguerite McGinnis, Elsie Bayard, Ruth Blackie and Marion Blodgett and Raymond Gladie, assisted by Miss S. Isabelle Willey and Miss Ruth Barney.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Another great show is offered at the Academy today, including the Stepping Trio, vivacious singers and dancers, Harvey Sauter, juvenile character skunk monologist and H. A. Huguenot & Co., four people presenting a screaming farce entitled "The Deceivers." New moving pictures will complete the bill. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

STAR THEATRE

From the time that burlesque and variety shows were in their infancy, Charlie Hamilton, the well known Irish comedian, can be pictured in a funny bit, surrounded by pretty girls and characters in the piece. This week the same Charlie Hamilton is at the Star with a show that is there with funny situations and good musical numbers.

Four big acts of vaudeville are presented, in addition to the whirly girl first part and the afterpiece, "The Lobster Man."

Having increased the seating capacity of the theatre by recent renovation, the management has decreased the price of admission afterwards, excepting Saturdays and holidays, to five and ten cents. The admission includes a seat, there being only a few reserved seats at ten cents.

HEAR MacMILLAN TONIGHT.

The program, full of interest to all classes of music lovers, that Francis MacMillan will play this evening in Lowell is sure to please. He is the third artist of first rank, heard in this city in a long time, the other two being Harold Bauer and Schumann-Helink.

MacMillan is at once a musician, poet, impassioned and manly. Do not miss this chance of hearing one of the world's greatest artists playing an instrument that is known the world over for its luscious tones—a genuine "Strad."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Carter, Taylor & Co. are a vaudeville team which deals in just one thing, and that is laughter. They have a very generous package of the mirth provoking stuff in their sketch "In Camp Rest" which will be presented at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week.

Fred Greenhall is an English comedian, just perfectly rippling, too don't you know. He has some brand new songs to sing, songs fresh from English music halls, and jokes which though English, are American enough to carry the witty tank one demands of the best comedians.

There are also Hanson & Co. They are vaudevilleans, and of a new order. The scenic stock company, already a favorite with the patrons of the house, will present one of the daintiest one act plays ever, in "Hearts and Flowers," with a real love story and lots of sentiment. Its a dandy little play, in very truth, another from the pen of Mr. Mackay.

"HOLY CITY"

GAUL'S CANTATA SUNDAY AT KIRK STREET CHURCH

Gaul's sacred cantata, "The Holy City," was presented before a large congregation at the Kirk Street church last evening.

The cantata is one that can be given to advantage with a strong chorus. Lacking this, the church quartet undertook to interpret the music by the solos, duets and two quartets, giving a most sympathetic and pleasing singing of the words, which were made more effective by being read by the pastor before each number. Mrs. William G. Spence and Miss May L. Dwyer in their solos and duets, and Edward R. Worth and Charles H. Howard in their solo and quartet work, never lost sight of the dramatic strength of this well known and always satisfying work.

Arthur C. Spalding was especially effective in his organ work, which was reinforced by Sybil's orchestra, which had a worthy part to play in an hour of favorite hymn singing that the congregation took part in before the singing of the cantata.

Rev. Mr. Craig in a brief address emphasized the value of church music and its mission in exalting the mind and heart. Unless it did this, it was a failure, he said, as sermon and prayers were a failure unless they lifted the heart to God.

Ran Over Bodies, Too. Dry and Very Crusty—Used Cuticura and Did No More Scratching. Eczema Disappeared in 6 Weeks.

Now More Than Two Years Ago and No Sign of Trouble Has Returned.

"My two children suffered from an affection of the face and hands. It started first with little red spots which afterwards got bigger until they were the size of five-cent pieces. The outside became dry and very crusty. The rash on their faces was awful and afterwards it ran over the body too."

"I had a doctor for them but he could not help. Then I read of the Cuticura Remedies. As I am a chemist, having served my apprenticeship in Germany, I did not have much confidence in them. Yet I was soon taught something better. For after I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent the first time the children felt very well and did no more scratching. Then the eczema became dry and entirely disappeared after about six weeks' treatment. This is now more than two years ago and no sign of the trouble has returned, therefore I can recommend the Cuticura Remedies without reserve to all people who are suffering with eczema. William Grelek, 12 Douglas St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Mar. 10, 1910."

Cuticura Soap (40c), Cuticura Ointment (50c), Cuticura Resolvent (50c) of Cuticura, Inc. are sold throughout the world. Peter Bore & Co., Inc., Sole Importers, 33-35 West 4th St., New York City.

MASCOONE MAY DIE

Shooting Affray in "Little Italy" at Millinocket

MILLINOCKET, Me., Oct. 17.—The most of the Italian population of "Little Italy" as well as the local officers are scouring the town and the surrounding country looking for Luca Ottoboro, who it is alleged shot Alphonso Mascone here last night.

Most of the Italians are armed and wildly excited and declare that they will kill Ottoboro on sight. Mascone has a wound in the head, which the physicians say will be fatal. He is a very popular member of the colony, hence the anxiety of his friends to find Ottoboro.

The shooting broke up a big social event, as most of the colony was gathered at the house of Francesco Benedetti at a christening of his grandchild, which was the occasion of a big feast, with plenty of Italian wine and beer. Ottoboro was one of the guests and was seen to get up and go out. A revolver shot was heard outside and the guests rushed out to find Mascone on the ground with blood pouring from a gaping wound in his head and Ottoboro missing.

No one appears to know the reason for the assault, and no one can be found who saw the actual shooting. Ottoboro is about 25 years old, rather light complexion for an Italian, stocky build, with black curly hair. He has been here about three months.

A general alarm has been sent out for his capture. Mascone has been here for some time, was one of the best known residents of Little Italy and known as an expert brick mason. He is 35 years-old and unmarried.

Ottoboro was captured shortly before midnight, hiding in a shack on the outskirts of the town. He broke away and ran, followed by a fusillade of shots, but was chased for nearly half a mile, where he was finally bottled up in a culvert into which he had crawled. Only the presence of Deputy Sheriff Gates and other officers saved him from violence by the enraged Italians, and he is now guarded in the police station.

Further investigation indicates that the shot was fired into a group of several Italians who were in a fight outside of the Benedetti house. Ottoboro has a badly mangled ear, as if it had been bitten. After he had fired the shot the crowd closed in upon him, but he managed to break away from them. The revolver with which the shooting was done was found—a .32 caliber high grade, with a pearl handle.

It is generally thought that the shot was fired at random and that Ottoboro had no designs on Mascone in particular. Mascone is in a very critical condition, and his death is said to be a matter of a short time.

IN AN ACCIDENT

Aged Man Seriously Injured by Fall

John King, aged about 60 years, fell down a flight of stairs at his home, 50 Willis street, about 11:30 o'clock last night and sustained a bad scalp wound and possibly a fracture of the skull. The ambulance was called and the man was rushed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious and serious condition. At the hospital it was said, after an examination, that the man was suffering from a severe scalp wound, but that no trace of a fracture had at that time been discovered, though there might be one.

Struck by a Car
Harry Agnew, a small boy residing in Alken street, was struck by an electric car in Central street about nine o'clock last night. The motorman of the car was unable to prevent the accident. The boy was playing tag in the street and without any warning whatsoever ran into the car. The car was in charge of Conductor Leving and Motorman J. J. Sheehan. Both rushed to the assistance of the lad, who appeared to be more frightened than hurt. Investigation could disclose only an injured knee, and the boy was taken to Merrimack square, and from there transferred to his home.

MONSTER PARADE

Holy Name Society's Big Demonstration

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—Under the banners of the Holy Name society and to the music of a thousand masculine voices without a band, 20,000 men marched through the city's streets yesterday as a demonstration of the society's campaign against blasphemy. In front of the cathedral a gathering, it is estimated, of 50,000 knelt on the lawn and in the streets when, at the conclusion of the parade Bishop Canevin assisted by several priests administered the sacrament in the open air.

LARGE GATHERING

At Meeting of M. T. I. Held Yesterday

The Mathew Temperance Institute held a largely attended meeting at its rooms yesterday morning with President James J. Gallagher in the chair. Three new members were admitted and three propositions were received. The treasurer's report showed that the affair of October 10th was a financial success.

James F. McGovern of Woburn, a deputy of the society, was introduced for remarks and gave a talk on total abstinence. President Gallagher announced to the members that on next Sunday evening in Associate hall a mass meeting in the interest of the Mathew Temperance Institute would be held commencing at 8 o'clock. He urged the members to be present and also to invite their friends, as the meeting will be an interesting one and is open to the general public. Many speakers will be present, including President John T. Shea of the C. T. A. Union of Boston. A musical program has been arranged for this occasion and several Lowell singers have volunteered their services.

The object of this meeting has been outlined by a committee consisting of the board of trustees and the building fund with the following members: James J. Gallagher, president; Peter F. Brady, treasurer; Patrick McCann, John T. Ralls, John J. Guthrie, Thomas Tague, John A. McKenna, and James F. Rourke, secretary.

A committee of three was appointed, consisting of Peter F. Brady, Hugh J. Molloy and James F. Rourke, to draft a set of resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Katherine McManus, mother of Rev. Thomas F. McManus, the first spiritual director of the Mathew Temperance Institute, whose death occurred recently in Brookline.

IRWIN IS NAMED

For Dist. Atty. at Second Convention

WALTHAM, Oct. 17.—After a session lasting four hours, the legality of which may be tested before the ballot law commission, the democrats of Middlesex county, in their second convention, Saturday, nominated James J. Irwin of Everett for district attorney. His name, unless the convention is ruled to be illegal, will go on the ballot in place of John J. Higgins of Somerville, who was named at the so-called "snap" convention at Lowell last week, but who later declined to accept.

Legality Questioned
The question of the legality of Saturday's convention rose on the admission to seats of delegates whose credentials were declared to be defective. The credential committee, in making its report just after the opening of the session, announced that 75 credentials had been received, but that 25 of these were not properly signed. After a long discussion the convention voted, however, to seat all who had presented credentials, regardless of whether they were defective or not. Immediately Thomas L. Keefe of Everett secured the floor and declared his intention of taking the matter to the state ballot law commission.

By the time the convention was ready to vote on the nomination the number of delegates had shrunk to 65. Of these 65 cast their ballots for Irwin and five for Higgins. An objection on the part of one of the Somerville delegates prevented the nomination being made unanimous.

Following the district attorney convention the county convention was called and the following nominations were made:

For county commissioner for three years, Dexter C. Whittemore of Carlisle.

For sheriff, Whitfield S. Tuck of Winchester.

Charles T. Daly of Medford was chairman of the convention and John F. O'Hann of Everett secretary. At the convention held in Lowell a week ago Friday, the following nominations were made:

For district attorney—John J. Higgins.

For high sheriff—John B. Fairbairn. For county commissioner—James T. O'Hann and Dexter C. Whittemore. For assistant county commissioners—Charles H. Burns and George D. Wilkins.

REMARKABLE TRIP

Dirigible Balloon Journeyed From Compeigne to London

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Another chapter was added to the history of aviation yesterday, when the French dirigible balloon Clement-Bayard made the voyage from Compeigne to London in the remarkable time of six hours, a journey requiring seven hours by the fastest train and boats. Compeigne is 45 miles northeast of Paris, and about 15 miles by air route to London.

This is also the first occasion on which the dirigible balloon has crossed the English channel. The over-water route occupied 45 minutes.

The Clement-Bayard left Compeigne at 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning and reached London without a stop at about 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The dirigible carried M. Clement, of the Clement-Bayard firm, in command; Baudry and LaPrinze, steersmen; Sebattier, engineer and designer; two mechanicians and Arthur Philip Ducros, member of the British parliamentary aerial defense committee.

The course was by way of Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne and the balloon was steered steadily by aid of the compass.

Occasional wind gusts caused some slight rocking of the balloon, but otherwise the journey proved steady. The French government provided three torpedo boat destroyers, which proved of great assistance in crossing the channel. The Clement-Bayard reached Boulogne at 10:20 and Polkstone at 11:20. Over the channel there was little wind, but a heavy haze.

The whirling of the engines and propeller attracted the attention of crowds of sightseers in Folkestone and other towns, and the balloon arrived over London just as the streets were filled with the great Sunday crowds leaving the churches. The appearance of the monster over the houses caused the people to wonder, and hundreds of thousands gathered to watch the aeronauts, who now experienced some trouble with the varying air currents and eddies. On this account they circled St. Paul's and the Tower bridge twice, dipped several times and flew closely over the tops of buildings. They passed over the houses of parliament and along to Hyde Park, where there was a wild scramble by spectators.

The dirigible landed safely in Wormwood Scrubs, after describing large descending circles, aided by a detachment of soldiers. M. Clement said that he was exceedingly well pleased with the behavior of the airship.

STATIONARY ENGINEERS

Lowell association, No. 17, National Association of Stationary Engineers, held a well attended smoke talk Saturday night at its quarters. There was a large attendance of members, including a number of out of town people. James E. Donnelly and Frank McCarlin gave songs, while Arthur McHugh accompanied on the piano. Past National President Hogan of Boston gave a very interesting address on the work of the N. A. S. E. National Vice President Kearney also was present and made some interesting remarks on the welfare of the order. Refreshments were served.

AFTER $35,000 PRIZE

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Henry Wymnalen, the Dutch aviator, holder of the world's altitude record, and M. Legagneux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made a remarkable trip in biplanes yesterday from Paris to Brussels in an attempt to win prizes aggregating $35,000 offered for a successful flight with passenger from this city to Brussels and return.

Wymnalen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely last evening in St. Quentin. Legagneux decided to stop over for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early today.

The distance between the two points is about 170 miles as the crow flies, and the distance between Brussels and St. Quentin approximates 80 miles. The daring Hollanders, therefore, covered about 260 miles with passenger.

Wymnalen covered the distance to Brussels in five hours and 38 minutes. Legagneux with one stop, made it in five hours.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's a nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

HELD FOR MURDER

Widow and Man Were Placed Under Arrest

Body Cast Up at Hull Identified as That of Woman's Husband — Stained Axe Was Found — Other Evidence Discovered in Victim's Home

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The body found Friday on the Bayside shore, Hull, was identified yesterday as that of Francis Cuesumano of Bayside, who has been missing since Sept. 18. Mrs. Lena Cuesumano, the widow, and Enrico Mascioli, alias Harry Marshall, a boarder at the Cuesumano home, were arrested, charged with murder.

Enrico Salvatore, another boarder, was arrested also. The police think he was a witness of the murder and may aid in the conviction of Mascioli and Mrs. Cuesumano.

The state and Hull police are working on the theory that Cuesumano was murdered in his own house and his body carried to the shore and thrown into the water, heavily weighted.

The first incident that aided in solution of the mystery was the visit of Patrick Caruso to the Downings, undertaking rooms in Hingham yesterday morning. The body was decomposed and disfigured, but Caruso said he was reasonably sure it was the corpse of Cuesumano.

Charles Lauro, Cuesumano's brother-in-law, made the identification positive from birthmarks. Lauro crossed himself time and again while looking at the body, and kissed the quilt in which it was wrapped when found on the shore.

Cuesumano lived on Eighth street, with his wife and three children. The eldest child, Margaret, is 11 years old. Mascioli has been a boarder with the family for some time.

As soon as Lauro had confirmed the identification, Chief of Police Reynolds and Patrolman Harry Tremaine and Eugene Mitchell, Jr., went to the Cuesumano home and told Mascioli and Mrs. Cuesumano they had better view the body. Neither Mascioli nor the woman appeared interested in the invitation, but on being pressed, decided to go.

They both declared that they could not say positively that it was Cuesumano's body. At first Mascioli said the corpse the woman broke down and wept hysterically. Mascioli held an attitude of indifference. Margaret Cuesumano was taken to the morgue, also, she did not recognize her father, but when shown the quilt in which the body was wrapped, exclaimed: "I know that's my father's quilt."

As soon as Mrs. Cuesumano regained herself the trio started home. When they stepped from the car at Bayside the woman and Mascioli were arrested.

Telltale Traces at House
Meanwhile the police had searched the Cuesumano home. Under the front piazza they discovered a spot where the earth appeared newly disturbed. They unearthed an axe spotted with dark brown blotches, supposed to be those of human blood. In the cellar a woman's skirt was found with slashes of blood upon it and a man's shirt similar marked. In a corner of the cellar they found a small but strongly built two wheeled cart. They pulled it into the light and were thrilled at the sight of the bottom and sides covered with the same dark blotches. Caught in a splinter on one side of the cart was what seemed to be a tuft of human hair.

These were hastily gathered together and removed from the house. They will be sent for analysis to determine whether the marks are those of human blood. The house will be guarded night and day until the case is cleared up.

According to Mrs. Cuesumano, her husband left home Sept. 18 and never returned. She says she gave him $250 in cash, that he carried out to buy a house lot, and that was the last she saw of either him or the money. Mascioli corroborates her. When they were searched, however, $101 in cash was found on Mascioli and $70 in Mrs. Cuesumano's purse. It is known that Mascioli was without funds until he found employment about two months ago. The police suspect that the money is part of the $250 alleged to have been given Cuesumano for purchasing the house lot.

Attempt to Cut Up Body
Medical Examiner J. H. Peterson is of the opinion that the body was made to dismember Cuesumano's body after he had been murdered. There are deep cuts at the shoulders and knees and at both points the bones have been broken. The cause of death has been determined as a knife thrust which severed a vertebra in the man's neck and left a wide gash there, as near as the physicians who have viewed the body can determine, the body had not been in the water more than two weeks. Several coils of telephone wire of the same gauge as that which bound the quilt to the body were found in the back yard of the Cuesumano home.

From these facts the police have formed the following theory: Cuesumano was killed in his own house on the day or the night of Sunday, Sept. 18. The first thought was concealment of the body, and it was determined to dismember it and cast it into the ocean. The work caused a revolution of feeling and the participants could not go on. The body was then concealed somewhere about the house, probably in the cellar, to await opportunity for disposing of it by other means. Time went on, and the body began to decompose, threatening disclosure of its presence. Finally, after it had lain for a week or ten days, the murderers were forced to desperate action. In dead of night, the police believe, the body was wrapped in the old comforter which little Margaret Cuesumano has identified as "mamma's quilt." The shroud was bound about the naked body with strands of telephone wire hastily cut from coils in the yard. In the loop found about the corpse's neck some heavy weight, probably a rock, was fastened. The body was then placed upon the two-wheeled cart and after midnight stealthily carried to a cliff overhanging the bay some little distance from the Cuesumano home and cast into the water. The decomposed, gaseous condition of the body made it highly resistant to sinking, and it floated ashore.

The "third degree" was worked on the two suspects in light in the hope of securing a confession. Separately, Mrs. Cuesumano and Mascioli were led into a dark room. Then the lights were suddenly turned on, revealing on the floor the quilt in which the body of the murdered man was wrapped, while grouped about were several articles found at the Cuesumano home yesterday, such as the blood stained cart and axe. Neither suspect seemed startled or said anything in the way of a confession.

MISSION WORK Explained by Rev. Lucius O. Baird

At the Millot church yesterday Rev. Lucius O. Baird, secretary of the American Missionary association, and a member of the national council of Congregationalists, gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Jesus, the Maker of Men," and he preached from the text, "And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand and took hold of him."

His discourse dealt largely with the work of the American Missionary association.

It has been said, remarked the speaker, that the "A. M. A." stands for "after money again." It does not; it stands for "after men anywhere." Our philanthropy is color blind. We do not care whether it is a black boy or a brown Peter, as long as there is one in a little community who is showing a desire for education.

He told of the work of the educational institutions of the A. M. A., and said that in Alabama the per capita cost for educational purposes is $2.39 per pupil. In Massachusetts it is $2.44. This is not because of any unwillingness on the part of the south. They are tremendously in earnest in the education of their own white children, and they are becoming interested in the education of the black children. They are trying to carry the burden, but they are poor, and the land is poor, and they need us to help them, and we need to show our brotherhood.

The American Missionary association, he said, are turning away from children everywhere, because they can not be educated. Many sacrifices are made in order that children may be helped to an education. In one instance, he said, a boy attending school is obliged to return to his home every Friday night, because, in order to have the boy go to school decently clothed, they are trying to carry the burden, but they are poor, and the land is poor, and they need us to help them, and we need to show our brotherhood.

These were hastily gathered together and removed from the house. They will be sent for analysis to determine whether the marks are those of human blood. The house will be guarded night and day until the case is cleared up.

According to Mrs. Cuesumano, her husband left home Sept. 18 and never returned. She says she gave him $250 in cash, that he carried out to buy a house lot, and that was the last she saw of either him or the money. Mascioli corroborates her. When they were searched, however, $101 in cash was found on Mascioli and $70 in Mrs. Cuesumano's purse. It is known that Mascioli was without funds until he found employment about two months ago. The police suspect that the money is part of the $250 alleged to have been given Cuesumano for purchasing the house lot.

From these facts the police have formed the following theory: Cuesumano was killed in his own house on the day or the night of Sunday, Sept. 18. The first thought was concealment of the body, and it was determined to dismember it and cast it into the ocean. The work caused a revolution of feeling and the participants could not go on. The body was then concealed somewhere about the house, probably in the cellar, to await opportunity for disposing of it by other means. Time went on, and the body began to decompose, threatening disclosure of its presence. Finally, after it had lain for a week or ten days, the murderers were forced to desperate action. In dead of night, the police believe, the body was wrapped in the old comforter which little Margaret Cuesumano has identified as "mamma's quilt." The shroud was bound about the naked body with strands of telephone wire hastily cut from coils in the yard. In the loop found about the corpse's neck some heavy weight, probably a rock, was fastened. The body was then placed upon the two-wheeled cart and after midnight stealthily carried to a cliff overhanging the bay some little distance from the Cuesumano home and cast into the water. The decomposed, gaseous condition of the body made it highly resistant to sinking, and it floated ashore.

The "third degree" was worked on the two suspects in light in the hope of securing a confession. Separately, Mrs. Cuesumano and Mascioli were led into a dark room. Then the lights were suddenly turned on, revealing on the floor the quilt in which the body of the murdered man was wrapped, while grouped about were several articles found at the Cuesumano home yesterday, such as the blood stained cart and axe. Neither suspect seemed startled or said anything in the way of a confession.

use the Buntings for political purposes. Furthermore, you will observe by the notices posted on the walls and other places in the club house, that political or religious speeches in the club house are absolutely forbidden. Now we all know that the success, welfare and prosperity of every enterprise, whether in private business or public corporations depend entirely on the men placed at the head. There is no reason why our corporation should be unlike any other business corporation in this respect. When a mercantile corporation starts its places in charge the best it can find. The best is none too good for our club. Simply because a man is a good fellow doesn't make him a good officer. We are all good fellows, but we don't all make good officers. If you elect do not care, go as you please kind of a hardy set of directors, the club or corporation must only safe course is to pull away all the time. "I cannot allow this opportunity to pass by without saying a few words in recognition of the services which our retiring president, Mr. Sam Dean, has performed for the club. He has ever been alive to the duties of his office and worked untiringly for the success of the Bunting club during his term of office. If there is one man in the club who deserves the credit for bringing to the Buntings a champion cricket team, it is our worthy president, Mr. Sam Dean. He has given liberally to the support of the team. Each and every player will agree with me when I say our president has fully rewarded them when they have performed any feat worthy of notice.

"I feel I have already taken up too much time in speaking for the Bunting club, so will close with the following toast: Here's to the club—may it ever be the honest endeavor of each and every one of us to keep the club's name unblemished and untarnished as we receive from our successors."

The Bunting Cricket club won the championship of the M. V. C. league this year. Their record is as follows: Games won, 9; lost, 3; tied, 1.

The success or failure of this organization depends solely upon your selection of those who are to conduct its business. In order to attain success, the members should be men of high personal ideas and devote their energies for the building up of our club. A live set of officers makes a live club and the success and prosperity of the Bunting club will depend upon the earnestness and zeal of the members selected for the different offices. Confidence, satisfaction, admiration and enthusiasm are the great factors which reign supreme in our club. So let us all be interested, let us elect good men and when election is all over let all shake hands and make the coming year the best yet known. It is not for nothing that you have elected a member who will do for any office. We should not oppose honest rivalry; the more there is the more fortunate the club, always providing that the contest is fair and the loser takes his defeat like a sportsman and turns in and makes it his business to help.

"If in something we all should bear in mind. The way to make friends is to be friendly; the way to secure harmony is to yield pleasantly to the will of the majority; the way to be happy is to make others happy; the way to regard an enemy is to treat him as a friend; the way to secure the respect of every member of the club is to show deference to the opinion of your brother member, and instead of kicking at everything that is done, put your shoulder to the wheel and help roll it along; the way to make yourself a useful member of your club is to be useful."

ATHLETICS 4 - CHICAGO 1

WORLD'S SERIES A CYCLONE

Connie Mack's Men Won the First Game

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Sunrise this morning revealed a long line of enthusiastic baseball fans before the gates of Shibe park waiting for the first game this afternoon between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago Nationals, for the championship of the baseball world.

The line began to form at sundown last night.

The rosters brought campstools or chairs and also carried their breakfast and lunches. The line grew so rapidly that the police decided not to let the crowd congregate through the night and broke up the assemblage.

The more determined of the rosters went into the public park across the street from the ball grounds and waited. Before dawn newcomers arrived and stood at the bleacher gates and the park campers joined them, thus the line again formed and rapidly grew.

At 5 a. m. the crowd started to jam about the gates and the police stepped in and brought about order. It was apparent that when the two teams met at 2 o'clock this afternoon the largest crowd that ever saw a baseball game in Philadelphia would be on hand.

Every reserved seat in the grand stand was sold a week ago and the comparatively few tickets that fell into the hands of the speculators brought fancy prices. The two pavilions of the grand stand of Shibe park rent about $500 persons. Standing room in the grand stands at $1.50 a head was sold to 2500 persons just before the game started. The only other tickets on sale were those for the bleachers and the temporary field seats in center-field. Of these there were about 10,000. The bleacher gates were opened at 11 a. m. and the entrances to the grand stand an hour later.

Almost perfect weather prevailed. There was little wind and the atmosphere was much warmer than could be expected for this time of the year. Manager Chance's men appeared about the corridors of the Aldine hotel early and reported that they were "feeling fine."

Out at Shibe park Cornelius McGillicuddy, whose baseball nom de plume is Connie Mack, met Captain Davis and the other players.

Both Teams Confident

The opposing teams and their followers each professed confidence in the result of both the opening game and the series. While the National league club has the prestige of former victories in world's championship events and is the favorite at 10 to 8 in the little betting that prevails, most of the smaller bets are at even money.

It is declared that the teams are about the finest ever developed in the respective leagues. The Cubs are made up of practically the same players that won the two world's championships for Chicago from Detroit in 1907 and 1908.

The Athletics, on the other hand, have only six players, Pitchers Bender and Plank, First Baseman Davis and Outfielders Murphy, Hartel and Lord of the team which was defeated by the N. Y. Nationals in the world's series of 1905. The other players are young men who joined the team since that time.

There was disappointment because each team was to go into the game minus its stars. John J. Evers, a most important part of Manager Chance's baseball machinery, who broke a leg in Cincinnati, was replaced by Zimmerman, a batsman of no mean ability. Who was to take Centerfield. Oldring's place on the Philadelphia team was still a secret this afternoon. Oldring, who is a 300 point clean-up batsman, a fleet fielder, and a star "inside" man on the base paths, twisted an ankle last week.

Manager Chance played and directed his team on the field. Manager McGillicuddy, as usual, occupies his secluded spot on the players' bench. The best guess as to the batteries was Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and Overall and Kling for Chicago. The batting order had not been announced during the morning.

Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia and Overall and Kling for Chicago are the batteries.

The crowd was so dense that ground rules were made allowing a two base hit into the crowd.

First Inning

Shueckard was first man up for Chicago.

With two strikes and one ball called O'Day called a policeman to put one behind the home plate. Shueckard struck out. Schulte placed a beautiful single in left field and was out stealing second. Thomas to Collins. Hoffman went out on a grounder, Collins to Davis and the crowd yelled its approval. No runs.

Philadelphia—Strunk, the Athletics' centerfielder, was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Lord lifted a high one to Hoffman and retired. Collins was given a reception when he came to the plate. Collins drove a single to left. Collins was out on an attempted steal, Kling to Zimmerman. No runs.

Second Inning

Chicago—Chance was given a warm hand when he stepped to the plate. He drove a hot grounder to Barry and was out at first. Zimmerman, who took Johnny Evers' place at second, lifted a high one to Baker and sat down. Steinfeldt gave Baker a chance and was an easy out to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker drove a two-base hit into the left field crowd and was sacrificed to third by Davis, the latter going out, Chance to Zimmerman.

HAVANA, Oct. 17.—The cyclone that struck the island yesterday is increasing. Its velocity is appalling. Beyond doubt it is far more serious than the hurricane of 1906, which cost many lives and did damage to the amount of millions of dollars.

The custom house warehouses are flooded and the roof of the main building has been blown away.

The National observatory reports that the disturbance is only beginning and will last probably twenty hours.

The town of Batabano, in this province, is said to be under water to a depth of many feet. A large number of lives have been lost there, according to reports.

A report from Regla, across the harbor, says that many persons have been killed there.

It is rumored that a great number of sailors and longshoremen have been drowned in the harbor.

It is probable that the most fatalities and the greatest monetary damage have occurred in Pinar del Rio. The sugar cane crop is thought to have suffered severely.

The gale came today from the south southwest with a violence not experienced in a long time before. Rain fell in torrents throughout the night but let up somewhat at daybreak, though the wind held as strong as ever.

All traffic in this city and in the harbor was suspended today. Scores of lighters and other small craft had been swamped or wrecked against the bulkheads.

The Ward line steamer Saratoga, which was due to sail on Saturday, remained storm-bound.

The sea before noon had swept the custom house sheds for a distance of a half mile and was carrying off merchandise valued at many hundreds of thousands of dollars. The gale uprooted the main customs warehouse and the contents were drenched. The building contains the most valuable goods in the harbor. The hoists of the Havana Coal Co. at Casa Blanca, across the harbor, a mile from Morro castle, have been wrecked. Casa Blanca is flooded and the residents are taking refuge in the hills behind the town.

It is impossible to know definitely what is occurring in the harbor owing to the high waves and flying spume.

man. Baker scored a moment later on Murphy's beautiful single to left. The crowd almost went wild.

Murphy stole second. Barry was thrown out. Steinfeldt to Chance. Murphy going to third. Thomas was given his base on balls and Chief Bender came to the plate. Bender drove a hit between first and second base. Murphy scoring. Strunk was the third out, a fly to Shueckard.

Third Inning

Chicago—Tinker was retired on a beautiful stop and throw, Collins to Davis. The Cubs' star catcher, Kling, was the next man to face Bender. With three balls and two strikes on him Kling lifted a high fly, which was taken by Bender. Overall, with two strikes called on him, drove a hot grounder to Barry and was retired at first.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a two-base hit into right center crowd and Chance and Overall held a conference. Collins sacrificed. Chance to Zimmerman, placing Lord on third and Lord scored a moment later on Baker's second hit of the game. Davis struck out on four pitched balls. Baker was an easy out on an attempted steal, Kling to Tinker. One run.

Fourth Inning

Chicago—Shueckard was an easy out. Barry to Davis. Schulte was sent to first on four pitched balls, the chief not being able to locate the plate. Hoffman, one of the Cubs' reliable hitters, struck out and Captain Chance came to the plate. He did not have an opportunity to hit the ball as Schulte was out stealing. Thomas to Collins. No runs.

At this juncture Captain Chance brought McIntyre to the slab and sent Overall to the bench.

Philadelphia—Murphy, the first man up, was thrown out. Tinker to Chance. Barry drove a grounder to Steinfeldt and went out at first. Thomas fanned. No runs.

Fifth Inning

Chicago—Chance was an easy out to Davis. Collins assisting. Zimmerman, who did such phenomenal hitting in a recent game at Cincinnati, was struck out. Steinfeldt also fanned. No runs.

Philadelphia—Bender was given a warm reception when he came to the plate. Bender was unable to connect with McIntyre's curves and went to the bench. Strunk was sent to first on four pitched balls and was an easy out on an attempted steal, Kling to Tinker. Lord was third out, retiring on three pitched balls. No runs.

Sixth Inning

Chicago—Tinker lifted a high fly to center and was an easy out by Strunk. Kling sent a high fly to Murphy and was an easy out. McIntyre struck out, making the fifth for Bender thus far.

Philadelphia—Collins was tossed out by Zimmerman to Chance. Tinker made a pretty stop and throw of Baker's grounder, retiring him at first. Davis went up the same route. No runs.

Seventh Inning

Chicago—Barry jumped into the air and pulled down Shueckard's high bouncer, getting the latter at first. Schulte was retired on strikes. Baker made a remarkable stop of Hoffman's wicked grounder and got the runner at first. No runs.

Philadelphia—Shueckard took Murphy's long drive off the ropes in left center. Barry was retired at first by Chance, unassisted. Thomas was given his base on balls. Bender was out at first by Chance, unassisted. No runs.

Eighth Inning

Chicago—Collins made a pretty stop of Chance's grounder and got the latter at first. Zimmerman again struck out. Steinfeldt popped a weak fly to Baker. No runs.

Philadelphia—Strunk was tossed out. Zimmerman to Chance. Lord sent a fly to Hoffman. Collins was given his base on balls and went to third on McIntyre's wild throw in an attempt to catch the Athletics' second baseman off the bag. Baker drove the ball against right field wall for two bases, scoring Collins. It was Baker's third hit of the game. Davis was tossed out by McIntyre.

Ninth Inning

Chicago—Tinker reached second on his single and Strunk's fumble. Tinker scored on Kling's single to center. Kane took his position on first base to run for Kling. Beaumont, batting for McIntyre, was out. Collins to Davis. Kane reached second on the play. Shueckard struck out. Schulte was given his base on balls, with two on bases. Hoffman came to bat, but his hit to Baker forced Kane at third, Baker getting the out. One run. Final score, Philadelphia 4, Chicago 1.

YANKEES vs. GIANTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Giants and the Highlanders went out for stiff morning practice for the fifth morning game of the post season series between the two local clubs of the National and American leagues. Hundreds planned to go to the American league park, where they could not only witness the local contest but follow the inning results of the world's championship game at Philadelphia.

The local series now stands: Giants, two games won, and one victory for the Highlanders. Manager Chase indicated today that he would use his star boxman, Russell Ford, to even up the series. Elmer Crandall or Matthewson will pitch for the Giants.

6 O'CLOCK EVENING SCHOOLS

Big Dropping Off in Attendance of French Pupils While the Number of Greeks, Poles and Portuguese Shows a Big Increase

The close of the first week's sessions of the evening schools shows an average attendance equal to that of former years though the complexion of the attendance, as it were, shows a decided change.

The results of immigration to this country are shown no more interestingly than through the medium of the evening schools. As is well known, many cannot obtain employment in the mills and factories unless they can produce a school certificate to the effect that they are literate.

Hence the majority of the evening school pupils are foreign-born and it is interesting to observe how the nationalities change as the years go by. Some years ago the Edison and the Colburn schools presented only ordinary attendances while the Bartlett and Cheever street schools were filled.

Some 10 years ago the Bartlett school had eight rooms filled to the limit with French girls. This year it has been necessary to drop about half a dozen teachers as the result of poor attendances while the majority of the pupils at the Bartlett this year are Greek girls instead of French. Ten years ago the Greek girls attending evening school could be counted on one's fingers; today it is necessary to assign them to a special school and the Colburn school is devoted practically exclusively to Greeks, the boys and men in the two first and the girls in the Bartlett. It is noticeable that a number of Greek adults attend the evening schools showing a commendable desire to become familiar with the language. During the incumbency of George Conzales as president of the Greek community a school was started in the basement of the Greek church for Greek adults who were averse to attending the regular evening schools.

According to Superintendent Whitcomb, the French pupils in the evening school have steadily decreased in number, owing in a great measure to a decrease in the number of immigrants who have immigrated here, while those already here have become literate through environment and private study. Hence, where once the evening schools were crowded with French pupils it has become necessary within the past few years to reduce the number of teachers in the schools once devoted exclusively to French speaking pupils.

This season the Edison and Colburn schools show the crowds and their pupils are practically all Poles and Portuguese, showing the great increase in immigration among the residents of these countries. In both cases the pupils are desirous of showing an honest intention of becoming familiar with the English language.

Evening school teachers are authority for the statement that the disturbances that sometimes occur at the schools and the rowdiness sometimes reported, do not emanate from the foreign born pupils, but from young natives who are not compelled to attend by law, but who go there because their parents desire it or for the principal purpose of raising—well, ructions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The decision of the New York federal court, declining to release Frank N. ## THE BOSTON HERALD CASE BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The receivers of the Boston Herald Co., John Norris of New York and C. F. Wood of Boston, applied today to Judge Col in the United States circuit court for authority to sell the property. This petition is the initial step in a proposed reorganization by the bondholders who have adopted a plan for paying forty cents on the dollar to the unsecured creditors and for supplying new working capital to the re-organized company.

The receivers filed a report showing the financial condition of the receiver-ship on October 12. The operating expenses have been reduced 34 per cent, or at the rate of $360,000 per year, as compared with last year and this, notwithstanding the fact that the publication is carrying more news than before; that approximately as many papers are being sold as heretofore and that an evening edition is being published during the corresponding period last year.

The receiver says that for the first time in six years the circulation of the morning paper has increased without artificial stimulation. The outstanding indebtedness is $1,335,000 in bonds and liquidated claims amounting to $450,243.74. The receivers submitted lists of claims for allowance by the court.

Bade Good Bye to Beverly Today

BEVERLY, Oct. 17.—President Taft bade good bye to Beverly today and, with the cheers of 3000 school children ringing in his ears, motored into Boston to take the train at 1 p. m. for New York, where he will stay two days on his way back to Washington.

The question of where the summer capital will be located next year had not been definitely settled when the president left Beverly today. There is a chance that he will come back here, as his choice seems to lie between a cottage on Cornag street in this city and another ten miles further in the North Shore. Up to within the last two or three days there was every reason to believe that a change from Beverly would be made but now the chances seem to favor the cottage here.

The school children of the city were lined up on Lothrop street, along which the president and Mrs. Taft had to pass on their way into Boston. Each held a tiny American flag and waved it enthusiastically. The president's machine was slowed down to a crawl as it passed through the lane of children and both the president and Mrs. Taft bowed and waved to the children.

After remaining in New York two days the president will proceed to Washington, arriving there Thursday morning.

EAST BOSTON BOY PROBABLY FATALLY INJURED

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Amelio Dattor, an six years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dattor of 107 Orleans street, East Boston, while at play yesterday afternoon on the roof of the building in which he lives, fell through an air-shaft in the basement, a distance of 45 feet, suffering injuries which will probably prove fatal. The boy's skull was fractured and he was internally injured.

With Secondine Dattor, the mother, who was playing tag on the roof of the three story building. The covering of the airshaft had been removed and when the Dattor family was running away from young Dattor's he fell into the shaft. He was taken to the East Boston relief station.

SEVERAL FIGHTS

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The inhabitants of Boston's "Little Portugal," who man the "blue fleet" of motor fishing boats, have but little interest in the strenuous times in the fatherland, their attention being too much occupied with feuds of their own.

Yesterday morning the war between the head liners and the motor boats, which broke out at the head of T wharf broke out again, and the warring factions clashed in a test of arms on the decks of their vessels.

For weeks the feeling had been very bitter, and the scuffling of six boats a week ago has not tended to smooth matters over. Yesterday, when the boat owned by Pasquale Gomes bumped into that of Manuel Vittorelli while making a berth at the head of the slip, the pot of ill-feeling boiled over, and a battle was on in a minute.

Vittorelli jumped for his rival's craft with an oar, intending to teach Gomes a lesson in marine etiquette, but a well directed fish, thrown by Gomes' mate, struck Vittorelli in the face and ended his rush in the bottom of his own boat.

Then occupants of neighboring boats took sides in the interest of fair play and to satisfy private grudges, and in less time than it takes to tell half a dozen lights were in progress on the decks of the blue motor boats.

A crowd numbering fully 200 collected along the head of the pier and jabbered excited encouragement to their respective champions, and for a time it looked as if the riot would spread to others. Then a blue uniform and brass buttons was sighted coming down Atlantic avenue, and the word "peace" was passed that restored temporary peace for the affair between the factions is a matter of honor, not to be settled in a police court.

Girl and Her Lover Were Drowned

POCOMOKE CITY, Md., Oct. 17.—With the finding of an empty sailboat at the mouth of Pits creek yesterday morning, the first information was gleaned of a tragedy, in which Henry Page Dennis, until recently of Foxboro, Mass., and Miss Caroline Eaton lost their lives.

The young man is believed to have been drowned when he plunged into the water to save his sweetheart, Miss Eaton, after she had been knocked overboard by one of the sails.

The young man, who was 26 years old, was a son of the late State Senator Samuel K. Dennis of Worcester and cousin of Judge J. Upshur Dennis of Baltimore.

Miss Eaton was 23 and a daughter of Rev. Dr. C. N. Eaton, president of Beloit college, Wisconsin. She was visiting Miss Mary Dennis at Beverly, the historic Dennis homestead on the Pocomoke river. She was a girl of unusual beauty.

Young Dennis came here a few days ago to spend a short time with his relatives. The pair appeared greatly attached to each other and it is understood that they were engaged.

Saturday afternoon they went out for a sail. It is believed that the boat had gotten under way and that in backing across the stream the jib swung around and knocked the young woman out of the boat. Mr. Dennis is then believed to have jumped overboard to rescue her.

He was a good swimmer and a general all-round athlete, but the task was beyond his power.

MAN ARRESTED

HE WAS TRAPPED BY LETTER SENT TO GIRL

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Caught by the police as the result of an appointment he tried to make by letter with a young woman in Worcester, Otto Schroeder of Meridian, Miss., was placed under arrest the waiting room of the North station yesterday afternoon.

At the hour the young woman was due to appear, Special Officer Mitchell of police headquarters showed up instead, and informed Schroeder he was wanted in Worcester on a number of charges, including beating a hotel there, the larceny of a watch and $130 in money, for carrying a blackjack and in connection with some checks found on his person.

Schroeder used to be in the German navy but has been in this country for a number of years, claiming yesterday to be a machinist.

At police headquarters, when Inspector O'Day of Worcester came to take his prisoner back, he would say but little concerning the case.

HE CITES BIBLE

TO PROVE WHAT HE THINKS ARE HIS RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—With the books of Leviticus, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, and Esther as his leading authorities on justice, J. Alexander Childs, a negro, who was compelled to ride in a "Jim Crow" car part of the way from Washington to Lexington, Ky., has appeared in the supreme court of the United States for what he believes are his rights. He argues that his rights as an interstate passenger were infringed.

Last term the court decided against Childs. This fall he has come into court asking for a rehearing despite the rule that a motion for rehearing cannot be entertained in any term except that in which the case was decided.

Childs is conducting his own case. He referred the justices, in a brief, to Leviticus, xxiv., 22, to convince them that they should have one "manner of law, as well for the stranger as for one of your own country," and to Deuteronomy, x. 17, to ascertain his point that "ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as the great."

Theatre in Newburyport Was Destroyed

NEWBURYPORT, Oct. 17.—The Orpheum theatre on Merrimack street was gutted by fire which broke out at 4.45 yesterday morning and the loss will approximate $10,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

Lawrence C. Thayer, the lessee, was asleep in one of the rooms and was not aroused until he heard the sound of the fire alarm. He worked his way through fire and smoke to the main entrance, where he fell into the arms of members of the police force, who assisted him to his boarding place at 98 Merrimack street.

Mr. Thayer, who came here from Boston last year, was burned about the head and face and his mustache and hair were singed. He was also suffering from shock, which aggravated a weak heart and stimulants had to be administered.

The fire was discovered by Patrolman Fenders, who sounded an alarm from box 45. This was quickly followed by a second alarm from the same box, which was sent in by Driver Broderick of engine 1, and which brought out of the active and part of the reserve fighting apparatus.

The fire apparently started in a dressing room used by actors, and its spread was so rapid that the Mather boat shop and the Odd Fellows building were threatened and were saved only by hard work on the part of the firemen. Edgar C. Reade of ladder 1 sustained bad cuts on one of his hands with falling glass.

The building in which the theatre was located was originally part of the plant of the defunct Newburyport car works. It was of heavy frame construction, two stories high and had a seating capacity of about 900, with a stage and numerous anterooms.

It was owned by William E. Runnels of this city, who originally leased it to Senator James E. Toland of Gloucester, who sublet the lease to M. C. Wiswell and to Mr. Thayer.

The theatre was used as a moving picture house, with vaudeville.

Herbert E. Card, drummer, lost all of his traps, which were valued at $150 and were not insured.

Mr. Runnels places his loss at about $5500. Mr. Wiswell lost a piano, organ, stage settings and furniture that were worth nearly $1500.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but the theory generally accepted is that a lighted cigar or cigar was thrown down in the dressing room or toilet room, where it smoldered for some time before breaking into flames.

ARMORED CRUISERS

HAVE ARRIVED HOME FROM SOUTH AMERICA

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The armored cruisers California, Pennsylvania and Colorado which represented the United States at the Chilean centennial celebration, arrived here yesterday from South America. They will remain here until Nov. 1, when Giles Harber will be succeeded by Admiral Edwin B. Parry.

On board the California and Pennsylvania were ten Argentine naval officers who will spend six months on the warships for educational purposes.

According to her officers, the California proved herself to be the most economical vessel in the navy. She burned 20 per cent. less coal than was expected on the 3000 mile run from Chimbote.

Coming up the California coast, the three cruisers participated in a full power speed trial. The California made the best speed, making 20.4 knots for six consecutive hours.

Fourteen hundred bluejackets were given shore liberty yesterday.

GENERAL HEALTH

Of United States Army is Improved

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—According to the annual report of the surgeon-general the general health of the United States army has shown a steady improvement over several years. The non-effective rate, which was regarded as the true measure of the loss in efficiency from sickness and injury, was 41.48 per one thousand during the past fiscal year as compared with 42.63 for 1909, 46.17 for 1907, and 49.79 for 1906. The total number of deaths from all causes during the past year was 270,238, which were due to disease and 143 from external causes.

Surgeon-General Torney reports that the health of the American troops in the Philippines continues to improve year by year and that the records show that insanity is no more prevalent among troops serving there than those serving in the United States. Asiatic cholera has been especially prevalent throughout the archipelago during the past year and still prevails.

Considerable progress has been made each year in the campaign inaugurated for the protection of the army against typhoid fever by means of vaccination. Among the 11,000 persons in the army who have been vaccinated there have developed to date three cases of typhoid with no deaths. The protective value of typhoid vaccination, General Torney says, has been as perfectly demonstrated as any fact in medicine and he advocates its adoption as a routine procedure throughout the army. It is entirely voluntary with the individuals and should be made compulsory.

The surgeon-general pays a high tribute to the faithfulness and efficiency of the clerical force in his office and he favors increases in their salaries.

SOCIETY WOMEN ARE TO CARRY DOLLS

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The latest fad of the women of fashion is a doll, and, of course, the idea comes from Paris. The doll is to be taken out riding in motor cars, carried at social functions and when calling on acquaintances.

In Paris for a month women have been carrying large bisque dolls. The first importations of these dolls arrived here a few days ago. They were brought over by three fashionable Fifth avenue establishments, whose heads believed they could start the style in this country.

The dolls—all girl babies—are sold at from $55 to $125 each. They are 18 inches high and are dressed in the latest Parisian clothes of the finest materials.

GETS A DIVORCE

Woman is Mother of 27 Children

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17.—Rosanna Green, who said she was the mother of 27 children since she married, a divorce was granted her today. She said that she could take care of the children, but that she had grown tired of trying to support her husband, George Green.

On the witness stand Mrs. Green said that her husband drank to excess, once tried to cut her throat with a razor and beat her when he was drunk.

Judge Reed granted the divorce, but said Green might tell his story next Friday if he desired a hearing. His wife said that she did not wish to ask for alimony.

INCENDIARY FIRE

CAUSED A LOSS OF $1200 IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—Fire destroyed the storeroom at 3 Ellsworth street, Dorchester, occupied by William Pittman, a second hand furniture dealer, last evening. Five men rescued one horse and saved a large express wagon.

It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss will be about $500 to Mr. Pittman and about $700 to Whitcomb Robbins, who owned the building.

The fire illuminated Fields Corner brilliantly for 15 minutes.

This was the second fire within a year in the building and an investigation, it is thought, will be made. The storeroom was in a tenement district and a lumber mill and chemical and leather factories are nearby on Freeport street.

JULIA WARD HOWE

One of the World's Famous Women Passed Away

MIDDLETOWN, R. I., Oct. 17.—One of the world's famous women, the venerable Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, poet and patriot, and staunch advocate of human liberty everywhere, passed peacefully away at her summer home, "Oak Glen," in Middletown, at 11.30 o'clock this forenoon. Mrs. Howe had been ill since Wednesday last when she had a severe chill. Death was due to old age, which with a cold weakened her heart.

The celebrated reformer was born in New York city May 27, 1819, three days after the birth of Queen Victoria. Her husband was Rev. Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, an eminent philanthropist, who died in 1876. She was the mother-in-law of John Elliott, the artist, and of the late Michael Anagnos, head of Perkins Institute of the Blind.

The aged philanthropist and author, who has been one of America's most famous women for more than a generation, passed away peacefully at her summer home, "Oak Glen," surrounded by her three daughters, who were visiting her. Mrs. Howe had been unusually active here this summer. Last Wednesday she incurred a chill through the marked change in the weather and since then had been confined to her bed. She was making good progress toward recovery until this morning, when she suffered a change for the worse and lapsed into unconsciousness. Her son, Prof. Henry Marion Howe, and Mrs. Howe, are on their way here from New York.

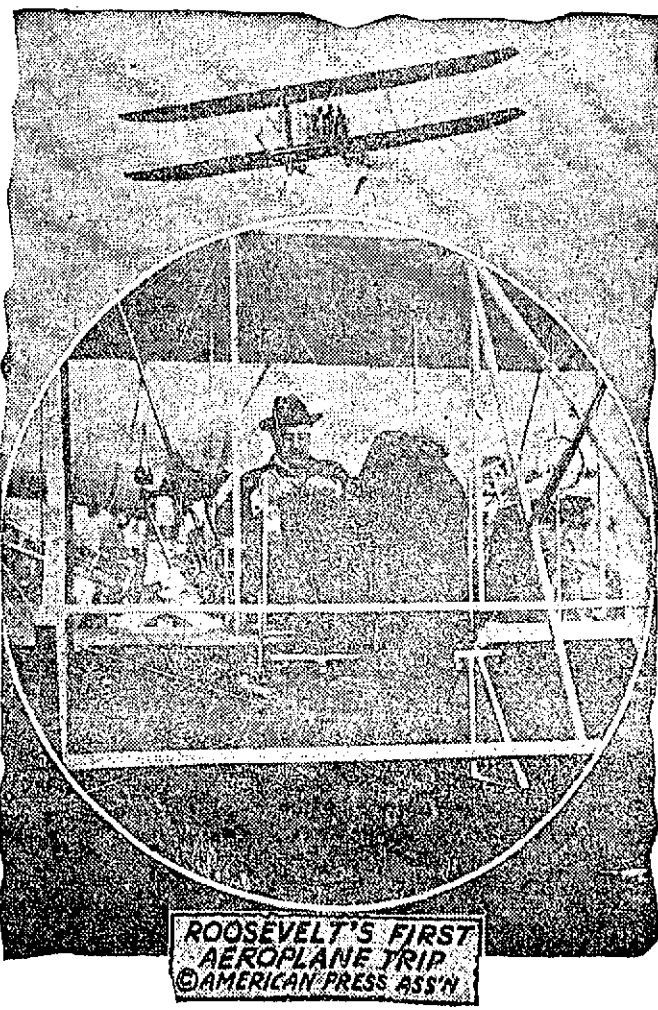

During the summer the venerable author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" spoke at several places and also attended two meetings of the Women's Civic League of Newport. Last month she made a visit to the naval training station at Newport where the sailors were put through drills for her inspection.

Mrs. Howe's home was on Beacon street, Boston, and she had planned to return there next month. Her body will be taken to Boston, where the funeral will be held.

THE AEROPLANE MAY DO WHAT THE LIONS COULD NOT

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Having been once in the air, Colonel Roosevelt wants to go again. The aeroplane has dug deep into the ex-president, and he won't be satisfied until he has flown around New York. Political friends of the ex-president want him to keep on the ground until after election, while some politicians of different faith have been accused of offering up strenuous hopes that he may go up again. The lions refused to do the bidding of the colonel's rivals. But now the ship has smitten him, and there's hope in the hearts of certain well known men in the United States. Howbeit, since his flight in St. Louis Col. Roosevelt has declared flying the greatest sport he has ever tried, and he is making it his business to get acquainted with the famous fliers in this country, and he is said to have declared he will go again if reporters and photographers be kept in ignorance of the day he starts.

IN POLICE COURT CITY HALL NEWS FINGERS CUT OFF

Liquor Seizure Near Lakeview Yesterday

A roast pig dinner was held at the residence of Frank Levesque near Lakeview yesterday, but the affair did not prove to be the success that was anticipated. Of course there was plenty of wet goods on the premises and everything was going along nicely until Deputy Sheriff Eveleth and Police Officer William J. Cullinan, the latter of the Collingwood section, put in an appearance. After they had seized a quantity of liquor the party became disconsolate.

Levesque's place has been raided on several occasions and he has been convicted for the illegal keeping of liquor. The festivities were just beginning when the officers put in an appearance. After making a search of the premises they decided to take the beer and whiskey which they found. They also notified Mr. Levesque to come into court.

Levesque was in court this morning, but before his case was called he made his escape and when his case was reached it was found that he had disappeared. The charge against him is illegally keeping liquor.
Austin Will Settle
Wm. Austin was charged with illegally removing baggage from the boarding house of Winifred Lester. It seems that William boarded at the Lester house and one day while inebriated to the woman left the house and took what belonged to him with him. He admitted that he owed the Lester woman money but informed the court that it was his intention to liquidate his indebtedness in the near future. The court placed Austin in the custody of Constable Livingston of Billerica after the latter said that he would see that Austin would pay the bill.

Drunken Offenders
There was a very large list of drunken offenders in court this morning. Some were old timers while others made their first appearance in the glided cage.
James Mone, John Myers and Daniel McCarthy were sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater while Walter Durgin was given a suspended sentence to the same institution. John Fleming, who is on parole, will be returned to the farm.
Matthew Meero was given a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory.
Andrew Carr appeared before the court recently and was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail but he failed to live up to the requirements of his probation and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Patrick Tierney was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail.

Catherine A. Hayes was sentenced to jail for two months and the sentence was suspended.
Hormidas Meroux, charged with drunkenness, was called but his condition warranted the continuance of the case for one week.

Michael J. Riley, Edward W. Collins, Leonard B. Morse, Timothy Donovan, Jeremiah D'Onofrio, Edward J. Fanning and John J. McInerney were each ordered to pay a fine of $5.
The Sunday drunks were Napoleon, Bastille and Joseph Masterston, each being fined $5.

There were several first offenders who were fined $2 each and 11 simple drunks, who were released.
Lawrence Cummings, a young man around town, was in court charged with larceny of $5. The case was continued.

THE STREET COMMITTEE went on a tour of inspection at 3.30 this afternoon and this evening will give hearings on petitions for street improvements at the places inspected.
The committee on comfort station will meet this evening at 7.30 at city hall. If the committee could hear the general clamor for the establishment of such a station in the vicinity of Merrimack square its members would move promptly toward recommending a station.

The board of aldermen will meet tomorrow evening.
Among the marriage intentions recorded at city hall today were those of Fernald N. Gould, aged 22, of 35 Smith street, a machinist, and Miss Blanche E. Hayes, aged 25, of 23 Moore street, at home.

There was a lively procession of applicants for aid at the city dispensary this morning.

SUNDAY SESSION
LEGISLATURE PASSED AMENDED REGISTRATION BILL
DENVER, Oct. 17.—Both houses of the legislature in Sunday session yesterday passed the amended registration bill. A movement is on foot to ask Gov. Shafroth to veto it. The measure as passed provided that any person challenging votes shall deposit $1.50 for each name challenged. If his challenge is upheld he is to get his money back; otherwise the person challenged gets it. In paying the penalty of a challenge at least two members of the registering committee must be produced as witnesses and the person challenging must pay each of them $1.60 witness fees, whether or not his challenge is successful.

In the city of Denver an estimated number of 5000 to 6000 legitimate names appear on the roll each biennial election. There are 223 precincts in the city.

FUNERALS
PERRY—The funeral of Catherine Perry took place this morning at 8.30 o'clock from her late home, 154 Marshall road. The cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Fr. Percot. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Sheehan, sang the Gregorian mass. The solos being sustained by Mrs. Wilkins and Mr. James Haley. Miss Lulu Ginty presided at the organ. The bearers were Vital C. Silva, Frank Silva, Jr., Manuel Espinola, Manuel C. Picano, Jacinto Martin and Miquel J. Gnales. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Thomas J. McDermott.

BIG RELIGIOUS CAMPAIGN
CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—What is planned to be the greatest religious campaign Chicago has ever seen was begun yesterday under the auspices of the laymen evangelistic council.

The initial meeting took place in the Casino of a South Side amusement park and was conducted by Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman and Charles M. Alexander.

The auxiliary gatherings which served to differentiate the present crusade from any which has gone before are being participated in by the members of 400 churches of the Protestant denominations.

Fifteen hundred meetings are scheduled to be held during the next six weeks in the various churches.

MONDAY MORNING DOINGS
Under the Eagle

The members of the hospitable Colonial camp on the banks of the Merrimack opposite the lower end of Tyng's island closed the camp for the season yesterday with a dinner of roast sucking pig and an impromptu musical entertainment. The exercises were presided over by Mr. Frank Winn, president of the club and the music was furnished by Bob and Fred Lindsey and Jas. Lyons, while Prof. Trumbull presided at the piano. The menu was of the soul and appetite-satisfying order and was charmingly served under the direction of Mr. Harry Young, head steward of the club, ably assisted by Messrs. Felix Constantineau and Dennis Madden, assistant stewards.

FUNERAL NOTICE
HOWARD—Entered into rest, in this city, October 15th, 1910. Mrs. Sarah E. Howard, wife of James Howard, aged 65 years, 11 months and 3 days. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon from her late home, 16 Ellsworth street at 2.30 o'clock. Friends respectfully invited to attend. Kindly omit flowers. EX-JUDGE NOYES DEAD
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 17.—Former Judge Charles Noyes of Boston died here last night from the effects of injuries sustained in an elevator accident three weeks ago. He was 63 years old.

Mr. Noyes was judge of the Boston municipal court for a number of years and for five terms was speaker of the Massachusetts assembly.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT
BROOKLINE, Oct. 17.—The tall chestnut trees that border the Country club golf links looked down today on some of the best women players of three golfing countries in the special invitation tournament of the Woman's Golf association of Boston. Part of the brilliant field that played in the national championship on the Homewood course at Chicago came on for the Boston event and as few eastern women went to Chicago there was considerable interest in what is generally regarded as a supplementary championship event.

With players from the west from New York and Philadelphia and from Ontario and England and a strong local field that includes several former title holders, there was plenty of sport on the program even after today's qualifying round for the four flights of eight players each which will continue tomorrow at match play.

The first pair drove off across the broad polo field at 10 a. m. with the remainder of the field following at five minutes' intervals. The full championship course of 6032 yards was used and every woman stood on the same tees as those used by the men in the national amateur championship five weeks ago.

SIXTEEN OF UNCLE SAM'S WARSHIPS READY TO PEACEFULLY INVAD E EUROPE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Sixteen battleships, comprising the Atlantic fleet, will assemble in Hampton Roads about Nov. 1 for a European cruise. Two English and two French ports will be visited. The navy department has decided not to send cruisers or torpedo boat destroyers on the cruise, as originally planned. Each of the four divisions of the fleet will spend three weeks at one English and one French port. The visiting will begin Nov. 14 and will end Dec. 25. The Connecticut, Massachusetts, Delaware, Michigan and North Dakota will go first to Portland harbor (Weymouth), England, and from there to Cherbourg, France. The Louisiana, Kansas, New Hampshire and South Carolina will go first to Cherbourg and from there to Portland. The Mississippi, Idaho, Minnesota, and Vermont will go first to Gravesend, England, and from there to Brest, France. The Georgia, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Virginia will go first to Brest and from there to Gravesend. The new itinerary was arranged by Rear Admiral Schroeder, in command of the fleet, following the abandonment of the Mediterranean cruise owing to the prevalence of cholera at several ports in southern Europe.

The first pair drove off across the broad polo field at 10 a. m. with the remainder of the field following at five minutes' intervals. The full championship course of 6032 yards was used and every woman stood on the same tees as those used by the men in the national amateur championship five weeks ago.

The Famous Senator From Iowa is Dead

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Senator Dolliver died Saturday night, while Dr. E. M. Van Patten was examining his heart with a stethoscope. An acute attack of stomach trouble had affected the heart dilation of which was the direct cause of death.

Senator Dolliver had so far recovered from illness as to be able to walk about his lawn. He had been up all day and Saturday night entered his sitting-room for a consultation with his physicians. He informed Dr. Van Patten that he was feeling much improved, and that he believed he had about recovered his normal strength. Dr. Van Patten cautioned him about becoming too anxious to again resume his work.

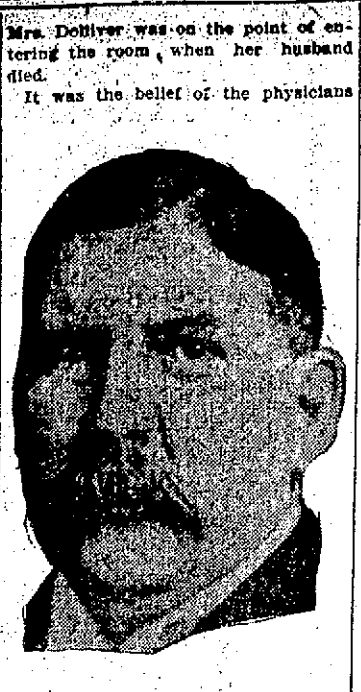

The senator was sitting in a Morris chair when the physician began the examination of his heart.

"I really feel better than at any time since my recent sickness," he said, "but I suppose the wolves will be set howling about my successor." And the senator laughed.

The physician continued his work with the stethoscope, counting the beats of the senator's heart out loud. He was frequently interrupted by Senator Dolliver with the declaration that he was able to hear his own heart.

When Dr. Van Patten had counted 14 beats he informed the senator: "That's good," replied Mr. Dolliver. "The most I have been able to count is seven."

The physician continued the examination and suddenly noticed that the heart beats had ceased entirely. The senator died without struggle or pain.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Four persons are dead and about 50 injured, some of them seriously, as a result of an electric car accident which occurred at 7.30 Saturday evening on Cambridge street near Charles, West End. A 12-ton Watertown inbound car left the rails as it came off the new West Boston bridge, turned end for end and then crashed over onto its side, hurling about 60 passengers into a writhing, screaming mass, some dead and others terribly injured.

The car was a few minutes late leaving Watertown. Most of the passengers agreed that when it came off the incline of the bridge it seemed to be running away from the water under a few feet west of Charles street there is an electric switch and the motorman attempted to throw this switch so that his car would proceed up Cambridge street into Bowdoin square. But just before he reached the switch the front end of the car seemed to jump in the air, the forward trucks left the

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The factional spirit works as much mischief in the democratic party as insurgency in the republican.

The credit of the Quincy police is saved by the discovery of the body of Rostelli, the insane murderer, in a quarry hole. He drowned himself soon after the murder and in a way that left no trace of him.

Can it be that another swindling concern has been doing business in Boston under the very eyes of the police and with a name quite as catchy as that which Morse applied to his bogus companies.

The "Gentleman From Mississippi" is a political play that bears a wholesome lesson in clean politics. It shows what one honest man can do to overcome a whole host of corruptionists. At one point the hero of the play dilates upon the force of public opinion and his estimate is not overdrawn, for in spite of exceptional cases it is public opinion that rules the world today.

MAP OF THE SUBWAYS

The Boston Elevated Railway company should issue a plain map showing strangers how to make their way through the labyrinthine underground system of transit in the city of Boston. The East Boston tunnel, the Washington street tunnel and other branches of the system recently added have rendered it more complicated and more perplexing to strangers. A map showing the connections between the great centres of travel such as the depots and boat landings would be very useful.

WELLMAN'S GREAT PROJECT

That any of the aviators should even consider the project of flying across the Atlantic is in itself astonishing; but more marvelous still is the fact that any of them should be equipped to make the trip. Walter Wellman with his great dirigible balloon, his three engines, his life boat and four men showed his confidence in what he can do, on Saturday when he started out upon the ocean in a fog from Atlantic City. He has been preparing to make a flight to Europe, and although he may fail in the first, second or third attempt it is almost a certainty that he or somebody else will eventually succeed in making the voyage in the air. The flights from Albany to New York, from Chicago to St. Louis, and even from the Atlantic to the Pacific are but the elementary steps in aviation. The feat of crossing the Atlantic will be the next great performance by the aviators.

BETTER AS A LABOR PARTY

The American Federation of Labor refused to be drawn into the snare of allowing the organization to be disrupted and destroyed by embarking on the seething sea of politics.

No level-headed labor leader would favor such a course.

The American Federation of Labor has been steered clear of such dangerous shoals as this in the past and it will do well to pursue the same course in the future. What would it amount to as a political party? Instead of becoming stronger in politics it would soon lose the influence it wields at the present time.

As a labor party the American Federation of Labor can advocate the rights of labor, it can fight for the enactment of better labor laws, and as a labor party it is immeasurably more potent than it would be as a political party.

Gompers and Mitchell have always avoided identification with any political party and in this they brought strength to the great labor organizations of which they were the recognized heads.

It will be well for other leaders to imitate their course in this respect. The A. F. of L. in this state has adopted the only logical course for a labor organization to pursue and its good judgment is widely recognized in resisting the temptation to adopt a course that could result only in ruin and disaster.

TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES

In view of the enormous losses in life and property resulting from forest fires in this country, it is very plain that more strict regulations must be adopted in order to prevent such losses in the future.

In this part of the country the forests are left practically unprotected. Tramps can roam therein at will; they can light fires, smoke and do anything they please once they enter the woods. The result is disastrous forest fires that sometimes wipe out large forests worth many thousands of dollars and even threaten whole towns and villages.

Even children are in the habit of going to the woods to start brush fires for the fun of the thing. The local firemen realize the extent of this danger, for they are called in scores of cases every year to extinguish brush fires started by children who flee as soon as they see the fire become dangerous. Thus children are trained to setting fires in the woods and as they grow older they are likely to keep up this habit.

All this should be stopped and severe penalties should be imposed by law for anybody who sets a fire in woods where it is liable to spread. Whether the forest is valuable or not is not considered by those whose only aim in starting a fire is mere amusement.

The losses annually in the west resulting from forest fires is enormous. In our own vicinity we have had several bad forest fires recently and all as a result of a blaze started here or there by boys or tramps with the utmost disregard as to results.

The law should resemble that by which the forests in some European countries are protected. In these countries it is forbidden to smoke except under certain specified conditions which ensure safety. If we adopted like precautions against forest fires our annual losses from that cause would soon be greatly reduced.

SEEN AND HEARD

If a girl wants to captivate a young man who ought never to go with him on a yachting party unless she is dead sure that she won't be seasick.

Occasionally a man may take up the profession of medicine because of a deep-seated interest in the welfare of the human race, but the dentist must always choose his job for the money that is in it.

A boy seldom turns out well if his father gives him all the money he wants.

The only advantage about hearing the man who tells uttering stories is that it takes him longer, so that he can't tell so many in a given time.

Never bet unless you can get odds of at least nine to one. You can almost never get such odds, following this rule may save you a great deal of money.

It must be very trying to wait on a hotel table. It is bad enough to wait at one.

HOPING FOR THE BEST

Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best; They will tie the knots in his trousers and sew up his coat and vest; They will throw him in a well, And they'll proudly ostracize him if he ever dares to tell.

They will teach him lots of habits we have warned him he should shun; They will press him into football and they'll break his bones for fun; They'll convince him that his studies are of no account in a well, And despise him if he doesn't mix in every silly brawl.

He will have to learn that prexy is unworthy of respect.

And become a noisy ruffian to be one of the elect; They'll endeavor to persuade him that the course is all a lost— Willie's gone away to college, but we're hoping for the best.

Yes, Samuel, you have the idea: A man's word is what he likes to do. His vocation is what he likes to do.

Errors which sometimes creep into the daily papers cause considerable merriment. Nearly every one has read of the reporter who described a shooting affair as follows: The man was shot once in the left breast and twice in the barber shop. Also the brief story that "The Chinaman fell, and broke his leg just below the optimum joint."

One of the most famous mistakes that ever got into a metropolitan paper was in Chicago in connection with a fire, when a number of persons were rescued.

The fire occurred late at night. The night city editor who "handled" the story marked the copy with it went to the printer with directions to send him proofs so that he could make certain there were no errors. Here is the way the story appeared in the paper:

"The young woman appeared at the window, flames bursting about her head, her hair disheveled and with wild eyes staring."

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Alfred Tennyson Dickens, the eldest surviving son of Charles Dickens, has arrived in England after a year's absence in Australia. Mr. Dickens will begin soon a long tour of the United Kingdom with his lecture entertainment, "My Father's Life and Works."

On the days of my boyhood I was constantly with my father, Mr. Dickens said recently, "and I have many interesting reminiscences of him, which I shall hope to relate to a London audience in the course of my tour. The entertainment consists mainly of anecdotes interspersed with recitations from my father's works."

My first ten years in Australia were spent in the bush, until I married and settled in Melbourne. For the last twenty years I have lectured in Australia, where my father's novels are immensely popular, and the name of Dickens is one to conjure with."

Mr. Dickens, a grandson of Tennyson, was born in 1845.

There will shortly be on sale throughout the kingdom the Dickens testimonial stamp, which has been chosen as the most effective way of celebrating the centenary of the novelist's birth. It is an original form of memorial, which is expected to touch the sympathies of the great community who read the works of Dickens and esteem his memory. There are twenty-four million copies of the works extant, and the proposal is that the possessors of them shall purchase a penny stamp to affix to each volume.

From London has come the announcement of the engagement of the actor-aviator, Robert Loraine, and Marie Lohr, the actress. Mr. Loraine and Marie Lohr have acted in the same company for two years. Miss Lohr, who is pretty and attractive, is regarded as one of the cleverest sentimental heroines on the English stage.

In appreciation of his interest in the French people and in French institutions, the decoration of "Officer of the Legion of Honor" has been conferred on President Judson of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Annetta M. Mills, who started the first and as yet the only school for the deaf in China, has started on her return trip to Chee Foo, having succeeded in persuading the foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church to take the school, for which she has heretofore carried all the responsibility, under its patronage. In the same well service bell for Mrs. Mills at the board's headquarters in New York, Dr. Arthur J. Brown said a large amount of money had been contributed toward the endowment fund, especially by inmates of the 235 homes for the deaf in this country. There are several fellowships, too, supported by children in deaf schools of this country. "There are four hundred thousand deaf mutes

BOY WAS KILLED

While Trying to Help Light Inspector

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Rushing to the assistance of A. C. Hryley, light inspector for the Edison Electric and Illuminating company, who was making repairs on an arc light at the corner of Alton street and Robinson court last evening, Eddie Donohue, aged 14, of 55 Maple avenue, son of Mrs. Catherine Donohue, took hold of the shade of the light and was almost instantly killed by the shock.

This light is on a 3500-volt circuit and 2200 volts are believed to have passed through the youth's body.

Young Donohue, accompanied by Leo Kennedy, aged 12, of 22 Southworth court, was on his way to Perkins park. Inspector Bralley was at work on the light, steadying it by means of a rope. Without any warning young Donohue took hold of the shade, apparently intending to hold it steady. He was instantly dropped to the ground. He was carried into the automobile garage of W. H. Marble, nearby, by Bralley and Young Kennedy and Medical Examiner A. Elliott Paine summoned. The boy was dead before he was lifted from the ground.

Mrs. Donohue was notified of the death of her son. She ran from her house to the garage, crying loudly and calling for her son. Before she reached the garage she was assisted to an automobile and taken home again, as it was apparent she was in no condition to see the body. Young Donohue was the oldest child of Mrs. Donohue, who is a widow. He was an office boy at the shoe factory of the George H. Snow company.

INJURIES FATAL

BOY WAS HIT BY AN ELECTRIC CAR

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 17.—Isador Katz, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Katz of 42 Abbey street, Chicopee, was struck by a south-bound Holyoke trolley car at the corner of Riverdale and Ashley streets at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and fatally injured.

Young Katz, with companions, Kantie Myers and Edward Haffey, both of Chicopee, were chattering. Young Katz, without noticing the approaching trolley, crossed the tracks, and upon seeing his companions were not following, started back and was caught by the trolley.

The car was going at a high rate of speed and the boy was thrown considerable distance, landing on his back. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and removed to the Springfield hospital, where an examination disclosed a crushed skull and internal injuries from which he died at 3 o'clock.

Four Persons Met Death in Accidents Yesterday

BROCKTON, Oct. 17.—Simon W. O'Brien, aged 32, of Randolph was instantly killed in an automobile accident on Battles street shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning. His skull was fractured by coming in contact with a tree at the side of the road. Four other occupants of the auto, George H. Littlefield, of Avon, Thomas Mullen, Thomas Boyle, and Leo Hurley of Randolph, had narrow escapes from injury.

The auto, which was driven by Mr. Littlefield, who owns it, was wrecked. Littlefield was formerly a shoe manufacturer in Avon.

The party was on the way from Randolph to Brockton, where it was planned to dine at a local restaurant. Mullen and Hurley had been with Littlefield most of the evening. O'Brien and Boyle were picked up at a restaurant in Randolph.

The trip to Battles street was without incident. The locality, two miles from the center of the city, was dark, and as Littlefield guided his machine around a curve in front of the farm of Fred F. Field he left the sandy road and took to a wide stretch of greenward. Although there is a slight incline at this point, the position of the automobile after the accident indicated that the machine must have been going at tremendous speed.

Forty feet from the point where the machine left the road stood a big tree, with roots protruding from the ground. One of the front wheels struck a root with such force as to toss the machine into the air to a height of 12 feet. As the auto changed its course and passed by the tree it is believed O'Brien, who was sitting on that side of the machine, lost his balance and his head swung out, coming in contact with the tree. His body was found 30 feet from the tree.

After coming in contact with the root the automobile hurled the road and landed squarely at the side of some bushes, 30 feet distant from the tree.

All of the occupants except O'Brien retained their seats and escaped injury. They immediately began a search for O'Brien and found him in a pool of blood in some bushes five feet away from the automobile. He was dead, the back part of his head having been crushed in.

The Brockton police were notified and Medical Examiner Payne and Patrolman Lindberg went to the scene in a police automobile. All of the men except Littlefield are said to have left the scene, walking back to Randolph. The policeman guarded the body until the arrival of an undertaker from Brockton.

The automobile, which was left at the side of the road, was removed yesterday forenoon to Avon. Simon O'Brien was one of the best-known young men in Randolph. He was a son of the late William P. O'Brien, who was a shoe manufacturer of Randolph. He was employed in the making room at the Richards & Brennan factory. He made his home with his three sisters. A brother, Frank O'Brien, is a police officer in Philadelphia.

AUTO SKIDDED
HOLYOKE, Oct. 17.—Skidding along a slippery road into a ditch in West Holyoke early yesterday, an automobile owned and driven by James J. Reardon tipped over, killing Mr. Reardon, fracturing an arm of Miss McCarthy, one of the occupants, and slightly injuring A. E. Cayer and Miss McDonald, both of Springfield.

Mr. Reardon was a widower, 41 years old, and the proprietor of a hotel in this city. Miss McCarthy is also a resident of this city. The party was coming from Springfield to Holyoke when the accident occurred. The machine skidded in going around a curve and crashed into a fence post by the roadside, breaking the forward axle and tipping over into a ditch. Mr. Reardon was pinned beneath the seat and probably died instantly. The others were thrown from the car, Miss McCarthy being the only one hurt badly enough to need a physician's attention. She was able to go to her home.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

No musical comedy of recent years has ever created the furore throughout New England that the famous "Isle of Spice" has. After one of the longest runs on record in Boston it went on tour through New England playing to enormous houses at high prices. During the engagement this week at the Opera House of the Katz and Phelan Amusement company "The Isle of Spice" will be given its first presentation here at popular prices, with George Ovey, the funny comedian of the company, in the leading comedy role, assisted by a talented company of 40 people, consisting of singers, dancers and above all, pretty girls.

"The Isle of Spice" contains many famous song hits, all of which have been retained, among which may be mentioned the famous "Gee Gee Man," "Peggy Brady," "How Can You Tell Me," "You're My Girl," and "Tender Hearted Man." A feature of the production will be the scenery used especially for "The Isle of Spice." Special scenery and costumes are used for each musical comedy during the week, and it is safe to say that this will be the biggest entertainment ever offered at popular prices.

The prices will be the rule during the engagement of the company, and the prices will be: Evenings 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents; matinees 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company opens its engagement here tonight, presenting "A Knight for a Day."

"THE JOLLY BACHELORS"
A company of more than a hundred is required to interpret the musical and dancing numbers in "The Jolly Bachelors," the biggest of all the big Lew Fields' shows, which is coming to the Opera House soon.

The prices of such widely known artists as Miss Stella Mayhew, one of the funniest women on the American stage; Miss Lucy Weston, the dainty English singer, who has recently been one of the biggest "head-liners" in vaudeville; Al Leach, easily the funniest eccentric dancer on our stage; Roy Atwell, Eddie Taylor, Harry Crane, Norman Thorpe, Miss Betty Sawyer and Nat Fields. The big chorus has been rehearsed under the personal direction of Ned Wayburn.

Scenically the piece outtrunks anything of its sort ever presented in this country, its baggage cars being required to transport the scenery and properties. "The Jolly Bachelors" succeeded "The Midnight Sons" at the Broadway theatre early last winter and attained an equal measure of success with metropolitan theatregoers.

THEATRE VOYONS

There is seldom a more touching friendship than that which exists between the owner of horses and dogs and his dumb friends. In "The Friends," shown today at the Theatre Voyons, a poor old man's only friends are his horse and dog, and the story woven around this attachment is pathetic and at the same time natural and beautiful. Another picture that will attract a good deal of attention is "The Song That Reached His Heart," a story of the effect that that good old song "Annie Laurie" has on a down and out western miner. In his childhood this song was his mother's favorite and in several critical periods of his life his hearing the long forgotten song causes a change in his life. It is a well carried out picture with every detail brought out to its fullest extent and one that is acted in an unapproachable manner. In connection with this picture several other musical efforts will be introduced. "A Summer Flirtation" will show the funny side of a vacation in which several young people get into very embarrassing situations.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Tom Nawn, the most original and ingratiating Irish comedian of the business, will appear at Hathaway's this week in his latest and best comedy scream, "When Pat Was King," another chapter in the history of the adventures of the ubiquitous Pat, whom Mr. Nawn has made famous. "Pat and the Gown" and the other sketches brought out by Mr. Nawn have convulsed thousands of vaudeville-goers, but his newest offering goes them all, one better. Another pretentious number which will conduce to the general happiness is Russell and Smith's Minstrel, with Joe B. McGee, "The Mark Twain Kid." The production is the presentation of a complete old-time minstrel first part with all the snap and sparkle attending the best performance of this kind ever given in vaudeville. Sweet singing, funny jesting by the end men, picturesque marches and lively dances, and brilliant costuming and stage effects—absolutely nothing is lacking. Fred Russell, who heads the company, is one of the best known and most popular burnt-cork artists on the stage; and Joe B. McGee, as his stage title implies, is an inimitable successful laugh-maker. The company comprises six people, all of whom contribute prominently to the audience's enjoyment. Edith A. Montrose will present one of the latest novelties in vaudeville, "A Bundle of Art." In the course of her kaleidoscopic Protean act, Miss Montrose impersonates a society belle, an Italian girl, Irish girl, tiny old hag, and Dutch girl; and, besides, mirth and popular songs are interestingly sounded in the act. Not only is Miss Montrose clever, but she has an original line of rapid-fire comedy conversation which keeps the audience in good humor while she is preparing for each character. Miss Martine, a daring woman athlete, gives a witty and picturesque exhibition on the trapeze, showing a skillful acrobat, and his remarkable trick dog, giving an interesting performance. Melodious singing and witty repartee are dispensed by Ingels and Reading, a man and woman. Ray W. Snow, the monologist, should prove a good acquisition to the show. Motion pictures close the bill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Carter, Taylor & Co. are a vaudeville team which deals in just one thing, and that is laughter. They have a very generous package of the mirth provoking stuff in their sketch "In Camp Rest," which will be presented at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week.

Fred Rivenhall is an English comedian, just perfect in his piping, too, you know. He has some brand new songs to sing, songs fresh from English music halls, and jokes which though English, are American enough to carry the witty tang one demands of the best comedians.

Then there are Hansson & Co. They are melodians, and of a new order. The Scenic Stock company, already a favorite with the patrons of the house, will present one of the daintiest one act plays ever, in "Hearts and Flowers," with a real love story and lots of sentiment. It's a dandy little play. In very truth, another from the pen of Mr. Mackey.

STAR THEATRE

From the time that burlesque and variety shows were in their infancy, Charlie Hamilton, the well known Irish comedian, can be pictured in a funny skit, surrounded by pretty girls and characters in the piece. This week the same Charlie Hamilton is at the Star with a skit that is there with funny situations and good musical numbers.

Four big acts of vaudeville are presented, in addition to the whirly gilly first part and the afterpiece, "The Lobster Man."

Having increased the seating capacity of the theatre by recent renovation, the management has decreased the price of admission afterwards, excepting Saturdays and holidays, to five and ten cents. The admission includes a seat, there being only a few reserved seats at ten cents.

HEAR MacMILLAN TONIGHT.

The program, full of interest to all classes of music lovers, that Francis MacMillan will play this evening in Lowell is sure to please. He is the third artist of first rank, heard in this city in a long time, the other two being Harold Bauer and Schumann-Heink. MacMillan is once musicianly, poetic, impassioned and manly. Do not miss this chance of hearing one of the world's greatest artists playing an instrument that is known the world over for its luscious tones—a genuine "Strad."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

GAUL'S CANTATA SUNG AT KIRK STREET CHURCH

Gaul's sacred cantata, "The Holy City," was presented before a large congregation at the Kirk Street church last evening.

The cantata is one that can be given to advantage with a strong chorus. Lacking this, the church quartet undertook to interpret the music by the solos, duets and two quartets, giving a most sympathetic and pleasing singing of the words, which were made the more effective by being read by the pastor before each number. Mrs. William G. Spence and Miss May L. Evelyn in their solos and duets, and Edward R. Worth and Charles H. Howard in their solo and quartet work, never lost sight of the dramatic strength of this well known and always satisfying work.

Arthur C. Spaulding was especially effective in his organ work, which was reinforced by Borjes orchestra, which had a worthy part in a quartet of an hour of favorite hymn singing that the congregation took part in before the singing of the cantata.

Rev. Mr. Craig in a brief address emphasized the value of church music and its mission in exalting the mind and heart. Unless it did this, it was a failure, he said, as sermon and prayers were a failure unless they lifted the heart to God.

"I had a doctor for them but he could not help. Then I read of the Cuticura Remedies. As I am a chemist, having served my apprenticeship in Germany, I did not have much confidence in them. Then the eczema became dry and entirely disappeared after about six weeks' treatment. This is now more than two years ago and no sign of the trouble has returned. Ran Over Bodies, Too. Dry and Very Crusty—Used Cuticura and Did No More Scratching. Eczema Disappeared in 6 Weeks.

Now More Than Two Years Ago and No Sign of Trouble Has Returned.

"My two children suffered from an affection of the face and hands. It started first with little red spots which afterwards got bigger until they were the size of five-cent pieces. The outside became dry and very crusty. The rash on their faces was awful and afterwards it ran over the body too."

"I had a doctor for them but he could not help. Then I read of the Cuticura Remedies. As I am a chemist, having served my apprenticeship in Germany, I did not have much confidence in them. Yet I was soon taught something better, for after I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent the first time the children felt very well and did no more scratching. Then the eczema became dry and entirely disappeared after about six weeks' treatment. This is now more than two years ago and no sign of the trouble has returned. Therefore I can recommend the Cuticura Remedies without reserve to all people who are suffering with eczema. William Grelek, 74 Douglas St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Mar. 10, 1910."

Shooting Affray in "Little Italy" at Millinocket

MILLINOCKET, Me., Oct. 17.—The most of the Italian population of "Little Italy" as well as the local officers are securing the town and the surrounding country looking for Luca Ottoboro, who it is alleged shot Alphonso Mascone here last night.

Most of the Italians are armed and excited and declare that they will kill Ottoboro on sight. Mascone has a wound in the head, which the physicians say will be fatal. He is a very popular member of the colony, hence the anxiety of his friends to find Ottoboro.

The shooting broke up a big social event, as most of the colony was gathered at the house of Francesco Benedetti at a christening of his grandchild, which was the occasion of a big feast, with plenty of Italian wine and beer.

Ottoboro was one of the guests and was seen to get up and go out. A revolver shot was heard outside and the guests rushed out to find Mascone on the ground with blood pouring from a gaping wound in his head and Ottoboro missing.

No one appears to know the reason for the assault, and no one can be found who saw the actual shooting. Ottoboro is about 25 years old, rather light complexion, for an Italian, stocky build, with black curly hair. He has been here about three months.

A general alarm has been sent out for his capture. Mascone has been here for some time, was one of the best known residents of Little Italy and known as an expert brick mason. He is 35 years old and unmarried.

Ottoboro was captured shortly before midnight, hiding in a shack on the outskirts of the town. He broke away and ran, followed by a fusillade of shots; but was chased for nearly half a mile, where he was finally bottled up in a culvert into which he had crawled. Only the presence of Deputy Sheriff Gates and other officers saved him from violence by the enraged Italians, and he is now guarded in the police station.

Further investigation indicates that the shot was fired into a group of several Italians who were in a fight outside of the Benedetti house. Ottoboro has a badly mangled ear, as it had been bitten. After he had fired the shot the crowd closed in upon him, but he managed to break away from them. The revolver with which the shooting was done was found—a .32 caliber high grade, with a pearl handle. It is generally thought that the shot was fired at random and that Ottoboro had no designs on Mascone in particular. Mascone is in a very critical condition, and his death is said to be a matter of a short time.

Aged Man Seriously Injured by Fall

John King, aged about 60 years, fell down a flight of stairs at his home, 59 Willie street, about 11:30 o'clock last night and sustained a bad scalp wound and possibly a fracture of the skull.

The ambulance was called and the man was rushed to St. John's hospital in a semi-conscious and serious condition. At the hospital it was said, after an examination, that the man was suffering from a severe scalp wound, but that no trace of a fracture had at that time been discovered, though there might be one.

Struck by a Car

Harry Agnew, a small boy residing in Alken street, was struck by an electric car in Central street about nine o'clock last night. The motorman of the car was unable to prevent the accident. The boy was playing tag in the street and without any warning whatsoever ran into the car. The car was in charge of Conductor Levine and Motorman J. J. Sheehan. Both rushed to the assistance of the lad, who appeared to be more frightened than hurt. Investigation could disclose only an injured knee, and the boy was taken to Merrimack square, and from there transferred to his home.

Holy Name Society's Big Demonstration

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—Under the banners of the Holy Name society and to the music of a thousand marching bands, a band of 30,000 men marched through the city's streets yesterday as a demonstration of the society's campaign against blasphemy.

In front of the cathedral a gathering, it is estimated, of 50,000 knelt on

LARGE GATHERING

At Meeting of M. T. I. Held Yesterday

The Mathew Temperance Institute held a largely attended meeting at its rooms yesterday morning with President James J. Gallagher in the chair.

Three new members were admitted and three propositions were received. The treasurer's report showed that the affair of October 10th was a financial success.

James F. McGovern of Woburn, a deputy of the society, was introduced for remarks and gave a talk on total abstinence.

President Gallagher announced to the members that on next Sunday evening in Associate hall a mass meeting in the interest of the Mathew Temperance Institute would be held commencing at 8 o'clock. He urged the members to be present and also to invite their friends, as the meeting will be an interesting one and is open to the general public. Many speakers will be present, including President John T. Shea of the C. T. A. Union of Boston.

A musical program has been arranged for this occasion and several Lowell singers have volunteered their services.

The object of this meeting has been outlined by a committee consisting of the board of trustees and the building fund with the following members: James J. Gallagher, president; John F. Brady, treasurer; Patrick McCann, John T. Ralls, John J. Guthrie, Thomas Tague, John A. McKenna, and James F. Rourke, secretary.

A committee of three was appointed, consisting of Peter F. Brady, Hugh J. Molloy and James F. Rourke, to draft a set of resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Katherine McManus, mother of Rev. Thomas F. McManus, the first spiritual director of the Mathew Temperance Institute, whose death occurred recently in Brookline.

For Dist. Atty. at Second Convention

WALTHAM, Oct. 17.—After a session lasting four hours, the legality of which may be tested before the ballot law commission, the democrats of Middlesex county, in their second convention, Saturday, nominated James J. Irwin of Everett for district attorney. His name, unless the convention is ruled to be illegal, will go on the ballot in place of John J. Higgins of Somerville, who was named at the so-called "snap" convention at Lowell last week, but who later declined to accept.

Legality Questioned

The question of the legality of Saturday's convention rose of the admission to seats of delegates whose credentials were declared to be defective. The credential committee, in making its report just after the opening of the session, announced that 76 credentials had been received, but that 25 of these were not properly signed. After a long discussion the convention voted, however, to seat all who had presented credentials, regardless of whether they were defective or not. Immediately Thomas L. Keefe of Everett secured the floor and declared his intention of taking the matter to the state ballot law commission.

By the time the convention was ready to vote on the nomination, the number of delegates had shrunk to 65. Of these 65 cast their ballots for Irwin and five for Higgins. An objection on the part of one of the Somerville delegates prevented the nomination being made unanimous.

Following the district attorney convention the county convention was called and the following nominations were made:

For county commissioner for three years, Dexter C. Whittemore of Cambridge.

For sheriff, Winfield S. Tuck of Winchester.

Charles T. Daly of Medford was chairman of the convention and John P. O'Connor of Everett secretary.

At the convention held in Lowell a week ago Friday, the following nominations were made:

For district attorney—John J. Higgins.

For high sheriff—John R. Fairbairn.

Dirigible Balloon Journeyed From Compeigne to London

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Another chapter was added to the history of aviation yesterday, when the French dirigible balloon Clement-Bayard made the voyage from Compeigne to London in the remarkable time of six hours, a journey requiring seven hours by the fastest trains and boats. Compeigne is 45 miles northeast of Paris, and about 155 miles by air route to London.

This is also the first occasion on which the dirigible balloon has crossed the English channel. The over-water route occupied 45 minutes.

The Clement-Bayard left Compeigne at 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning and reached London without a stop at about 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The dirigible carried M. Clement, of the Clement-Bayard firm, in command; Baudry and LaPrinze, steersmen; Sebatier, engineer and designer; two mechanics and Arthur Philip Ducros, member of the British parliamentary aerial defense committee.

The course was by way of Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne and the balloon was steered steadily by aid of the compass.

Occasional wind gusts caused some slight rocking of the balloon, but otherwise she proved steady. The French government provided three torpedo boat destroyers, which proved of great assistance in crossing the channel. The Clement-Bayard reached Boulogne at 10:20 and Folkestone at 11:20. Over the channel there was little wind, but a heavy haze.

The whirling of the engines and propeller attracted the attention of crowds of sightseers in Folkestone and other towns, and the balloon arrived over London just as the streets were filled with the great Sunday crowds leaving the churches. The appearance of the monster over the house-tops caused the people to wonder, and hundreds of thousands gathered to watch the aeronauts, who now experienced some trouble with the varying air currents and eddies. On this account they circled St. Paul's and the Tower bridge twice, dipped several times and flew closely over the tops of buildings. They passed over the houses of parliament and along to Hyde Park, where there was a wild scramble by spectators.

The dirigible landed safely in Wormwood Scrubs, after describing large descending circles, aided by a detachment of soldiers. M. Clement said that he was exceedingly well pleased with the behavior of the airship.

AFTER $35,000 PRIZE

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Henry Wynnalen, the Dutch aviator, holder of the world's altitude record, and M. Legaux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made a remarkable trip in biplanes yesterday from Paris to Brussels in an attempt to win prizes aggregating $35,000 offered for a successful flight with passenger from this city to Brussels and return.

Wynnalen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely last evening in St. Quentin. Legaux decided to stop over for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early today.

The distance between the two points is about 170 miles as the crow flies, and the distance between Brussels and St. Quentin approximately 80 miles. The daring Hollanders, therefore, covered about 250 miles with passenger.

Wynnalen covered the distance to Brussels in five hours and 35 minutes. Legaux with one stop, made it in five hours.

Past National President Hogan of Boston gave a very interesting address on the work of the N. A. S. E. National Vice President Kearney also was present and made some interesting remarks on the welfare of the order. Refreshments were served.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.
